

CONGRESS TO ADJOURN TOMORROW

HOUSE WANTS TO GET ACTION ON THE COTTON BILL, AND AS THE PRESIDENT HAS YET TO PREPARED, WILL GET IT, ON TIME.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Aug. 21.—To adjourn congress tonight was the hasty plan urged by a majority of both sides of the house late this afternoon.

Representatives besieged Speaker Clark and Democratic Leader Underwood to send the cotton bill to the vice president immediately and thence to the president late this evening.

The White House had previously intimated that the president had his veto message practically ready and would return the veto measure at once if it reach him tonight.

Clark and Underwood would give no definite answer whether they would consent to adjournment tonight or tomorrow, but following a recess in the house, went into conference.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Following a conference, Speaker Clark and Democratic Leader Underwood announced this afternoon that they refused to assent to the program of congress adjourning tonight.

The house concluded debate on the cotton bill this afternoon at 3 o'clock and went into recess until 5 o'clock, at which time a vote will be taken.

ORDERED AMERICAN FLAG DOWN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Diego, Cal., Aug. 21.—Attempts to force the ocean automobile tourists to haul down an American flag fastened to their baggage auto, at Tia Juana, Mexico, came near starting a serious fight below the line.

Mexican soldiers informed the driver of the automobile that the flag must come down while they remained in Mexican territory. The driver resented the order, declared that he would not obey, and as the Mexicans made a run for his vehicle, he threw the throttle open, dashing for the American side. Several Mexicans were struck by the flying automobile, but the rifles that were leveled at the Americans were silent, and the party got back safely.

Feeling against Americans is strong below the line.

I feel that I have the right to ask my friends actively to prevent such a movement. I should esteem it a genuine calamity if any such a movement were undertaken."

FINED FOR SELLING ON SUNDAY

Before "Bart" Alpine, saloon keeper at St. Louis, hereafter in violation of the Sunday closing law—if he ever does violate it again—sets out on his bar a glass and a bottle containing the liquid that cheers it is a safe bet that he will carefully scrutinize his customer and satisfy himself that he is not an officer, for he sold a drink and two bottles of beer to Deputy Sheriff Esch yesterday afternoon, and the deputy sheriff after taking his drink and exchanging the pleasantries of the day with the genial saloon man, took him into custody and brought him to the city.

Takes Him by Surprise.

Complaints one after the other had been rolling into the sheriff's office that Alpine was doing a wholesale Sunday business and that he was permitting his customers in a drunken condition, to lie in front of his saloon in full view of the Oregon Electric trains as they passed. Becoming tired of them Deputy Sheriff Esch yesterday afternoon hired an automobile and in company with a friend drove to St. Louis. The friend entered to ascertain the chances of procuring a drink and afterwards motioned to the deputy sheriff to come in and the two had a drink over the bar. To make the case complete, Deputy Sheriff Esch bought two bottles of beer and then after remarking about the weather and the beauties of, and future of the town of St. Louis, exhibited his star and took Alpine into custody.

This morning Alpine appeared before Judge Webster on a charge of violating the Sunday closing law and pleaded guilty. He was fined $25 and costs which he paid and was released.

Pull Together

Dissension in a town makes the grass grow in the streets. Unity makes the trade grow in the stores. Other things being equal, a city is usually as big as the faith of its people.

If they believe in it enough to sink all differences and pull together you can bet dollars to doughnuts that town is on the up grade.

When all the merchants unite for the good of their burg it is a safe gamble that home trade will unite itself to them.

It is better to have the long green in the tills than the grass green in the streets.

Unity makes the long green grow.

The town that does not pull together will be pulled to pieces.

KIDNAPER TO GO BACK TO INDIANA

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 21.—That the attorneys for the defense of the McNamara's will directly interest themselves in the proceedings now being carried on in Indianapolis in regard to the alleged kidnaping of John J. McNamara, and that they will fight to secure the extradition of Detective James S. Hosick, of the Los Angeles department, who is wanted in the Hoosier state on a kidnaping charge, is evidenced by the fact that Attorney Joseph Scott today is in Sacramento to take up with Governor Johnson the matter of Hosick's extradition.

Who asked today if the attorneys for the defense were directly interested themselves in Hosick's extradition, Clarence Darrow said:

"We are not trying to have anybody punished for a crime that they either did or did not commit. But we feel that Hosick should not run away from the charge. We think that since he is wanted for a kidnaping charge, whether or not he played any more than a legal part in bringing McNamara to California, he should face his accusers and stand trial. We think our client was kidnaped and we would like to see the guilty parties punished. Further than that we are not interested in either the proceedings at Indianapolis or in Detective Hosick."

CHILDREN'S EYES

If it were possible for us to take more interest in one case as against another, we are free to admit that our greater interest would be in the case of the children.

Experience in so many cases has taught us just how to fit children's glasses to avoid the unsightliness and inefficiency often found where others, less careful, have done the work.

Q—Why do school children require glasses?

A—Mainly to rest the eyes. The eye does not obtain the growth until the child is about the age of 12. The growing eye is taxed beyond its strength; the proper glasses rest and preserve the eyes.

Q—Why do children squint?

A—By squinting or frowning the muscles of the eyes are relieved of strain, this is nature's way. Study glasses relieves this strain, and thus prevents squint.

Q—Why do children have eye-headache?

A—An eye headache is a reflex pain caused by straining the eyes, the pain may be over the eyes or through the temples. The remedy for eye headache is relief glasses to be worn while studying. One charge covers the entire cost of examination glasses, frames.

My 30 years of experience is at your service.
