HE FOUND "THE DAM HANDLE IN THE BACKS"

DUTRO WROTE A LETTER AND SEEMED TO THINK HE HAD TO MAIL IT, AS HE, LIKE A WOMAN, ADDED A POSTSCRIPT.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Portland, Or., Aug. 24.—"Well, Dutro got the pump handles he wanted, anyway," said Fred Manson, local manager of a big implement house, today, after he had read the following letter from ma Bend, Oregon, patron:

"der frend I get the valve which I by from you alrite by why for the sake doan sen me no handle wats the use of the valve when she 'oan have no handle I lose to me a customer shure thing you don treat me rite is my money not so good to you as the other fellow I wats 10 dase and my customer haller like hell by the valve, yu no he is a hot summer and the valve in the well is no good without the handle sen me one qulet.

"P. S.—since I rite these letter I find the dam handle in the backs excuse me."

TAFT TAKES A VACATION AT BEVERLY

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 24.—President Taft arrived here today for a few weeks' vacation. After greetings from the members of his family, the president hurried to Myopia to play golf. He was accompanied by his military aide, Archibald Butt, and Private Secretary Hillex.

The president definitely fixed the date of his departure on his Western journey, which will include the breaking of ground at San Francisco for the Panama-Pacific exposition in 1915, last night, when he promised to visit the New York state fair at Syracuse September 16.

A PORTLAND MAN DIES AT CONVENTION

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Stricken down with a severe attack of gastritis during the G. A. R. convention here, General Alvah Edmonds, of Portland, Or., died today at the general hospital.

At today's business session of the Grand Army encampment, which was held behind closed doors, Commander-in-Chief Gilman delivered the annual address, and the reports of other officers were read.

AWARD BUILDING CONTRACT BUT HOLD UP HEATING

The state board yesterday afternoon formally awarded the contract for the construction of the group of buildings entering into the composition of the Eastern Oregon Hospital for the Insane to Olson & Johnson, of Missoula, Mont. The contract price was $294,675.

While Theodore Barr was the lowest bidder for the installation of the heating plant, the board decided not to award the contract for it until all the representatives of the bidders could be heard by the board relating to the merits of their heating plants, and Friday morning has been set as the time for the hearing. The companies bidding for this contract made alternative bids—that is so much for a certain boiler, and so much for another kind, and before awarding the contract it is the desire of the members of the board to examine into the merits of the boilers offered by each bidder.

THE LAW REQUIRES MUCH INTERPRETATION

Declaring that the officers at Portland insisted upon arresting their men because they did not have lights on their vehicles the Carey Sanitary Milk company of that city today appealed to Secretary of State Olcott for an interpretation of the state law requiring automobiles and other vehicles to carry lights.

The law says that any automobile or vehicle operated otherwise than by animal power must carry lights, and the secretary has so written the company. The attorney general several days ago rendered an opinion, saying that while the language of the act was vague, that he believed that it intended to exclude all vehicles, save those operated by gasoline or electricity.

Don't try to get your own share and the other fellow's; he might misconstrue your motive.

GERMAN DAY AT STATE FAIR SEPTEMBER 15

The following in the shape of a poster is being distributed throughout the state:

"German Day, (Deutscher Tag), home coming day for all German-Americans of the state of Oregon at the Oregon State Fair, Friday, September 15, 1911, at Salem, Oregon.

"Do you know that John Jacob Astor, a German, founded the first white settlement in Oregon? That Henry Villard, a German, guided and successfully completed the first trans-continental railroad into Oregon? That Richard Koehler, a German, made it possible for the Oregon & California railroad to build from San Francisco to Portland? That German capital made possible Oregon's first and permanent railroad development? German energy is closely bound up with the growth and development of Oregon.—German home day will be a royal gathering of all German-Americans of the state of Oregon in recognition of the thrift and energy that has done so much to build up this western country.

All will be heartily welcomed by the state fair board and the people of Salem, the capital of Oregon. Reduced rates on all railroads. Greatest fair in the history of Oregon. Under auspices of State Federation of German Societies.

THE LAW NEEDS CONSIDERABLE INTERPRETATION

There is now in effect a state law requiring all horse drawn vehicles, as well as motor cars, to be equipped with lanterns. A portion of house bill No. 32, which becomes effective August 14, reads as follows:

"During the time from one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise all vehicles, except motor cars, shall be required to display but one lighted lamp, such lamp to be placed on the front of the vehicle so that it shall be visible 100 feet in the direction in which the vehicle is proceeding, and show red lights to the rear.

The horse editor confesses his inability to arrive at any conclusion as to the number of lights to be carried. The law says "but one lighted lamp," and this carried in front of the vehicle. Now how the red lights are to be shown in the rear without the lamps being lighted, or without there being more than one, is where it downs the horse editor.

WARRANT FOR HOSICK IS ISSUED

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 24.—The warrant for the arrest of Detective Hosick, of Los Angeles, for whose extradition to Indiana on the charge of complicity in the alleged kidnapping of John J. McNamara, papers signed by Governor Marshall, were honored Monday, was signed today by Governor Hiram Johnson.

The signing was perfunctory, and immediately afterward State Agent Holt, of Indiana, left for Los Angeles to execute the warrant.

X-RAYS AND SMILES.

Conserving the forests, owning and operating coal lands for the benefit of the people, starting postal banks and dozens of other things Uncle Sam has adopted, are so many steps toward Socialism, and predatory wealth is thus committing hari-kari.

AS ANOTHER EVIDENCE OF UNCLE SAM'S LEANING TOWARD SOCIALISM IS THE PANAMA CANAL ZONE.

There Uncle Samuel runs the restaurants, laundries, and all other business, and besides running a big hotel at Ancon is to build another at Colon to cost $500,000.

President Taft will probably not remove Judge Hanford, but he will certainly use the incident to show that his ideas of the "recall of judges" by communities in the heat of passion, are correct.

If that stolen picture in any way resembles the cut of it in the Oregonian this morning and the man who stole it is ever caught, he should be sent to an asylum for the insane.

Andy Johnson's famous swinging 'round the circle, is only a contrast to the trip Taft will take. He will swing around the whole United States.

Hay Fever and Summer Colds.
Must be relieved quickly, and Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will do it. E. M. Stewart, 1034 Wolfram street, Chicago, writes: "I have been greatly troubled during the hot summer months with hay fever and find that by using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound I get great relief." Many others who suffer similarly will be glad to benefit by Mr. Stewart's experience. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is effective for coughs and colds in either children or grown persons. No opiates, no harmful drugs. In a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Red Cross Pharmacy (H. Jerman).

While it is probably true that things might be worse, we are more concerned in the other side of the question.
