Barge Sinks; Horses Swim—Three barges, used for hauling wagons loaded with gravel sank at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, shortly after the barge had left the gravel bar. The double ferry of the Capital Improvement company was bringing seven barges loaded with gravel from the gravel bar to the west shore when the rear barge sank. The men and horses managed to reach shore, after an hour and a half of struggling in the water, and after two sets of harness had been literally cut to pieces in an endeavor to free the animals.

SITUATION AS SHOWN BY EITHER SIDE

What the Railroads Say.
(By Julius Kruttschnitt, Vice President and General Manager of the Harriman Lines.)

The policy of the Union and Southern Pacific always has been one of justice, liberality and even generosity toward their employees.

The effect of these demands would be to place the whole body of workers in all crafts, behind a demand made by any few of them, encouraging unreasonable requests.

The entire demands average an increase of 26 per cent in addition to 12 1/2 per cent increase granted on the Southern Pacific within the last five years.

The Harriman line shop payrolls would be increased $7,000,000 annually. The federation plan would mean chaos; would abridge or deprive the corporations of the ability to fulfill the duties imposed upon them by law.

We decline to surrender to an irresponsible committee representing a very small portion of the public.

What the Workers Say.
(By Ernest L. Rogun, President of Federated Shoppers West of the Mississippi.)

There are only three essential things we ask—shorter hours, increase in pay and change in hospital conditions.

I admit these are enough to make the situation serious, but I believe it will be amicably settled. All we ask of Kruttschnitt now is to talk with us.

He says we are an irresponsible body of men. If he will see our international officers I am sure he will change his mind. What of it if the workmen get a $7,000,000 yearly increase? Who gets it? The workmen, but it will all get back to the railroad.

All we get is just enough to live on. The trouble is the increased cost of food and higher rents. I think that when we come to present the facts to Kruttschnitt he will see it our way a little more.

We are not making any threats. We are only asking justice and fair play.

THE OPINIONS OF GOVERNORS HARMONIOUS

UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE
Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 29.—Discussing the address on trusts and their remedy, delivered today in Boston by President Farrar of the American Bar association, Governor Hiram Johnson of California today said:

"Mr. Farrar points a great evil and is quite right in the declaration that the burning question agitating the people is how to control corporations. I am not so certain that he gives a specific remedy. Direct legislation with the recall applicable to the judiciary is as near affording the people a remedy as anything yet suggested, and it is because it will give to the people the weapons necessary for correction that the progressive element in this state so strongly favor it. May we not conclude that we are progressing when the president of the American Bar association indulges in such an address as that of President Farrar?"

What West Says.
UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE
Astoria, Or., Aug. 29.—President Farrar of the American Bar association undoubtedly was right when he said in his Boston speech today that law state laws are responsible in a large measure for the pernicious activities of the trusts," said Governor Oswald West of Oregon, after reading a report of Farrar's speech.

"Although we in the West have not suffered much, directly, our turn will come," added the governor. "The Oregon laws are lame in not restricting corporations from issuing watered stock, and in other ways also."

"I believe Farrar's plan of having the governors of the different states attempt to arrange for the enactment of similar restrictive laws is a good one. If it was possible for me to attend the meeting of the house of governors in New Jersey next month, I certainly would take an active part in advocating such a step."

THEY WANT TO APPEAL WEBB CASE

Attorneys representing Jessa Webb, the Portland trunk murderer, appeared before the supreme court this forenoon, and asked for a stay of execution, and also for the privilege of perfecting an appeal to the court in his case. The court, after listening to the argument, announced that it would render a decision tomorrow on the day after.

Webb's appeal was dismissed by the supreme court several weeks ago on the ground that the attorneys had failed to file the transcript within the time required by law. The attorneys now contend that they were laboring under a misapprehension, that they did not know that the time for the filing of the transcript had elapsed.

Bellingham, Wash., Aug. 29.—In an explosion of a sawmill boiler at the plant of the Tyrrel-Hitchcock company at Van Zandt today, Joe Gilmore, engineer, was scalded and bruised and will die. The explosion came without warning and a stream of scalding water was directed upon Gilmore before he could make his escape. The mill property was not damaged to any extent.

HE CALLS IT POLITICAL OPPRESSION

Washington, Aug. 29.—That the federal ban on the McNamara defense fund stamps is a piece of political oppression is the opinion of Secretary Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor.

In a statement to the United Press today, Morrison said:

"A fixed policy of oppression is the motive behind the decision of the postoffice department in barring the use of the McNamara defense fund stamps. When we contemplated using the stamps we were told that if the stickers did not resemble the federal postage stamps their use would be permitted. The stamps do not resemble postage stamps in any way. To my mind it is merely a case of being unable to comply with any laws when the officials back of them are hostile toward us."

SHE SUES FOR HER SHARE OF THE ESTATE

Alleging that Minnie Frickey, Wm. Frickey, Mary Casabier, T. C. Jory and wife and Ray and Myrin Frickey conspired together to defraud her of her share of the estate of Christian and Christina Frickey, Rachel Greiner has commenced a suit in the circuit court asking that she be given her share.

The estate is valued at $50,000, and the defendants and she were the lawful heirs, she says. Unwilling to pay the inheritance tax, Christian and Christina Frickey, she alleges, conveyed the estate to Minnie Frickey on condition that when they died it should be distributed among the heirs. All their heirs, she says, secured their share of the estate, and though requested, Minnie Frickey, she alleges has declined to convey to her her portion of the estate.
