

POLICE THINK THEY HAVE CLUE TO MURDERER

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Colorado Springs, Sept. 23.—A. J. Burnham, a cook at the Modern Woodmen sanitarium near here, who was held as a possible suspect for murder of his wife and two children and three members of the Wayne neighbors, was released from custody today. He is reported to be in a critical condition from advanced tuberculosis, and cannot live long.

Burnham went to the home of his sister-in-law. He will be watched by the police to make sure that their action in releasing him will not prove a mistake. In the event that they get some evidence against him.

Police officers are today investigating a story told by Helen Young, 16, and a companion, whose name is suppressed. The girl says that two weeks ago she met a man named "John" at a band concert. On Tuesday preceding the murder he told her that Wayne owed him some money, and he was going to get it.

Last Monday night she saw this man again, and he remarked, "well, we got that fellow."

The girl asked him who he meant by "we," and he answered, "that is something that you don't need to know."

The police suspect whom "we" meant. They have witnesses declaring that a stranger called at the Wayne home last Saturday and quarreled with Wayne. The latter said if the intruder did not let him alone he would expose him.

The theory that Wayne was slain for revenge because he failed to pay his gambling debts is doubted. The real reason is believed to be deeper, and involving Mrs. Burnham, who is thought to have eined the secret.

A Bertillon expert of Denver is investigating the finger prints found on the bloodstained axe at the Burnham home.

"HOOTCH ALBERT" TWENTY SEVEN YEARS IN ALASKA

Seattle, Sept. 23.—After 27 years of life in the Arctic circle, Albert Fortier is in Seattle today enjoying his first ride in a motor car, his first glimpse of a moving picture show and his first stroll on real asphalt pavements.

The pioneers call Fortier "Hootch Albert", a name given him in the early 80's by the eskimaux when he started a distillery from which he sold a strange liquid at $75 a gallon.

Hootch Albert came back to civilization because the rheumatism is creeping into his bones and he will take medical springs treatment at some of the resorts.

MOVING PICTURES TO SHOW AT THE GRAND

Manager Waters, of the Grand Opera House, has decided to run a moving picture show in connection with the theater. With this in view a moving picture outfit of the latest type has been installed and beginning with Thursday, September 28, a moving picture program will be shown every evening when none of the regular attractions are on.

Mr. Waters will have his pictures furnished by the General Film Exchange, of Portland, and his service will be of the best. Music will be furnished by the regular orchestra, and a vocalist has been secured for the opening.

This is a good move on Mr. Waters' part as the opera house is the most comfortable place in town for entertainments of all kinds and the doors should not be closed to the public so many nights as in the past, but should be open for the enjoyment of the Salem theater goers.

Another good feature in Mr. Waters' plans, is that he will not run his house Sundays. But with the exception of Sundays, there will be something doing at The Grand every night.

MISTAKEN FOR A BEAR KILLED BY A FRIEND

Centralia, Wash. Sept. 23.—J. C.

Cales, one of the oldest and best known residents of Bucoda, was mistaken for a bear and instantly killed yesterday by R. W. Waddle, a well known resident of Centralia, who was out hunting with Cales. The shooting occurred on Johnson Creek about 15 miles from Bucoda.

BIG TRUCK GOT BUSY AND SWIPED A WAGON

While the street car was doing stunts in front of the Journal office this morning, one of the big auto trucks of the city was run up in front of the office and stopped while the driver went up the street for a short distance. The truck, feeling it was up to it not to be outdone by a decrepit old street car of the vintage of 1902, suddenly got a move on and started south on Commercial at a dignified pace. It moved sedately over towards the sidewalk in front of Arnold's blacksmith shop, where it gathered up a wagon and started off with it. The blacksmith yelled, "stop thief!" and undertook to shut off the power, but grabbed the wrong lever and the truck responded with a jump. The lever was hastily jammed back and the unruly "beast" stopped. No damage done, only that the driver, who came down the street at a Maud S. gait, was so frightened that he won't get his color back until the sun tans him up next summer.

She Wants To Make 'Em.

Spokane, Sept. 23.—With the object of seeking converts to the suffragette creed among members of San Francisco labor unions, Mrs. Mary Arkwright Hutton, one of the leading suffragettes of Washington, left here today for San Francisco. She will remain in California, speaking for equal rights for women until October 10th.

Needs the Swatter.

Elmira, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Aviator C. P. Rodgers ran into more trouble here today, when he tried to get under way on his westward coast to coast flight for a $50,000 prize. After waiting until 10:30 o'clock for the fog to lift, he ascended, and then tried to descend, but in landing broke a guy wire which punctured the elevating plane.

KINGWOOD PARK

Is easily the most beautiful and most popular addition about Salem. The reason is plain to see. The beautiful natural setting of the place is unique, while the substantial improvements being installed, and the building restrictions enforced make it a most desirable residence district.

THE PURE WATER AT KINGWOOD PARK

is one of its greatest assets. This water is soft and absolutely pure and satisfactory in every way. The public is invited to inspect the water system at Kingwood Park, and test the water, which is now piped over the entire tract, as well as upon Kingwood Heights. Electric Lights are available also to all of the beautiful homes now going up in Kingwood Park. Let us show you the attractions of this popular addition. The prices are very reasonable, and the terms are easy.
