Silly and Meaningless.
 Trenton, N. J., Oct. 2.—Characterizing the hymn "Beautiful Isle to Somewhere" as "silly and meaningless," after he had heard 6000 people sing it, Governor Woodrow Wilson stated that many present day hymns contain neither poetry nor sense.

THE WOMEN REMAINED ON THE JURY

Tacoma, Oct. 2.—Ten men and only two women begged off jury service for the October term of court today. One woman was a non-taxpayer; the other was willing to serve, but had a sick baby.

Of the men, one was deaf, several were busy, one was a doctor, one was sick and two couldn't read nor write, though they had been in this country for 20 years.

"It's a disgrace," said Judge Chapman to last two. "You ought to have learned something in that length of time."

WITH ALL CABLES CUT THE NEWS FROM THE WAR IS SCANT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

London, Oct. 2.—With cables from the scene of action cut and censors busy in every important news center, Europe tonight knows practically nothing certain of the clash of arms between Turk and Latin in the near east. That there is fighting, and probably desperate fighting in progress is not doubted, but to what extent the lives of men are going out in the contest between Christian and Moslem and to what extent victory is crowning the Italian arms only scattering and disjointed.

Whether Tripoli, the center of action, has finally fallen into the hands of Italy is as uncertain as the news from other parts of the theater of war. Refugees arriving at various ports of refuge tell varying stories. Wireless despatches from British cruisers indicate that Italy has actual possession of the African city, but whether or not Tripoli fell after a bombardment is unknown.

Another big feature of the war situation which is shrouded in mystery is the fate of the Turkish fleet. Constantinople despatches, after censorship, seem to indicate that it, or the most of it, is safe in the Dardanelles. Roman despatches, however, tell another story and seem to declare that the greater part of the Turkish navy has been destroyed in battle.

Vague stories of the engagement at Prevesa, in which the Duke of Abruzzi was undoubtedly victorious, indicate that his victory may have been gained at the cost of a heavy loss of life. It is almost sure that some of the Turkish vessels engaged were sunk, but how dearly their victory cost the Italians is still unknown.

Still another big feature of the war cloud which hangs over the embroiled countries, is the almost certainty that fanaticism throughout Turkey is reaching a high pitch, and that a Jihad, or holy war, may be declared throughout all the Moslem countries, whose inhabitants, stirred by the Italian attack, seem convinced that they must combine to prevent the utter extinction of the Moslem states.

PERSONALS.
 *****

Mrs. Halle Parrish-Hinges left today to fill an engagement to sing for the Wasco county fair at The Dalles. B. A. McFadden, jeweler and engraver, spent Sunday with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Dave McFadden, on Capitol street.

Judge Galloway left yesterday for Portland, where he is engaged in taking evidence in the Oregon University case.

State Engineer Lewis went to Portland on business today.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Alderman left today for Oregon City, where he will attend a teachers' institute. From there he goes to The Dalles.

Governor West left today for Astoria where he expects to visit for several days.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh: Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh, powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a real remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

GLENN BURTON IS TOO HANDY WITH HIS PEN

Wanted for a dozen or more forgeries, which were committed in Seattle and the Bremerton Navy Yard, three marines armed with warrants of arrest for Glenn Burton arrived in the city today, and, after an interview with Sheriff Minto, who had him in custody for similar charges he was turned over to them.

Burton completed a sentence in the penitentiary last June for obtaining money by false pretenses. After being released he joined the navy at Bremerton, and then he deserted. After his desertion it was found that he had forged the names of men of the navy, several of them officers, and prominent business men of Seattle, to checks, and a search was made for him, and he was finally located in jail here. As the charges against him by the federal government were graver than those held against him here, the sheriff decided to turn him over to it for prosecution.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Malta, Oct. 2.—Refugees arriving here from Tripoli today say the Italian fleet had not begun a bombardment when they left there Saturday night. A wireless from a British cruiser, however, says that the occupation has taken place.

Rome, Oct. 2.—The Tribuna this afternoon publishes a dispatch which is apparently sanctioned by the government, doubting that the Turkish fleet has reached the Dardanelles in safety.
