

Soda crackers are extremely sensitive to moisture.

Before the advent of Uneda Biscuit the only persons who ever tasted fresh, crisp soda crackers were the people in the bakeries.

Imagine their trip from bakery to your table; exposed to air and moisture—kept in grocers' boxes and finally in a paper bag on the shelf in your pantry. Could they be the same as they were the day they were baked?

Now that we have Uneda Biscuit—we have perfectly baked soda crackers—perfectly kept.

No moisture can reach them—no contaminating influences can affect their flavor—their goodness is imprisoned only to be liberated by you for you when you open the package.

Always in the moisture proof package. Never sold in bulk. 5 cents a package.

TRAVELING SALESMAN AT GRAND

ONE OF THE GREATEST LAUGH PRODUCING PLAYS, AND YET FULL OF HUMAN INTEREST—A HEART STORY BEAUTIFULLY TOLD.

Manager Waters announces for Monday, October 23, at the Grand opera house the latest comedy success, "The Traveling Salesman," by James Forbes, author of "The Chorus Lady." The fact that this play is the biggest laugh producer of the decade is a matter of universal knowledge.

For the first time in the history of the American stage, a play has been written which deals with the commercial traveler. It is of a character which breathes the clean, wholesome life of a jovial American, who sees many things of a humorous nature, as he goes through this world, and still is always ready to respond to any call for aid and quick to succor the distressed. It is no wonder that "The Traveling Salesman" has been acclaimed such a tremendous success, because it conveys a message of mirth and merriment to the theatergoer. It embodies no serious discussion of sex or topics of the day. It is a play intended by the author to amuse and entertain. The New York American in speaking of it said: "It is worth traveling miles to see." In fact every newspaper in the city of New York was loud in its praise, and that it was most popular with the general public is evidenced by the fact that it ran in the metropolises for over nine months.

It will be interpreted in this city by a company of more than usual ability, and scenically the production will be the same as shown in New York and Chicago. Among the members of the cast might be mentioned Don MacMillan, who gives an amusing and most enjoyable performance of Bob Blake, the drummer, and Dorothy Grey, who will be seen in the difficult role of Beth Elliott, the ticket agent, with whom Blake falls in love.

ARRANGE TO GIVE CHARTER PUBLICITY

After listening to an address by ex-Mayor Rodgers on the charter for a commission form of government, and also after a general discussion of the subject had been indulged in by business men present, the Business Men's League at its meeting last evening appointed a committee to make plans for bringing about publicity on the subject so that each and every voter may go to the polls and cast his vote intelligently upon it.

The committee named consists of Hal D. Patton, August Hockstein and R. K. Page. One of the plans of the committee to bring about publicity on the subject will be to make arrangements for meetings by all of the progressive leagues and organizations in the city, and have the charter discussed by men who have made a study of it and who are conversant with it in all of its features. Sentiment generally at the meeting last evening seemed to be in favor of the charter.

Elect Officers. Besides considering the charter the league also elected officers for the year. Those elected were: Dr. H. H. Olinger, president; H. W. Meyers, vice president; S. A. Manning, treasurer; and H. H. Olinger, Roy Wasson, Hal D. Patton, R. K. Page and H. O. White, executive committee with the first named as chairman.

The league after considering the question of making further contributions for the fight made for better freight rates in the valley, voted to continue the battle until the last. A debate on the parcel post question will be a feature of the November meeting of the league. The question will be debated by members of the Philodorian and Webster.

STATE NEWS.

The trial of Louis J. Wilde, the banker accused in connection with the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank trouble, has been set by Judge Galters for January 2, 1912.

Henny Schullizer aged five years, ran in front of the wheels of a big truck at Portland yesterday and was crushed to death.

Experiments made in Portland have demonstrated that the deaths of two small children were caused by eating the berries of the Virginia creeper.

Captain Dunbar, who shot himself in the head at Astoria, Monday, is resting easily and there are hopes of his recovery.

The Lane County Poultry Association will have a big show at Eugene from December 18 to 23.

Frank Gotch, the world's champion wrestler, may meet the great Polish wrestler, Zbyszko in Portland in the near future. This should make the sports sit up and take notice.

Under the state law chauffeurs, not owners of autos, must be at least 15 years of age.

F. X. Matthies, the venerable survivor of the famous Champeog gathering, had a fall at Portland about 10 days ago which fortunately did the old gentleman no serious injury.

Owing to falling eyesight, (he is 93), he fell down a whole flight of stairs.

Hops are up to 35 cents, and offers at that price are being turned down in anticipation of the price going to 40 and probably, or at least possibly to 50 cents.

Klamath Falls is arranging to hold a "land show" next year.

W. B. A. Carter, a civil war veteran aged 72, died at his home near Forest Grove, Monday.

A standstill is a man who is afraid to put straw in the firebox, for fear that the wheels may move.

HASSING THE WIFE SLAYER TO BE HANGED

SUPREME COURT AFFIRMS LOWER COURT IN CASE OF WIFE-MURDERER—OTHER CASES PASSED UPON.

Declaring that in contemplation of law there can be no "irresistable impulse to commit a crime, accompanied by a knowledge of its wrongfulness," the supreme court yesterday afternoon, in an opinion written by Justice McBride, sustained the judgment of the circuit court of Multnomah county in the case of the state against J. M. W. Hassing, convicted of wife murder.

The defense contended that Hassing was insane at the time of the commission of the murder, but that he had a knowledge of its wrongfulness. Justice McBride, in his opinion, maintains that the test of insanity is the capacity to distinguish between right and wrong, and any person who can do so is answerable under the law for his acts.

Other Opinions.

The circuit court of this county was sustained in the case of Charles Elgin against S. H. Snyder and wife. The plaintiff had conveyed to the defendants 46 acres of land for 35 shares of stock in the Salem Box Factory, and the suit was brought to rescind the contract on the ground of fraud.

The case of Charles K. Henry against George A. Harker was reversed.

C. E. Harmon vs. Grants Pass Banking & Trust company; appealed from Josephine county, F. M. Calkins, judge; affirmed in an opinion by Justice Moore.

E. I. Karath vs. J. M. Jackson; appealed from Washington county, J. U. Campbell, judge; reversed in an opinion by Justice Eakin.

P. R. Durst vs. Inez B. Miller; appealed from Marion county, William Galloway, judge; affirmed in an opinion by Justice Eakin.

A. H. Sackett vs. Hattie E. Legg; appealed from Multnomah county, W. N. Gatens, judge; reversed in an opinion by Justice Moore.
