Idaho Light & Power company, foreign, supplementary, increase, $7,000,000 to $10,000,000.
His One Good Act.
(UNITED PRESS LEADS WINS.)
Chicago, Oct. 21.—United States Judge Peter S. Grosscup announced here today that he would mail his resignation from the federal bench to President Taft this afternoon.

$30,000 a Foot.
Tacoma, Oct. 21.—Walter Meyers, aged 11, wants $30,000 for his foot. The boy was hopping on a Tacoma Eastern railroad train, when a brakeman pushed him off. He went under the wheels, losing his foot at the ankle. Suit against the railroad for damages is on file today.

When the Question Comes Up—
As to what and where you shall buy in the way of groceries, canned goods, fruits, vegetables or table delicacies, you can settle it to your complete satisfaction by phoning Main 311, the store of dependable eatables. J. M. Lawrence, South Commercial and Ferry street. 10-20-21

At Leslie Church—
There will be a commission charter mass meeting at Leslie M. E. church, south Commercial street on Tuesday evening, Oct. 24. It is announced that Geo. F. Rodgers, Mayor Lachmund and others will be present to speak on the charter.

Not Old Enough—
Paul Russell, of Medford, today made application to Secretary of State Olcott for a chauffeur's license, but it was declined because he had not reached the required age of 18 years.

Goes to Washington—
Attorney-General Crawford will leave for Washington, D. C., Wednesday, where he will, the latter part of the month, make the argument for the state in its case against the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company.

Must Maintain Agent—
Complaint has been made to the railroad commission that the Southern Pacific railroad fails to maintain an agent at Tallman. The reason assigned is that it does not pay the company to do so. The commission takes the view that whether it pays or not it must maintain one and Railroad Commissioner Miller asserted that unless one was placed in charge of the station there that the commission would take steps to see to it that one was.

Court Convenes Tuesday—
Judge Galloway will arrive in the city Tuesday morning and convene the equity department of the circuit court. He will then continue the taking of evidence in the University of Oregon appropriation cases.

U'Ren Favors Plans—
Secretary of State Olcott today received a letter from W. S. U'Ren, of Oregon City, saying that he favored the plan of issuing a pamphlet giving the history and explaining the Oregon system, and that he had often thought of writing one, but had not had the time. Olcott's plan was to have some young man prepare one and have it printed and placed on the market.

Wedding Gifts! Birthday Gifts!—
In fact "nifty" gifts of all kinds for all times. Yokohama Crockery & Tea Co.

Visits Salem Friends—
Miss Mabel Skinner, daughter of Representative Skinner, of Manitou, Colorado, is visiting Mrs. Dole on South Eighteenth street. It will be remembered that Mr. Skinner had the honor of introducing the "Oregon measure," the initiative and referendum in the Colorado house, while a senator of the same name brought it before the senate. The name was lucky, for the measure carried. Miss Skinner is delighted with Salem.

When the Question Comes Up—
As to what and where you shall buy in the way of groceries, canned goods, fruits, vegetables or table delicacies, you can settle it to your complete satisfaction by phoning Main 311, the store of dependable eatables. J. M. Lawrence, South Commercial and Ferry street. 10-20-21
