PROGRESS OF THE SALEM SCHOOLS.

A comparison of the course of study in the Salem public schools for 1904 and 1911 will surprise anyone at the advances made.

The pamphlet setting forth the work of the school seven years ago is about thirty pages four by six inches.

The new course of study for 1911 recently published by the board of education is 158 pages about five by ten inches.

In 1904 there were three lines devoted to drawing and the course for 1911 contains thirty pages for this work alone.

Four general courses are outlined—language, general or scientific, commercial and manual arts—there is no classical course.

The course in English is very thorough, and there is a six-page course in cookery—a plain word for domestic science.

There is a very thorough course in domestic art—otherwise commonly called sewing or needlework.

There is a very thorough course in morals and manners—it is called ethics in the vocabulary of educators.

Eight pages are given to nature study and agriculture and four pages to physical exercise.

When we become fully civilized we will get the latter while we are learning the former.

Six pages are devoted to music and only two pages to physiology and hygiene—on the theory that the singing bird is not troubled with dyspepsia.

There is no better advertisement of the progressiveness of this community than the present public school course of study.

It ought to be an inspiration to any citizen to realize that Salem has been put in the front rank as a public school city.

For a man who does not get before the footlights very much City Superintendent Powers is to be congratulated, but the Salem school district is also to be congratulated in having Powers.

Salem has again a prohibition paper, and a socialist paper is also to be started. All such publications are welcome. They employ labor and present radical views that are not exploited in the regular party press. Prohibition cannot well be made an issue. It is the duty of every city to maintain good order and minimize the vice of drunkenness and other vices as much as possible. The city of Salem can doubtless be improved some in its moral and social conditions. But it cannot be done by tying a bandage over the sore place and driving the virus all through the body. A higher socialization of the community is what must be aimed at, and that can only be brought about by intelligent co-operation of intelligent people working along the lines of the least resistance. To that end all good men and women should labor, laying aside prejudices and striving for all the uplift possible along educational lines.

THE RECALL OF JUDGES.

The theory that judges are not to be subjected to the recall will not bear investigation.

The people now have a chance to recall a judge every four years, or when his time runs out.

Of course, it is understood the man in office has an immense advantage over all others in keeping in office.

The power of the recall over judges is a silent influence that will prevent the arbitrary use of their powers.

Power in some men develops the tendency to tyrannize and become dictatorial in the administration of their office.

If the people are not to have the recall of judges, then they might as well be elected or appointed for life.

The power to recall once in four years is just as dangerous as the power to recall for cause.

The commission charter did not provide the Des Moines nor the Tacoma plan of making nominations. It permitted employees to be discharged without hearing and without cause. It gave the laborer no protection against unfair competition from non-residents and contract labor. The amendments urged by the Capital Journal are for a direct primary that shall be non-partisan and to give the people the benefit of the Des Moines and Tacoma plans combined. The limitation of contractors to employ home labor, or at least to give home labor the preference, is for the upbuilding of the city by giving men who have homes and families to support a chance to live here. The laboring man who makes Salem his home, whether he has a family or not, is entitled to the first chance at public work. It is his ballot that makes city government possible and he has the same right as the business man to be given the preference in the disposition of what he has to sell.

IMPORTANT AMENDMENT TO THE CHARTER

MAYOR LACHMUND SAYS IT WILL SAVE THE CITY HALF A MILLION—WOULD CHANGE MODE OF LETTING PAVING WORK.

With but seven of the city aldermen in their regular places, the council met last night to consider unfinished business left over from Monday's session, and to consider proposals for amendments to the existing city charter.

Councilman Lafky's motion that the city immediately purchase a Studabaker street sweeper was objected to by Mr. Hucklestein, and amended to read that the matter of purchasing a street sweeper should be further investigated by that body before the particular make should be decided upon.

The regular monthly payroll of the street department was ordered paid and the city fathers proceeded at once to consider the proposal of the Ellis amendment to the city charter of Salem. Mayor Lachmund stated that this was the most important measure to come before the people at the coming election in December, and that its adoption would save to the people of Salem $500,000 annually as well as a vast amount of trouble and inconvenience. The proposed amendment reads as follows:

"Section 1. That section 26 of the charter of the city of Salem, Oregon, of the act of the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon, approved February 15, 1901, be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 26. The council in improving any street or streets, or any part or parts thereof within the city of Salem, Oregon, shall require from the city engineer plans, specifications and estimates for two (2) or more kinds of appropriate improvements, at least one of which must be of a non-patentable kind, and the probable total cost of each class of improvement, and the city engineer shall file said plans, specifications and estimates in the office of the city recorder of the city of Salem, Oregon. If the council shall find such plans, specifications and estimates to be satisfactory it shall approve the same, and shall determine the limits of the street proposed to be improved, and the council shall, by resolution, declare its purpose and intention of making said improvement and determine the portion of the street to be improved. The action of the council in declaring its intention to improve any street or streets, or any part or parts thereof, approving and adopting the plans, specifications and estimates of the city engineer, and determining the portion of the street to be improved may all be done at one and the same meeting of the council. Upon the passage of such resolution by the council, the recorder shall give notice by publication for not less than five (5) successive days in a daily newspaper published in the city of Salem, Oregon, inviting bids for making said improvement. Each bid submitted must be accompanied by a certified check equal in amount to 10 per cent of the amount of the bid. When such bids are received, and the amount of the lowest responsible bid for each kind or class of improvement has been ascertained, the council shall by resolution, determine the character of the improvement to be laid and the lowest responsible bid; provided that no grade or improvement mentioned in this section or in section 25, except the original establishing of the grade, can be made without ten (10) days' notice thereof being first given by publication in some daily newspaper published in the city of Salem, Oregon; provided, however, in the case of the improvement of any street or any part thereof, such notice shall not be required to be published until the council has determined the kind and character of the improvement to be made as herein specified. When the council shall have determined the kind of improvement to be made and the lowest bid submitted therefor, the recorder shall return to the respective bidders whose bids have been rejected the checks submitted with their said bids, and shall retain the check accompanying the bid selected and adopted for the improvement by the council. Such check shall be held until such time as a remonstrance is filed sufficient to defeat said improvement, the contract and bond executed, as provided by law, or ordered returned by the council.

"Section 2. That section 31 of the charter of the city of Salem, Oregon, being section 31 of the above entitled act, be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 31. In case the notice be for the improvement of a street or part thereof and the same shall not have been defeated by a remonstrance, as provided in section 25, the council shall direct the mayor and recorder of the city to enter into a contract with the person, persons, firm or corporation submitting the lowest bid as hereinbefore provided, to make said improvement, and shall require any such contractor to execute a good and sufficient bond and undertaking in a sum equal to the amount of the contract price, conditioned to make said improvement according to the plans and specifications, and according to the terms and conditions of such contract, and to complete the same within a reasonable time to be determined by the council. After such contract and bond are executed and the council have thereby ascertained and determined the actual cost of such improvement including a sum not to exceed 5 per cent of such contract price for engineering expenses, acquiring descriptions of property and other special expenses connected with making such improvement, shall assess upon each lot or part thereof liable therefor its proportionate share of such costs.

"Section 3. That section 47 of the act of the legislative assembly of 1901, being section 47 of the charter of the city of Salem, Oregon, be, and the same is hereby repealed."

While we know that many of the trusts are open to conviction, the trouble is that we can't convict 'em.

X-RAYS AND SMILES.

Now that the coming season is over the sugar manufacturers suddenly discover there is no shortage, and the price drops two-thirds of a cent a pound. The American people, taken as a whole, is just a big goose and plucked so often that it seldom squawks as its feathers are plucked.

The board of geographic names, whatever that is, at Washington has decided that Mt. Pitt in Southern Oregon is handicapped about getting up in the world under its present name, and so have officially decreed that it must hereafter be its full name of Mt. McLoughlin. Eminent correct, for how could a pit aspire to be a mountain?

Miss Mildred Sherman, who is to marry a real English lord, refused to go to the registrar's office to procure a license, because she was afraid of being exposed to the germs and microbes that pervade the atmosphere breathed by the average American—and yet she is going to marry a microbe of nobility.

The Goddess of Liberty on the courthouse at Oregon City is to have a new hobble skirt, so to speak. She is to have a new pair of scales, and should be able to weigh out equal justice to all, if she can keep the scales in her hands and not get them before her eyes.

Roy Farrar, a young school boy, was killed by a kick in the head while playing football, at Pierre, South Dakota, a few days ago. A real lady-like game.

Last month was the driest October seen 1895. The weather man wasn't even guilty of a little "blind pigging."

"A Popular Wife" should draw a full house if for no other reason, just for the purpose of learning what made her popular, and then following in her footsteps. This latter suggestion should be acted on only by the wives—otherwise it might prove dangerous.

Agricultural experts from the O. A. C. are teaching the Eastern Oregon farmers how to hatch ducks, hold a plow, swear at the horses, and investigate the dictionary. In other words are filling the Eastern Oregon ozone with wild and woolly advice.

A Burglar's Awful Deed may not paralyze a home so completely as a mother's long illness. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a splendid remedy for women. The most advanced physicians of this country and Europe are now prescribing a wash of wintergreen thymol and other soothing and healing ingredients for the cure of Eczema, Psoriasis and all other forms of skin trouble. This compound is known as the D. D. D. Prescription. Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist, writes: "I am convinced that the D. D. D. If you will call at our store we will be glad to let you have a $1.00 bottle on the guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find it does the work. And you decide. Housework Drudgery

Housework is drudgery for the weak woman. She brushes, dusts and scrubs, or is on her feet all day attending to the many details of the household, her back aching, her temples throbbing, nerves quivering under the stress of pain, possibly dizzy feelings. Sometimes rest in bed is not refreshing, because the poor tired nerves do not permit of refreshing sleep. The real need of weak, nervous women is satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It Makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.

This "Prescription" removes the cause of women's weaknesses, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures those weaknesses so peculiar to women. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces restful sleep.

Dr. Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know what his "Favorite Prescription" contains, a complete list of ingredients on the bottle-wrapper. Do not let any unscrupulous druggist persuade you that his substitute of unknown composition is "just as good" in order that he may make a bigger profit. Just smile and shake your head! Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cures liver ills.
