RATIONAL HOME REMEDY FOR WRINKLED, BAGGY SKIN
 (From Life and Beauty.)
 Bathing the face in a simple, harmless lotion made as follows, is the best thing I know of to disperse wrinkles, from the finest lines to the deepest rows feet: Powdered saxolite 1 oz., dissolved in witch-hazel, one-half pint. Your nearest druggist can supply the constituents at small cost. It is a natural and rational treatment, as it tends to remove the cause of these tell-tale signs of advancing age. Having both astringent and tonic properties, the solution tightens the too-loose skin, vivifies and solidifies the underlying muscular tissue. This smooths out the wrinkles and gives the skin a firmer supporting foundation.
 Obviously this effect must also reduce hanging cheeks, double chin and baggy neck. The remarkably prompt action of this lotion is another commendable feature. Those to whom I have recommended this formula report most gratifying results.

INDIGESTION GOES AND STOMACH FEELS FINE
 There would not be a case of indigestion here if readers who are subject to stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Diapepsin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sourdest acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, nauseous odors from the breath.
 Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will readily understand why this promptly cures indigestion and removes such symptoms as Heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, Belching of Gas and Eructations of undigested food, water brash, Nausea, Headache, Bloating and many other bad symptoms; and, besides, you will not need laxatives to keep your stomach, liver and intestines clean and fresh.
 If your stomach is sour and full of gas, or your food doesn't digest, and your meals don't seem to fit, why not get a 50-cent case from your druggist and make life worth living? Absolute relief from Stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after, and, besides, one 50-cent case is sufficient to cure a whole family of such trouble.
 Surely, a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Pape's Diapepsin, which will always, either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.

GOVERNOR INTRODUCES SMITH.
 man—how to become better men and women—how to become better Christians—all of which is to a good purpose not only as regards our future life but our life here on earth. For whatever makes men good Christians makes them good citizens. It has been well said "that the worth of a civilization is the worth of the man at its center. When this man lacks moral rectitude, progress only makes bad worse and further embroils social problems."
 "His visit here will prove a great help and inspiration to you good men who are preaching the gospel in this city. He will bring home to you the words of the author of the "Simple Life," when he said, "Labor for men whom the world forgets, make yourself intelligible to the humble, so shall you open, again, the springs which those masters drew whose works have defied the ages because they knew how to clothe genius in simplicity."
 "May he teach us all to lead lives which will be a realization of the higher virtues—truth, justice, love, liberty and moral power—in our daily activities, whatever they may be."
