Hotel Marion— Serves Merchants lunch from 12 to 2:00, 50c. Regular dinner Sunday, 5:30 to 8:30. sod-tf

Dependable— Groceries. That's the kind to be found at the up-to-date grocery of J. M. Lawrence, corner of Commercial and Ferry streets.

The Salem Hotel— Is in business to stay and prides itself on giving the best meals for the money of any place in the Northwest and it is not an idle boast, either. Try it and see. 11-4-tf

We Wish to Announce— To the public that our first shipment of fish was received today. Hereafter, we will take your orders for fish and poultry dressed to order. Independent Market, Ferry, near Commercial. Phone 729.

Notice to Planters— Of nursery stock. Planting season is now on; why not place your order with me and I will see that you get good first class stock and save you money. Sam Foster. Phone Main 996.

We Can Supply You— Just received a fresh shipment of fish. We can supply you also with dressed poultry and our price is right. Our stock is fresh and clean. Thomason and Wood, 255 Ferry street. Phone 729. 11-16-3t

We Can Supply You— Just received a fresh shipment of fish. We can supply you also with dressed poultry and our price is right. Our stock is fresh and clean. Thomason and Wood, 255 Ferry street. Phone 729.

Fancy Capons— We have a limited number for Thanksgiving. Give us your order for fancy groceries, home made mince meat, and the best baker's bread in Salem. Phone 131. The Sunset Grocery Co.

Will Give Smoker— Willamette Tent No. 6, Knights of Maccabees, of this city, will give a smoker this evening at their hall in the Steeves block. State Commander Sherwood and State Deputy Matthews will be present and there will be a fine program of music and speaking. All members requested to be in attendance.

Palm Theater— Thursday and Friday, Nov. 16-17, "Tween Two Loves," where a mother saves her child from a burning building. "Speculation," that is what we all do. "Plains Across," this is Indians galore. Also, but not least, "Jim Shaw & Co." in their laughable sketches. Come out and see us and what we give for 10 cents.

Thank the Chief— Mrs. Huffman, whose store was robbed by the "Youthful Pirates" as told in yesterday's Journal, and others who felt the effects of that young aggregation, are loud in their praises of Chief Hamilton's excellent work in capturing the youngsters, and ask the Journal to say how much they appreciate his work—a thing the Journal is unable to do in any adequate way, judging by the expressions of commendation coming over the wire here was enough to fill a page.

Granted Four Divorces— Judge Galloway yesterday severed the bonds of four mis-mated couples, or couples that think they are mis-mated, and, such is the optimism of the average American, the chances that each of the parties will launch their little barks (and bites) on the tempestuous sea of matrimony, before the second year rolls around. The genial judge has another case in the judicial skillet with a good fire under it, and will, no doubt, fry it to a suitable condition.

"The Third Degree"— Ever since Charles Klein achieved success with "The Lion and the Mouse," every announcement concerning a new play by this author is read with interest. It will no doubt afford great pleasure to local playgoers to know that the United Play company will present at The Grand Opera House on Monday, November 20, Mr. Klein's latest play, "The Third Degree." Like "The Lion and the Mouse," an attempt has been made to disclose certain conditions that exist, but in this instance, instead of taking up the realm of finance, civic institutions are the subject of debate.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25 cents.

Building Fine Home— Among the homes that Salem should be proud of is one under construction on North Church street by S. M. Endicott, who is a late arrival in this country, but one who can and does see the future of this city and this section of the Northwest. Aside from the bank in Turner, Mr. Endicott has made several other substantial investments. What Mr. Endicott is putting into his home tells his appreciation of the country. The columns for the front porch are such as have never gone into another home in Salem. The rooms are large and convenient and the arrangement is the best. The interior decorations will be a pleasure for anyone to see and no expense is to be spared. The lumber is furnished by the Falls City Lumber company and the mill work by the A. M. Hansen planing mill.

The Grand— Moving pictures tonight.

Prohl Ticket Incomplete— The managers of the Independent ticket are not having smooth sailing in getting out candidates in the different wards of the city. They have not yet reached a complete ticket, although it is certain that they will endorse about one-half of the present nominees, and possibly more of them. A committee is out trying to get a number of candidates to accept petition nominations and file acceptances of candidacies. The platform of the Independent committee, while it is unqualifiedly for prohibition, deals with other matters of importance that will receive a great deal of support. There is a possibility that there will be no candidates run against any of the primary nominees, although the more radical prohibition element demand a full ticket in each ward and that candidates endorsed by them come out and publicly declare their support of the prohibition platform.
