CITY NEWS.
 Dancing Class Tonight—At the Armory, Miss Cronise.
 Davis barber shop, 344 State street. Davis cigar store and shining stand. Sunday baths and papers. Phone 461.
 To Practice Law—Rollin K. Page recently with the P. R. L. & P. Co., has opened offices in the city and will practice law.
 Mrs. Carrie Fisher—Is prepared to teach dress cutting in her dressmaking parlor, room 7, over Meyers store. Demonstration, November the 23rd.
 The Salem Hotel—Is in business to stay and prides itself on giving the best meals for the money of any place in the Northwest and it is not an idle boast, either. Try it and see. 11-4-11
 We Can Supply You—Just received a fresh shipment of fish. We can supply you also with dressed poultry and our price is right. Our stock is fresh and clean. Thomason and Wood, 255 Ferry street. Phone 729. 11-16-31

Fond of Peaches—C. F. Lansing, of the Quaker nurseries, has 40 varieties of peaches and says he is fond of them all and even of some not in his nurseries.
Gave a Smoker—Willamette Tent Knights of Macedonia gave a smoker at their hall on the Steeves block last evening, and a fine time was had. State Commander Sherwood and Deputy Matthews were present.
Tax Roll Report Completed—Sheriff Minto has completed his report on the 1911 tax roll. It shows that the total tax with the penalties, etc., amounts to $576,354.90, most of which has been collected and turned over to the county treasurer. The delinquencies amount to $10,000.
A Musical Treat—The membership of local 315, of the American Federation of Musicians, are planning a musical feast within a few weeks that bears the promise of being an eye-opener as well as a treat musically that will meet with the approbation of music loving people. The Salem union includes practically the best talent in the city, and with the miscellaneous other entertaining stunts of the amateurs and semi-professionals, those who attend their circus will at least carry home a grin or a laugh.

A Woman Lawyer—Miss Frances Kemp, the only female member of the bar in the state, argued a case before Judge Galloway yesterday, and argued it well, but then that is the inalienable right and prerogative of the sex—which always is at the top in a talk-fest.
Place Your Order Early—To avoid the rush, as Thanksgiving is nearing. You will want a nice chicken for your Sunday dinner. We have a limited number of fancy capons. Don't forget to try our bread when you want baker's bread, there's none better in the city. Telephone Main 121, The Sunset grocery.

More Iowans—Dick Pray and Fred Mosley, of Webster City, Ia., arrived yesterday to become additions to the Iowa colony. They are relatives of W. L. Pray, who seems to be drawing a great many Webster county people to Western Oregon after him.

"The Girl" Coming—"The Girl of the Golden West" with its wealth of scenery and Evelyn Vaughan and Bertram Lyell, at the head of the Alcazar Theater company, including Will R. Walling, direction of Mr. Frederic Belasco, comes to the Grand Opera House for Saturday, November 18.

Rev. John Oval—Pastor of our Swedish church, has arrived home from an extended trip in Washington. He will preach in his church, corner South Fifteenth and Mill streets, next Sunday at 3 p. m. All Scandinavians are cordially invited to attend.

L. W. W. Meeting—The L. W. W. will have a meeting at Commercial hall Saturday evening at 7:30, at which W. E. Clark will deliver an address. They invite all wage workers.

Notice—I hereby certify that I have been insured with G. W. Laffar, of Salem, Oregon, in the Concordia Fire Insurance company of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. My interest as contractor on the new wholesale furniture factory which burned a few days ago, I have received very cordial treatment at Mr. Laffar's hands and have received this day my check in full amount, $2500. I therefore take pleasure in recommending Mr. Laffar and his company to any one wanting safe insurance. Dated at Salem, Or., this 27th day of October, 1911. 11-17-21 A. L. RAINWATER.

Game Postponed—The big game scheduled between Willamette University and O. A. C., which was to have been played this afternoon, has been indefinitely postponed owing to the death of Mrs. Booth, Mother of Billy Booth, the Willamette quarter-back. It is, however, hoped that it will be possible to play this game some time next week.

Salem Boys Ready—Everything is in readiness for the big gridiron contest between the Salem High School and the Jefferson High School, of Portland. The local boys have been working hard the last week and are now in the best condition shown this year. Jefferson is reported as being strong and fast, especially on defensive work and will probably give the Salem boys all that they can handle. Look for an account of the contest in tomorrow's paper.

ONLY FIVE JURORS ARE SELECTED

BOTH SIDES ARE FOOLISH IN EXHAUSTING THEIR PEREMPTORIES, AS THEY WILL SOON HAVE TO ACCEPT JURORS THEY REALLY DO NOT WANT.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
 Hall of Records, Los Angeles, Nov. 17.—With five permanent sworn jurors in the box who have survived the peremptory challenges on both sides and one tentative juror accepted for cause by both defense and prosecution, the McNamara murder case came to a sudden halt today while the sheriff and his deputies scoured the city and county for 40 veniremen drawn today as the eighth panel in the case.

The exercising of peremptories at the opening of court today proved a bitter disappointment to many who had been confident real progress had been made in the case during the last two weeks. Both sides eliminated men who had "stood up" wonderfully well under the searching examination of both sides and who were apparently broadminded jurors, absolutely without opinion on the many facts of the case. However, both sides acted on the reports of their secret investigators and neither deigned to explain the whys or wherefores of their actions.

The state's removal of Clark McLain, Pasadena banker, and the defense's elimination of Major Brewster C. Kenyon, Long Beach oil magnate, was the chief cause of unfavorable comment because both seemed to be of the unusually highly intelligent type of Americans that would naturally be selected to pass upon the complex problems sure to arise in the present case.

After the peremptories were utilized, both sides quickly passed for cause William Nicholson, a local grocer who said he had not opinion in the case and had read only a little about it.

F. C. McCandless, a Covina rancher, the last member of the seventh venire was eliminated after the state had vainly tried to qualify him in the face of his positive assertion that he believed J. B. McNamara guilty. He said part of this opinion was based on his impressions received from hearing the funeral oration of the Rev. Robert J. Burdette over the Times victims, in which he declared union men were responsible for the Times' disaster, and part from personal observations of the Times ruins.

Following this statement, the state withdrew its objections to the challenges and it was allowed, after which court adjourned until tomorrow morning.

DENOUNCES PRESIDENT AND HAMMOND

 New York, Nov. 17.—Denunciation of "dollar diplomacy" of the Taft administration, sensational charges against Ambassador Rockhill and John Hays Hammond were voiced today by Jacob Schiff, the New York philanthropist and banker, when he, with a number of other prominent Jews, urged upon Senators Root and O'Gorman, of New York, the abrogation of the treaty of 1832 with Russia, because that country bars Jewish-Americans.

Schiff's charges indirectly include President Taft, but he absolves the president from personal blame. He said that Taft had told numerous delegations, in good faith, that efforts were made to change Russia's attitude. He said: "Though the president acted in good faith, Rockhill, in St. Petersburg, was declaring that he did not consider the matter important, that he was seeking business for American manufacturers and that he did not intend to jeopardize their interests."

"A year and a half ago Mr. Willenkin, accredited agent of the Russian government, called upon me to ask about getting a financial footing in this country. I told him he could not do so. A year later Willenkin told me that he had formed a syndicate of American manufacturers for exporting goods to Russia, and handling American goods under management in Russia.

"Willenkin told me that certain points of the plan were not yet carried out, but that John Hays Hammond would take care of them. I asked 'why Hammond, who is a mining man, and not a manufacturer?' He replied: 'Because of his influence with Taft.'

"Hammond went to Russia. Returning, he called the czar the most successful ruler Russia ever had.

Then the arrangements between Russia and Hammond were made. Think of that government thinking it can buy the president of the United States. Think of that insult. Should we remain so silent in the face of this?"

 Mr. and Mrs. Evans reside in Pajo Alto, California. The groom, aged 20, is a professional violinist, having received his musical education in France. He is a son of the French artist and painter, "Jouin," of San Francisco, where he and his bride will make their home.

STUDENT POLITICS
 GET A JOINTING
 The student body of the Salem high school got quite a lecture this morning from Superintendent Powers, upon the condition of school politics. These, Mr. Powers affirmed, were in a deplorable state, as was evidenced in the recent election, which had just been declared illegal by the president of the student organization. He urged the students to consider their politics in a serious manner, since the habits formed in school cling to one after the incidents of school life are forgotten. He said that the students, in order to become responsible citizens in after years, must be responsible members of the society to which they now belong, and it was his hope that the future things would be conducted in a more businesslike and constitutional manner. Before the address quite a lengthy battle in parliamentary law was carried on by the president of the student body and one of the teachers in the high school.

JEWELRY OF DISTINCTION

We sell jewelry of distinction, and we use that term advisedly. We know that the articles we sell are the best of their kind that can be obtained, and we are here to stand behind them. Our staples are lower priced than any other goods of equal high quality. We bought a great deal of jewelry this year direct from the factory, thereby getting a much lower price than we could through the jobbers.

An Endless Variety

We have an endless variety of brooches, stick pins, cuff links, belt pins, lavalliers, lockets, cuff pins, bracelets, rings in fancy set, plain and signet. In fact, we have the largest assortment to be found in Salem, and our prices are right.
