LANDSLIDE IS NOT TO SLIDE IN LOS ANGELES

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 18.—Austin Adams socialist drama, "The Landslide", which has been playing to capacity houses at the Grand theater here this week, will not be shown in Los Angeles as planned before the mayoralty election next month, if the plans of the theatrical trust in the northern city are carried out. "The Landslide" is the story of the election of the first Socialist governor in California and the interests in "Angel" city would have it barred, according to reports received here. Efforts to obtain a theatre in which to stage the play in Los Angeles have been in vain, it is declared. Oliver Morrocco, the northern manager, and Max Figman, the actor, came to San Diego recently to pass on the drama. A good man should be chosen with great riches.

WILL MAKE HIS BONDSMEN PUT UP

Mettler left the county. Other suits will be filed, it is said to recover amounts the county paid to Mettler for use of his horse and buggy and for money paid to a contracting and milk supply company in which he was alleged to be financially interested.

CASTRO GETS A LICKING IN VENEZUELA

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE] London, Nov. 18.—Ex-President Castro, of Venezuela, who has been missing to the world for four months has reappeared near San Cristobal at the head of a large force of revolutionists, only to meet with defeat. Venezuelan censors have allowed little news of the president to leave the country but dispatches from there have made it evident that a revolt of some magnitude was in progress. The Venezuelan consul here has official confirmation of Castro's defeat.

PRINCETON DEFEATED YALE

[Continued from page 1.] a fair catch at Princeton's 50-yard line but the distance was too great for Yale's star booter, and he failed in an attempt at a placement goal. More punting followed, Yale finally getting the ball on Princeton's 40-yard line. Then followed a repetition of the play which defeated Harvard when the crimson met the orange and black two weeks ago, and by the same player, White, the Princeton left end. After Camp had hammered through center, crumpling the Princeton line for a three-yard gain, Ketcham passed high to Quarter-back Howe, who missed the ball. While the human bullet broke through the line on the run and fled toward the faraway Yale goal with the entire Yale eleven at his heels. He flashed across the line amid the thunders of the crowd, and a moment later Baker kicked an easy goal. Score: Princeton, 6; Yale, 0. An exchange of punts resulted in the thoroughly aroused bulldog team having all the best of it, and with the ball on Princeton's 20-yard line. The period ended shortly afterward with the ball in Princeton's possession on her own 25-yard line. The players were liberally plastered with mud as they left the field. In the second period Princeton punted to midfield, Camp, fighting like a demon in the vanguard of the concentrated Yale attack, smashed the tiger line twice for a 10-yard gain each time. On the 20-yard line Princeton rallied and took the ball, punting out of danger. Camp, who seemed everywhere at once, finally grabbed a punt and made a spectacular run to Princeton's 30-yard line. Once more Captain Howe, the pride and hope of his team in the booting department, fell down, missing a drop kick for the goal. Yale recovered the ball, however, and fell back on the overworked Camp, who, with his brother half, Spalding, advanced the pigskin to the 15-yard line. Once more Howe failed to kick goal, and his rival, DeWitt, whom he was expected to out-shine kicked to midfield. Once more the indefatigable Camp, with the assistance of Spalding and Philbin, carried the ball to the Tiger 25-yard line, only to be greeted with the same frustration of their efforts.—Howe failed to kick the goal. On offside play by Princeton, Yale got the ball again on the Tiger 20-yard line, where Howe partially redeemed himself by kicking a pretty field goal. The period ended with the ball in Yale's possession on her own 40-yard line. Score: Princeton, 6; Yale, 3.

BIG NEGRO ASSAULTS YOUNG GIRL

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE] Stockton, Cal., Nov. 18.—Persons who have returned from the scene of the brutal attack committed by a negro on the person of Miss Hattie Sullivan, near Salida, last night, report that feeling is running very high in Northern Stanislaus and Southern San Joaquin counties. They freely predict that if the negro is captured the officers will never be able to get him to the jail alive. The road between Ripon, Salida and Modesto is lined with automobiles, and officers are searching the country in search of Miss Sullivan's assailant. All of the roads leading into Stockton from South San Joaquin were watched by armed men all night, and each traveler was halted and closely questioned. That Miss Sullivan was not killed is believed to be due to the timely arrival of Harry Hudson Dr. J. J. Tully and James Powers of Stockton. STOCK MARKET IS VERY QUIET [UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE] New York, Nov. 18.—Stocks remained practically stationary at the opening of today's market and the demand was light. Lehigh Valley rising half and U. S. Steel losing about the same, were the largest changes. Later Union Pacific and the copper group lifted, but the general market showed little spirit. The close was firm. Bonds were steady.

HAS PLAN TO UNITE CITIES OF THE COAST

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE] San Francisco, Nov. 18.—Former United States Senator John L. Wilson, J. D. Lowman, president of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, and C. B. Yandell, its secretary, are here today to tell the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and its guests from the eight principal cities of the Pacific coast, at a special meeting next Monday, of a plan of a union of west seaboard cities. The plan is to amalgamate the cities so that they may all work together for a single purpose. After the meeting here the Seattle representatives will go to Los Angeles and San Diego. Their tentative plan is to have five energetic citizens from the eight large cities at Washington to act as a general committee to look out for the interests of the Pacific coast during the next session of congress.

AN OLD-TIME REMEDY THAT DARKENS HAIR

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical company, of New York, put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented. If you have dandruff, or if your hair is turning gray or coming out, don't delay, but get a bottle of this remedy today, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you. This preparation is offered to the public at 50 cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent J. C. Perry.
