JEWELRY OF DISTINCTION

We sell jewelry of distinction, and we use that term advisedly. We know that the articles we sell are the best of their kind that can be obtained, and we are here to stand behind them. Our staples are lower priced than any other goods of equal high quality. We bought a great deal of jewelry this year direct from the factory, thereby getting a much lower price than we could through the jobbers.

An Endless Variety

We have an endless variety of brooches, stick pins, cuff links, belt pins, lavalliers, lockets, cuff pins, bracelets, rings in fancy set, plain and signet. In fact, we have the largest assortment to be found in Salem, and our prices are right.

CITY NEWS.

Special meeting of Multnomah R. A. C., No. 1, this evening. Work in the P. M. degree. Visiting companions welcome.

O. W. Wolfe, of Portland—Will speak at the City Mission this evening.

Entirely New—Decidedly novel. The "all in one piece" folder. At Parker studio.

To Locate in Salem—Mrs. W. A. Hoyt and daughter, Mrs. E. H. Ayer, of Fayette, Iowa, arrived in Salem Saturday, and expects to make this their home.

The Salem Hotel—Is in business to stay and prides itself on giving the best meals for the money of any place in the Northwest and it is not an idle boast, either. Try it and see.

Be Up to Date—Get the latest styles in your Christmas photos. They are "all in one piece" folder made only at the Parker studio.

Back From Washington—

Attorney-General Crawford arrived home Saturday from Washington, D. C., where he has been for some time looking after the state's interests in the case of the Pacific States Telephone company against the State of Oregon, before the United States supreme court. The main question, and one of vital importance, not only to the state, but to the nation, was whether the Oregon system, under which a law can be made by the initiative, is constitutional. The attorney-general says he feels rather confident the decision will be in favor of the state.

Old Iowa Friends—

W. J. Book, proprietor of the Haberdasher clothing store at Eugene, was in Salem yesterday. He was a school boy back in old Clayton county, Iowa, when the editor was in his teens, and had not met him since. He was in the hay business at Haines, Baker county, where he made a small fortune, and has invested at Eugene. Two other old Iowa boys, the Schaefer brothers, are also at Eugene, and run the Ax Billy department store. All are successful business men, and like Oregon very much.

The Swedish Church—

Services are growing in interest. A goodly congregation was gathered in the Swedish tabernacle M. E. church yesterday to hear the Swedish pastor, Rev. John Oval. After the service the Epworth League was organized, which will meet every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The outlook for this church is bright.

Wanted—

Your eggs and poultry. We can handle more. We have a limited number of fancy capons for Thanksgiving. Try our bread when you want baker's bread, and you will use no other. Phone 131. The Sunset Grocery.

Get a City Home—

A Salem man who has a good $3500 home a block from the street car line in one of the best residence parts of the city, near to church and school, wants to trade it for a small tract that will raise loganberries. He wants some cash for his place, but will take most of the value of the place in land that will grow berries or potatoes. Owners of land who want to get a place on easy terms in the city can trade this man a piece of land, and pay some cash, and get a nice home in the city. Some of our land poor friends who want a home in the city to educate their children or live in their middle life easily in town could let this man have a loganberry tract, pay him a little money, and benefit both parties. Do not put off too long, or you will be like the man who was trying a few weeks ago to get a home in this city. When he had the deal almost closed he died very suddenly, and his dream of ending his days in the city remained a dream, to be realized in the city with streets of gold.

STATISTICAL.

DIED.

OSBURN—At his home at Greenwood November 18, 1911, John Osburn, aged 80 years, 3 months and 21 days.

Mr. Osburn has resided near Greenwood 46, and was well known as a man whose word was his bond. The funeral will be held from the Cottage undertaking parlors Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. Mr. Avison will officiate, and interment will be had in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

A Burglar's Awful Deed may not paralyze a home so completely as a mother's long illness. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a splendid remedy for women. "They gave me wonderful benefit in constipation and female trouble," wrote Mrs. M. C. Dunlap of Leadhill, Tenn. If ailing, try them. 25c at J. C. Perry's.

Stop your bad breath with Dr. Miller's Laxative Tablets.

Coughing at Night.

Means loss of sleep which is bad for the children and hard on grown persons. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops the cough at once, relieves the tickling and dryness in the throat and heals the inflamed membranes. Contains no opiates and is best for children and delicate persons. Refuse substitutes—Red Cross Pharmacy (H. Jerman).
