The Oregon Realty Co., 275 State street. 11-25-3t Have You—Visited Richmond addition lately? It is going ahead; houses are being built and general improvement is under way, there are still some choice lots still to be had. Let us show them to you. Oregon Realty Co., 275 State street. 11-25-3t

Refreshments Will Be Served—At the Catholic Bazaar at St. Joseph hall, December 5-6-7. 11-27-11k Attended Funeral—The members of the Salem Bar Association yesterday, in a body, attended the funeral of the late Judge Wm. Waldo. Will Speak Sunday—Rev. Elmer Pemberton, of the Friends church, will speak at the City Mission at 3 p. m. Sunday. Receives Settlement—Mr. A. C. DeVoe, who was accidentally shot while hunting deer near Yoncalla, Oregon, has just received a settlement from the Occidental Life Insurance company of $125 for the accident. Ed. Herren Very Ill—Word has been received here that Ed. Herren, who went to Arizona some time ago for his health, is very low. His wife has gone to his bedside. Mr. Herren is suffering from cancer of the throat. Marriage Licenses Issued—Harry F. Flinton, of Portland, aged 35, and Miss Ethel Ham, of Salem, aged 26. John W. Eggleston, of McMinnville, aged 26, and Miss Genevieve Masters, of Woodburn, Mr. Paul Thomas Rasmussen, of Salem, aged 22, and Miss Amelia Mary Schirmer, of the same place. Two-thirds of Things—Secretary Olcott is now a pretty large sized official holding down the secretary's job, running the governor's business, and acting as two-thirds of several boards. Ben is "going some", but there is no limit to his speed possibilities as long as his carburetor doesn't hang hang fire or his gasoline give out. We Want—To sell you a lot in the best addition around Salem, Richmond. It will be the nicest place to live in a short time as it will have all the advantages of the city sewer, water and cement sidewalks. Let us talk to you about it. The Oregon Realty Co., 275 State street. 11-25-3t

To Deliver Address—C. L. McNary has been invited to deliver the Elks' Memorial address at Roseburg, Sunday next. Charlie will surely deliver the goods properly packed and in good order. Round Up Pictures—The "1911 Cheyenne Cowboy and Indian Frontier Day Celebration" motion pictures will be shown at the Wexford tonight and tomorrow night in addition to regular show. Admission 10 cents. Was Buying Cows—Saturday a report reached the city that Fred Carothers, a printer, but at present engaged in farming near Hopewell, was very ill. He being a member of the local typographical union, four of the boys got a rig Sunday morning and drove down to see him, and, as there was a bridge out, and they had to take a round-about road, the distance for the trip was nearly 30 miles. The boys were full of sympathy, and felt very sorry all the way down, but when they arrived at their destination, the were unable to see Mr. Carothers, as he had gone some place to buy a cow. If the cow don't klick or hook him, he will recover, and so will the boys. Gave Him a Ricker—Mr. Marcus, manager of the Salem Iron Works, caught up with his birthday Saturday, and the men in the shop, making this discovery, took occasion to express their appreciation of his universal kindness and courtesy, and also their liking for him, and presented him a fine rocking chair. The gift was unexpected, but Mr. Marcus is as proud of it as a young mother with her first born—and justly so, for no higher compliment can be paid to, or no stronger endorsement given a man, than the expressions of friendship of those in his employ.

Salem Defeated Albany—Playing on a slippery field against a team weighing 15 pounds more to the individual player, Salem high won a notable victory over the Albany boys on Willamette field Saturday by the tight score of 7 to 6. Both teams played a splendid game, and it was anybody's pie until the last minute of play. The Albany boys were good losers, and gave their victors a hearty cheer, like true sports, as they were leaving the field.

Just Said "Hello!"—Judge Kelly stopped in at the court house on his way from Tillamook to his home in Albany, but as those who had a case set for that time did not appear, the judge went on without hardly saying hello.
