Politician's Dream--A Vitagraph comedy, featuring John Bunny, at the Grand tonight. Catholic Bazaar--Cooked food sale December 6 and 7 at St. Joseph's hall. A free ring will be given away each night. Hotel Marlon--Merchants lunch, 50c, from 12 m. to 2 p. m.; grills open from 6:30 a. m. to 12 p. m.; Sunday dinner, 5:30 to 8 p. m., 75c. The McNamara Brothers--Are in jail at Los Angeles, and, after their strenuous experience, would no doubt enjoy a Bon Ton cigar--the best 5-cent cigar made. Many Applicants--County School Superintendent Smith is making preparations for the state teachers' examinations to be held in the county on December 20. He reports that there are now over 100 applicants. The examinations will probably be held in the Methodist church.

Sues to Quiet Title--W. T. Given today commenced a suit in the circuit court against John T. Foster, et al. The purpose of the suit is to quiet title to certain real property. To Open Bids--The state land board will tomorrow open bids for wood to be supplied the state institutions for the next six months. Bids for general supplies for the institutions will be opened December 21. The Ladies--Of the Jason Lee M. E. church will hold a bazaar at Josse & Moore store, December 7, 8 and 9. On Saturday they will also hold a cooked food sale. "Lost in the Jungle"--As seen by the writer, "Lost in the Jungle," now shown at Ye Liberty is surely a treat, as it is so true to nature. The leading lady in the play is lost in the jungle and set upon by a wild animal. She comes out winner, but almost exhausted. Her pet elephant being driven away from home by its keeper, later finds her in the jungle and kneels down for her to mount and carries her to safety. The entire program is a good one.
