SOCIETY

Those who attended Margaret Mayo's dramatization of "Baby Mine" will have the opportunity this afternoon and evening of witnessing another charming play by the same talented girl—"Polly of the Circus." Miss Lillian Slatten was a former resident of Salem, and writes under the nom de plume of Margaret Mayo.

A bazaar and cooked food sale is being held this week by the ladies of the Jason Lee Memorial church, at the Josse-Moore furniture store. The Ladies' Aid of Central Congregational church closed their sale of aprons and cooked food last evening.

At high noon, December the seventh in her home beautifully decorated with Oregon grape and ferns, Bertha Elma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jennings, of Zena, Polk county, was given in marriage to Mr. Lorin Marion Walling, of Lincoln, the Reverend P. S. Knight officiating. The bride was lovely in a robe of ivory satin with garnitures of embroidery and braid. Her flowers were white carnations. She was unattended.

An elaborate dinner was served after the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and a few close friends. Mrs. Walling is a granddaughter of the late Mrs. Mary Ernest of Polk county, whom every one knew and loved, and a graduate of Willamette College of Music, class nineteen hundred and two; a year of post graduate work followed in the same college. There were many handsome gifts, among them a fine pianola from the groom's parents.

The young couple will reside in a ranch home prepared for them near Gates. In connection with this wedding is an incident of peculiar interest. Reverend Knight married the bride's parents thirty-two years ago, when they settled in the same locality where they are at present living.

A quiet and simple wedding took place on the evening of December the sixth, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sophia Keene, when Reverend R. N. Avison read the marriage lines that joined Alice Sophia in holy matrimony to Mr. Vard Albert Hughes. The bride was charming in a dainty gown of cream elaborated with trimmings of silk and lace. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Gertrude Eakin played the wedding march. After congratulations a luncheon was served. Only relatives and near friends were asked for the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes went immediately to their own home on Twentieth and Chamacka streets, which had been furnished and was in readiness to receive them. Here the many gifts were placed for beauty and utility.

Miss Ellen Thielson entertained informally last evening for her guest, Miss Helen Whitney, of Portland.

Mrs. Ernest W. Dent, of Portland, is spending the week end with her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Hofer.

Mrs. Ada Strong is entertaining for a few days, Mrs. Walter Eakin and her daughter, Miss Barbara Eakin, of Astoria, who are on their way home after the joys of a family reunion in Eugene.

Mrs. Clifford Brown was hostess for the Kensington club yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Brown's sister, Miss Gladys Bretherton, from Portland, is her guest.

The Nachea Verein met with Mrs. George Post in Yew Park yesterday afternoon. For guest Mrs. Post asked Mrs. Ernest Toehler. After the sewing session a Dutch lunch was served around a prettily laid table centered with big yellow chrysanthemums.

The Adelante society held its regular meeting Friday afternoon with program. Roll call was answered by items of current events. Miss Lura Wilson gave a vocal solo. Miss Gertrude Eakin, piano solo and Mrs. Walsh continued her very interesting talk on Germany.

The music study department of the Salem Woman's club will meet with Mrs. A. N. Bush on Wednesday afternoon of next week, at two-thirty o'clock. At this meeting there will be a paper by Mrs. Palmer on Italian music from Handel's time to Verdi. Italian opera of today, by Mrs. Hendricks. Early musical instruments, by Mrs. Steiger. Arias, duets and choruses from Italian opera by Victoria.

Mrs. Henry B. Thielson was hostess Friday afternoon for the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church. After the business session, there was reading of an interesting article on missionary work in small towns of China.

Mrs. G. G. Bingham went to Portland last Wednesday to visit friends expecting to return tomorrow night.

Miss Nan Wagner is so far recovered from the effect of an operation that friends are allowed to visit her at the hospital.

Last Monday night the Pythian Sisters instituted a lodge with fifty members, under a new charter, in Silverton. From Salem were Grand Chief Mrs. L. R. Stinson, Grand

TELEPHONE DEPOSITS—WHY?

For some time the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company has required new subscribers to deposit the sum of five dollars upon the signing of a contract for telephone service.

The installation of a telephone for a period of less than one year means financial loss to a telephone company. The expense of connection and disconnection, added to the cost of maintenance and operation during such a period, ordinarily exceeds the amount of a yearly rental.

Telephone rates are based on annual rentals. Many telephone users, for various causes, discontinue service before the expiration of their contracts, and, frequently, in addition, their account becomes uncollectable. This means a direct and definite loss to the company, and, as an expense of operation, has naturally to be borne by its other patrons.

Expensive experience has demonstrated the necessity of requiring deposits, and courts and commissions have held the practice to be reasonable and justifiable.

With the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company, this deposit is returned at the end of one year, without application therefor by the subscriber, and with interest hereon at the rate of six per cent per annum. This procedure of returning the deposit with interest has been followed, and will be continued without regard to municipal action. Lack of receipts will not prevent the subscriber from receiving refund.

Individuals, firms and other corporations with labor or commodities to sell can extend or refuse credit at their discretion. A public service corporation is without this power.

The deposit is a guaranty that the subscriber will pay a telephone rate, the basis of which is an annual contract. It is a just and necessary protection to the company and patrons who comply with their contracts.
