WILLAMETTE TEAM SHOWING GOOD MATERIAL

With a good hard schedule being arranged for them by Manager Bellinger and with the prospects of taking a long trip shortly after the Christmas vacation, the Willamette quintet is practicing every evening in the gymnasium in order to be in the best of condition when called upon to act. All of last year's team are back on the floor and by the playing seen in the first few practice games, it is evident that Willamette is to have a winning team this year. The boys are shooting baskets from almost any position and it is impossible for the second team men to hold them down, although fresh men are played against them every five minutes.

The members of last year's team, who are endeavoring to hold down their positions are, McIntyre, Paul, Homan forwards, McRae center, Gibson and Schram guards. A good string of second team men are out every evening trying to dislodge the "stars" from their lofty positions among whom are Cummings, Steelhammer, Minton, Hepp, Hewitt and Praff.

The schedule has not as yet been definitely arranged but Manager Bellinger is negotiating contracts with all of the big schools of the Northwest and it is possible that Willamette may have some very interesting games on the home floor. Coach Sweetland is a "shark" at the basket ball game and will have the boys in the best condition before every contest. The first games will probably be played with the Chemawa Indians the latter part of next week.

J. J. DALRYMPLE DIES AT HOME OF JOS. H. ALBERT

James J. Dalrymple, a pioneer merchant of this city, passed on last night about midnight, (December 13, 1911.) from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jos. H. Albert, of this city. For several years he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Griffith, and for some weeks has been stopping with the Alberts. Mrs. Dalrymple died in September, 1907, and he has one other daughter living at Portland, Mrs. O. E. Krausse. Mr. Dalrymple was about last yesterday, and felt as well as usual when he retired last night, and his earthly career was closed without any suffering whatever. He retired from business about seven years ago, when he sold his large dry goods store, on the site of the present Chicago store, to J. L. Stockton, of this city.

Mr. Dalrymple was a native of Salem, Mass., where he was married, and brought his family to Salem, Or., in 1866. He found employment in the general merchandise business of R. M. Wade & Company and after a few years became a partner. He was one of the best business men in this city, and very successful in his undertakings. He was not a member of any church, but was a charter member of the order of Elks, and of the Illihee club. Of a strong social nature, he formed warm friendships and attachment, and was possessed of a high sense of honor in all his dealings with others. He was very fond of children and young people, and took a great interest in field sports and bench shows, having a passion for fine horses and dogs, and being a prize winner at many exhibitions. Mr. Dalrymple was beloved by all who knew him, and did many acts that remained unknown to the general public. He took a deep interest in public affairs from an independent Democratic standpoint, and was a great admirer of Senator Chamberlain and Governor West. The funeral will be conducted Friday at 10 o'clock, Rev. Babcock, of the First Presbyterian church officiating, from the residence of his son-in-law, Dr. J. C. Griffith, 1367 Court street. The remains will be buried at Salem.

HIS OUTFIT WAS WIDELY DISSEMINATED

A rather serious accident occurred near Rickreall last evening, when a team belonging to Ab. West, brother of Governor West, became unmanageable, and made a break for liberty. Mr. West was thrown from the rig, and, though not seriously injured was somewhat dazed for a time. When he came to himself he informed neighbors, who started a search for the missing horses and rig. The rig was finally located near the Ankeny place, and was in a dilapidated condition. Neither of the horses were located until this morning, when one was found in the streets of Salem. The harness was a complete wreck, and but little of it was left on the horse, which was identified by a former owner, and returned to the Center feed shed where Mr. West keeps his horses when in the city. Up to a late hour today nothing had been heard of the other animal, and Mr. West is quite concerned, lest he be hung up some place by some part of the harness.
