

BURGLAR GOT AWAY WITH $30

Some daring burglar, or more properly speaking house-breaker, smashed a window in the basement of the residence of C. Barnhardt, 306 South Third street, Thursday morning some time after 9 o'clock and there being no one home, proceeded to help himself. He did not take the furniture and thoughtfully left the cook stove, but he did find a purse with $2.00 in it. And no doubt realizing the extra need of a little coin at the glad some Christmas time, he "benevolently assimilated" it. He forgot to leave his card, a note of thanks or any clue to his identity, an oversight, and failure in politeness that Mr. Barnhardt deeply regrets.

A FINE SKIT WRITTEN BY A SALEM BOY

"MAID FOR A NIGHT" IS A HUMOROUS BIT WRITTEN BY LELAND HENDRICKS, AND PUT ON BY THE OREGON GLEE CLUB TOMORROW NIGHT AS PART OF ITS PROGRAM.

In the University of Oregon glee club concert, billed for the Grand opera house next Saturday evening, Norton Cowden, of Silverton, will be leading lady in a skit entitled "Maid for a Night." The little act was written by Leland Hendricks, of Salem, and is one of the three vaudeville sketches with which the singing programme of the club has been flavored.

Cowden, as a female impersonator, has had no equal at the university since the days of Bob Rountrie. His make-up is such that the audience, not knowing otherwise, would suppose him to be a beautiful young lady. Except for having a rather stout figure, he would pass as a beauty on any Broadway.

The skit in which Norton Cowden is leading lady, pictures two room-mates, one of whom is a woman-hater. Cowden, dressed as a girl, in-veigles his bashful room mate, Vernon Vawter, of Medford, into making love to him.

MAGERS GETS A BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS BOX

"Ab" Mager is a pretty good sized man, as well as a large citizen, but if you have noticed him closely the past day or two, you will have observed that he is "all swelled up." It isn't pride or egotism, or suddenly acquired wealth, or election to a fat office. Nothing of that kind, but just a Christmas present. When you are passing the Standard Liquor company's place on Commercial street just let your gaze wander into the big window, and you will not only understand "Ab's" extended dimensions and increased embonpoint, but you will stop, gaze and admire. The present is a group of four beautifully mounted China pheasants, two cocks and two hens, a cunning little fox, pointing his delicate little black nose at you, and fixing you with his intelligent eyes, as though he wanted to talk to you. The little fellow is beautifully posed with one foot faintly lifted, and at his feet a young rabbit, his breakfast, which he has apparently dropped at some sudden alarm. It is a dandy little group, a splendid present, and Ab is perfectly justified in feeling a trifle chesty.

A BILLIARD PARLOR FOR THE MARION

Salem is soon to have an absolutely up-to-date billiard and pool hall when the work now being done in the room formerly occupied by the Combination Manufacturing Co. at the Marion Hotel, is completed. The name of the new establishment is to be the "Marion Billiard Parlor" and the proprietor, Mr. J. C. McElroy, will spend $4,000 in remodeling and furnishing the room.

A new feature in pool tables is being introduced by Mr. McElroy. These tables are of the finest hardwood and are finished in mission, and are provided with regular pockets on the sides and at the ends, but the balls drop down through chutes at these places and return to a receptacle at the head of the table. Five of these new tables will be installed and one splendid billiard table.

The large room is being remodeled and refinished in order that everything will be in keeping with the scheme of having the entire place finished in old mission. Another pleasing feature of the place is the balcony at the farther end from which spectators can have an excellent view of all the players.

Mr. McElroy is experienced in this line of business, having formerly owned one of the best billiard parlors in Eugene. He is also well known in this city where he has many friends. There will be a grand opening on Saturday evening for which time several matches between local players are being arranged.

With the Coming of Middle Age
There is a letting down in the physical forces often shown in annoying and painful kidney and bladder ailments and urinary irregularities. Foley Kidney Pills are a splendid regulating and strengthening medicine at such a time. Try them. H. Jerman, Red Cross Pharmacy.

BOB LYMAN THE CHAMPION LIGHT WEIGHT

Lovers of the boxing game will be glad to learn that Bob Lyman, the champion 115-pound fighter of the Northwest, is in the city and intends to make it his home for the winter. Bob came here to visit relatives and friends, and became so infatuated with the city and valley that he decided to remain, at least for the winter.

While remaining here he does not intend to overlook anything in the fighting game. He is in the best of trim, and says that he is willing to meet any one for the championship of the Northwest at 115 pounds before a club offering the best inducements.

At present he is considering opening an up-to-date boxing school in the city and is meeting with a lot of encouragement.

A Prominent New York Politician Near Death

Hon. R. N. Lansing, of Rensselaer, N. Y., Six Times a member of the Assembly, Tells of Narrow Escape.

"About fifteen years ago I was taken with rheumatism, which affected my heart producing what was called valvular trouble. Three doctors told me I would never do another day's work. While I had many remedies recommended to me I got a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and it helped me inside of 48 hours. At the end of the week I called on my doctor and asked him to examine me. He said I was better than he ever expected to see me and asked if I was taking his medicine. When I told him I was not, but was taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy, he said, 'Thank the Lord for Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy.' I continued to take it, and while I realized my heart was damaged so I could not expect a permanent cure, for fifteen years I worked every day, notwithstanding I had been told I would never work again. In July, 1911, I was taken with rheumatism again, and it went to my heart as before. I got so bad that one of the Albany papers wrote up my life and said I could not live but a few hours. I again took Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy with very satisfactory results, and have not missed a day at business or in the legislature since January. I feel that Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has saved my life and cannot recommend it too highly."

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is sold and guaranteed by all druggists. MILES MEDICAL CO. Elkhart, Ind. 10

We wish to call your attention to the fact that most infectious diseases such as whooping cough, diphtheria and scarlet fever are contracted when the child has a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will quickly cure a cold and greatly lessen the danger of contracting these diseases. This remedy is famous for its cures of colds. It contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given to a child with implicit confidence. Sold by all dealers.

An Alarm at Night
That strikes terror to the entire household is the loud, hoarse and metallic cough of croup. No mistaking it, and fortunate then the lucky parents who keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound on hand. H. W. Casselman, Canton, N. Y., says: "It is worth its weight in gold. Our little children are troubled with croup and hoarseness, and all we give them is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I always have a bottle of it in the house." H. Jerman, Red Cross Pharmacy.
