AGREEMENT CANNOT BE CHANGED BY PAROLE
That a contract in writing which cannot be varied by a parole agreement with relation to the time of its performance was the decision of Judge Kelly this morning in the case of Geo. F. Livesley against Steve J. Merton.
The ruling was made on a demurrer interposed to a separate answer in the case. Judge Kelly in making it, stated that the authorities seemed rather conflicting on the subject, but gave it as his opinion that the courts of this state had held that such a contract could not be varied by a parole agreement.

PETITIONS TO PUT TEDDY ON THE BALLOT
For the purpose of determining whether petitions launched to place the names of Col. Roosevelt on the ballot for president are in conformity with the laws of the state, Oliver M. Hickey, one of the circulators, has submitted a sample to Secretary of State Olcott for inspection.
Hickey in his communication says that it will be easy to secure the required number of names as sentiment in favor of the colonel for president is tremendous. Under the law 1,000 signatures are required and he says those can be obtained with but little effort.
After an examination of the petitions, the secretary decided that they were substantially correct.
