COUNCIL DISCUSSES LICENSES

COUNCILMAN RIGDON CONFESSES HIS INABILITY TO SEE WHAT FIRE ESCAPES HAVE TO DO WITH THE QUESTION OF LICENSES.

Discovering "the most preposterous thing he had ever heard of in his life," Councilman Rigdon arose from his chair in the council chamber last evening, and for a little while lambasted its originator—Councilman LaLky.

The discovery was made by the councilman when Councilman LaLky, in whose hands rests an ordinance to reduce the licenses of the theatres in the city stated that he did not intend to make a report on it until he could ascertain whether the theatre owners would install proper safeguards against fires in the buildings.

"I can see no relation between these two things," said Councilman Rigdon, after several councilmen had given utterance to the same expression.

"I cannot see why the high license ordinance should depend on the installation of proper fire protection by the theatres. Are we putting a premium on human life? Are we going to let death traps exist, even though the shows pay a $1000 license a day? It is the most preposterous thing I ever heard of in my life. If the theatres are not safe then make them so. Now I could go on and talk on this subject all night, but you all see the point."

Councilman LaLky then explained that the present licenses were paid until March 1, and that he was using the ordinance in his hands as a club to compel the theatre owners to so equip their theatres that they will be safe against fire.

After a little more discussion on the subject a motion was made that a thorough inspection be made of the theatres in the city.

TAKES FUSS AT NOON CURED NEXT DAY

"Fuss" Rheumatism Cure Causing Excitement Among Rheumatics—Rush for Remedy Results in Hundreds of Quick Cures.

As the readers of this paper already know, the tests of rheumatism remedies recently made, resulted in an overwhelming decision in favor of the Fuss Rheumatism Cure, of Flint, Mich.

Following this announcement there has already been recorded a tremendous increase in the sales of "Fuss," and as a result, numerous cases of quick and surprising cures are daily coming to light.

In an interview by Mr. Enos Kingsley, the well known ladies' tailor of Flint, Michigan, one of the many confirmed rheumatics who decided to try Fuss, he said: "Yes, I had rheumatism for many months. I was flat on my back and my limbs were terribly swollen. I was helpless and could not sleep nights. I was one of those who heard of "Fuss" and the recent wonderful cures it has brought about. I started to take Fuss at noon. I slept good that night. Though helpless before that, would you believe it, I was up next day for my meals and the day following I walked down town. I never saw or heard of anything like "Fuss." It has cured me. It is certainly wonderful."

One of the most exceptional things which this remedy does, is to give immediate relief. It contains no alcohol or other stimulants and contains no dangerous or harmful ingredients of any kind, being guaranteed under the National Pure Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906.

For sale by D. F. Fry and all leading druggists or sent prepaid on receipt of $1.00 or six bottles for $5. Fuss Remedy Co., Flint, Mich.

QUESTIONS OF HIGH LICENSE UP TO COUNCIL

PROPOSITION TO INCREASE THE LIQUOR LICENSE FROM $600 TO $900 FAILED TO GO THROUGH, BUT WILL COME UP AGAIN NEXT WEEK.

Unable to obtain unanimous consent the advocates of a higher liquor license for the saloons in the city were unable to bring about its passage last evening at the council, and it was referred after its second reading to the ordinance and license committee. When those committees submit a report on it at the next meeting, and when it comes up for final consideration it is likely that a lively scrap will ensue as it is known that the liquor men have friends in the council, but it is not believed enough of them to prevent the passage of the ordinance or to bring about any material reduction.

The ordinance, as presented last evening raises the license of saloons from $600 to $900, and that of malt houses from $400 to $500. The drug-gist license remains the same, $300, and so do all other licenses.

Charles Durham, Lovington, Ill., has succeeded in finding a positive cure for bed wetting. "My little boy wet the bed every night clear thro on the floor. I tried several kinds of kidney medicine and I was in the drug store looking for something different to help him when I heard of Foley Kidney Pills. After he had taken them two days we could see a change and when he had taken two-thirds of a bottle he was cured. That is about six weeks ago and he has not wet in bed since." Red Cross Pharmacy (H. Jerman).

SOME DEBATES ARRANGED FOR AT THE U. OF O.

The University of Oregon debating team which debates University of Utah February 23, is hard at work under Coach Le Roy Johnson, getting their argument in shape. Coach Johnson expects to win this debate, although the "varsity" lost to Utah last year. The subject for the debate is the "Judicial Recall," of which Oregon upholds the negative. The men who represent Oregon in this debate are E. C. Crochet, of Pendleton, and C. J. Jones, of Newberg.

March 29 the annual triangular debate takes place between Washington, Seattle and Stanford, at Eugene. Leon Ray, of Portland, and Chester Moores, of Salem, will go to Seattle, while Carlton Spencer, of Cottage Grove, and Pickett, of Prineville, will meet Stanford at Eugene.

A new feature will be introduced by the women of the university, in order to help debating financially. The women have proposed a leap year dance to be held after the debate, and the ticket to the debate be also good for the dance. It has also been suggested that the tickets for couples be 75 cents, and the price of one ticket be 50 cents.

DEMOCRATS CONSPICUOUS BY THEIR ABSENCE

Lane and Washington counties are the first to forward to the secretary of state the list of registered voters for the first week of the registration for the general election, the law providing that the list for each week must be forwarded.

During the week 285 registered in Lane county and out of that number there were but 58 Democrats. Democrats seem to be still more scarce in Washington for out of 29 voters registered the Democratic party could boast of but two.
