SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles.

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint. I took Cardul, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did." Take Cardul when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardul is a strength-building tonic medicine for women. It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardul acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs. Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardul. He will recommend it.

THE PRINCE IS DOING REAL WORK

Vienna, Jan. 17.—Prince David Dadiani, a prominent member of the family from which the czars of Russia originally sprang, today started serving his sentence of 20 years' imprisonment at hard labor for instigating the murder of Prince Dadeschkeleli, with whose beautiful wife he was in love.

Prince Dadiani, a lieutenant of the guards, and popular in society, lived part of each year in St. Petersburg, where he was oftenest seen at court, but spent the summer months in his native wilds in the Caucasus. Prince and Princess Dadeschkeleli lived on a neighboring estate. While on a visit with her husband to Kutais, the princess met Dadiani. Her husband later was compelled to return home, but the princess invented a pretext to remain. Gossip reached his ears that his wife was constantly with Dadiani. He returned to Kutais and told Dadiani that his visits to his wife must cease.

A short time later Prince Dadeschkeleli was waylaid by two ruffians in broad daylight and killed. At the trial it was proved that each of the assassins received $250 from Prince Dadiani.

United States senate to learn the attitude of these men on the question of the interstate shipment of intoxicating liquors; and then in turn the Anti-Saloon league proposes to advise their friends of such attitude that they may act accordingly. The league leaders declare that they will do similar work in relation to the legislature, namely learn the attitudes of candidates on favorable legislation and join for the ones friendly regardless of party, and oppose all others. They also propose to mix in the election of district attorneys, judges and other officials.

Petitions will soon be in circulation, according to the Anti-Saloon league program, to so amend the constitution by repealing the Home Rule amendment, that by the constitution a city will be prevented from being wet in a county the majority of the citizens of which are for prohibition.

OREGON KIDS GET A REAL HARD DEAL

For the purpose of interesting the school board of this city in a garden contest to be held for the coming state fair State Superintendent of Public Instruction Alderman will confer with the school board this evening.

Yesterday he had a conference with the school board of Portland on the same subject, and a lot was donated by the citizens on which the garden truck is to be grown. Some similar arrangements will probably be made here.

The idea is to not only have the school children compete for prizes at the fair, but at the same time to teach them in agriculture and horticulture by having them plant and cultivate the products to be raised.

To unquestionably prove to the people that indigestion and dyspepsia can be permanently relieved and that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will bring about this result, we will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give satisfaction to any one using it.

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

Gray hair is a mark of age, and nothing that can be said as to its beauty will offset the disadvantages of this mark of age set upon your brow.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy darkens the hair and restores it to its youthful beauty. Our grandmothers and their grandmothers before them used sage and sulphur for darkening their hair. Nothing has ever been found more effective for this purpose than these two time-honored remedies, but Wyeth, a modern chemist, has combined the two with other ingredients, which makes a delightful dressing for the hair, and which not only removes every trace of dandruff but promotes the growth of the hair. It also stops the hair from falling out, and makes it beautiful.

All druggists are authorized to refund the money if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair and don't resort to old-time hair dyes. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist today, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists, Special Agent, J. C. Perry.

TO CONFER ON BRIDGE MATTER

County Commissioner Beckwith left today for Stayton where he will meet the members of the board of county commissioners of Linn county and take action with relation to Green's Bridge across the Santiam, which was washed out during the recent flood.

Eventually the boards of the two counties will probably make appropriations for the construction of a bridge in its stead. At the present this can not be done and in order to relieve the situation, the plan is to install temporarily a ferry.
