Want Wages Raised-- Trouble never comes single. It is generally married and brings along all its own relations as well as those of its wife. No sooner had the city council raised liquor licenses from $600 to $900, than the barkeepers union demanded an increase in wages.

Graustark Coming-- George Barr McCutcheon's "Graustark" will be one of the notable attractions at the opera house this season. Those who have read the book can best appreciate the charms of this exquisite drama of love and intrigue. Dramatized by Grace Hayward and adapted by George D. Baker, all the interesting moments of the novel have been retained. The play is beautifully staged and costumed. A sixty-foot cast of scenery and electrical effects are carried as a mountain to this gem of romantic drama.

Organize a Team-- A meeting of the academy was called after the regular chapel at Willamette this morning, and the matter of recognizing a basketball team was brought up. Harrison, the student body president, has received letters from Burgess Ford, a Willamette alumnus, who is coaching the Lebanon high school team, asking for a game with the academy, to be played Friday evening, January 26. The student body voted to organize a team and Ray Pomeroy, by unanimous ballot, was elected captain and manager. As there are some expenses connected with it, an admission of 25 cents will be charged. The game will probably be played in the W. U. gym.

Stole Her Chickens-- A thief entered the chicken house of Mrs. U. S. Doison, who resides at the corner of North Capitol and Union streets last night, and stole six chickens. The case has been reported to the police.

Notice of Stockholders Annual Meeting-- The adjourned annual meeting of the stockholders of the Mutual Savings and Loan association, will be held at the office of the secretary on January 19, 1912, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing three directors for the term of three years and for the transaction of such other business as may legally come before the meeting. J. D. White, secretary. 1-18-21

So Tired of Tired Feet! Use TIZ Gets the "Tired" Out in a Few Minutes--Makes Your Feet Sore-proof.

"O judge! It's awful how tired feet make you feel tired all over--so dead tired. Then, when you've got a corn besides, and a bunion, and a few blisters, and your feet are terribly swollen, you don't care if you've got a million dollars--you're tired."

A quarter buys a box of Tiz--a wonder for tired, sore, tender, chafed, blistered, swollen, sweaty, smelly feet, corns, callouses and bunions, chilblains and frostbite. The moment you use it, you give a sigh of relief, and then you smile. There's nothing as good as Tiz, so don't accept any attempted imitations. Tiz draws out all the poisonous exudations that make foot troubles.

Tiz, 25 cents a box, sold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended by all drug stores, department and general stores.

REPUTATION AND LIFE BOTH LOST

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, Jan. 18.--"My Dear Fred: I am doing this--it is the best. Never before have I neglected business like I have been doing these past two weeks. I have been drinking--curse! That, together with my pressure of work, has preyed on my mind. My reputation is lost, but the firm's is not. I am afraid that if I stay here it will be--I have made a few loans, but they are amply covered by the balance of my salary. Yours, Billy."

Penning the above note to his employer, William Bellamy, aged 24, an accountant employed by the Barrows, Wade, Guthrie company, public accountants, ended his life today in the office of his employer, by sending a bullet through his brain. He was found by Miss T. Coughlan, a stenographer, who heard the report and entered the room to investigate. Bellamy was still alive when picked up by fellow clerks, but died on the way to the hospital. He had been employed by the firm nine months.
