STATE WIDE CAMPAIGN BY THE SINGLE TAXERS

A sweeping campaign which will cover every county in the state is the plan of the single tax advocates in the state, according to announcement made by W. S. U'Ren this forenoon.

Mr. U'Ren, together with Harry Parkinson, former editor of the Labor Press, of Portland, came to the city this morning, and both were smiling over the victory won by the single tax people by the supreme court decision yesterday.

According to Mr. U'Ren, the work will be commenced at once to not only carry the Clackamas county single tax measure, but also to carry a similar measure for Multnomah county. After these movements are fairly launched, movements along the same line will be launched in every county in the state.

Sentiment Is Growing.

"I find sentiment rapidly growing in favor of the single tax system," said Mr. U'Ren today, in speaking of the subject. "We've already asked that a petition initiating such a measure in Clackamas county be filed, and we will commence work in Multnomah county at once. The campaign will then be extended to every portion of the state—every county to be included.

Will Be No Frauds.

"We have until July in which to file these petitions, and we are going to take our time. The campaign will be conducted cautiously, with the view of eliminating all fraud. We intend to see that every person signing the petitions are registered voters."

Eastern Oregon papers are rejoicing over the recent storms. They say the snow is all gone, and most of it "gone into the ground" where it will do much good.

work. But the street itself, east of Eighteenth street seems to be not more than four inches thick and the concrete of the most crumbling variety. As the work has been paid for and there is no protective bond of any kind, it seems the property owners can do nothing.

There have been some good concrete streets built in the city, but this is not one of them. It is said by some of the property owners that they could not get the man they wanted for inspection, as the political drag was used to make places for men at five dollars a day who had no practical experience with concrete work. There should be an official investigation and let the blame rest where it belongs. As it is the street will be little better than a mud or macadam street in winter and very dirty and dusty in summer.

HAS SYMPTOMS OF BEING THE GENUINE THING

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 24.—"I do not intend to become a candidate for the presidency, but if my country calls I will bow to the will of the people," remarked Charley Cottrel today to a physician.

"Who the devil are you?" questioned the startled doctor.

"Hush!" was the stibillant warning. "I'm Theodore Roosevelt. Please keep all those reporters out, will you? I have nothing to say."

Cottrel then turned to an attendant, whom he addressed familiarly as Chauncey M. Depew. He next called for a stenographer. As he was led away, the "Colonel" turned to the doctor and remarked: "Just open that door a minute. I want to show you how fast I can run."

Cottrel will be examined as to his sanity.

SECRETARY REFUSES TO ALLOW CLAIM

After considering the claim of Cyril Boothby for hospital fees paid out for an injury sustained on the track of the Portage railway, Secretary of State Olcott decided to disallow the claim, and if it is allowed at all it will be by the legislature.

Boothby was asleep on the tracks when the accident occurred. The injury sustained was to one of his limbs, and to save his life it was necessary to amputate it. The bill in full called for $458.60. The secretary takes the position that the railroad company was in no way responsible for the accident.

DEMOCRATS ALL RUN WELL IN LOUISIANA

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)

New Orleans, Jan. 24.—Incomplete returns today from yesterday's primary elections show Luther Hall to be leading the other candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Congressman Broussard is leading Governor J. Y. Sanders in the race for the short term United States senatorship, and for the long term M. J. Foster is ahead of Joseph Randall.

THE TRIAL OF WILDE HAS BEGUN

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)

Portland, Ore., Jan. 24.—The opening statement for the state in the trial of Louis J. Wilde, the San Diego banker, for embezzlement, was made this forenoon by Special Prosecutor A. E. Clark. He completed his statement shortly before noon, and this afternoon Attorney Dan Malarkey, chief counsel for the defense, made his statement.

Clark, in outlining the case, said that the state intended to show that Wilde and former Cashier W. Cooper Morris, of the defunct Oregon Trust & Savings bank, sold certain stocks to the bank at par, and then split $90,000, the sum representing the difference between the market value of the stock and the par value.

In his opening statement Malarkey admitted that each defendant received a "commission," but said it was simply a business deal, and not a criminal conspiracy, as charged.

Wilde, accompanied by his wife, was in court, and whistled frequently to his attorneys.

BEGIN WORK ON ANOTHER BIG GARAGE

Work started today clearing away an old building just off the corner of Commercial and Center streets for the erection of a garage for John Maurer, the well-known Salem machinist. The building will stand on the alley, 65x83 feet, of concrete, and Wm. Welch has the contract. F. H. Claire and L. P. Wolf have the contract for clearing the ground. Construction will begin at once.

NO CHANGE IN REGARD TO ELECTION

That the change made in the congressional districts in the state does not affect the manner of the election of the railroad commissioners is the opinion of Attorney-General Crawford.

The opinion was rendered at the request of Secretary of State Olcott, when Railroad Commissioner Campbell yesterday afternoon filed his declaration of intention to become a candidate for re-election. Before the secretary would file the declaration he asked for an opinion from the attorney-general as to whether it conformed to the law.

Under the law applicable to the election of the commissioners it is provided that two shall be elected from the congressional districts and the third from the state at large. Since then the congressional districts have been changed, an additional one being created. The secretary was in doubt whether the election would be governed by the former or later statute.

ADVOCATES DEFIANCE OF THE COURTS

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 24.—Open defiance of the Ohio supreme court was made here today by President Bigelow in an address before the constitutional convention. Bigelow's remarks were prompted when opponents of the initiative and referendum cited the ordinance of 1787 creating the Northwest Territory, of which Ohio is a part, and the recent supreme court decision in the case of the State vs. Boone as indicating that the court will invalidate the initiative and referendum on the ground that it conflicts with that ordinance.

"If the decision of the Ohio supreme court is not repudiated by the people," said Bigelow, "this convention will be reduced to the post of an ordinary legislature and the work it does, though it be ratified by the people, may be vetoed by the court."

"The friends of the initiative and referendum are just awakening to the fact that the supreme court has laid plans to have these measures set aside."

INTRODUCTION OF GARDENING IN THE SCHOOLS

The movement for introduction of gardening in the public schools was given a hearing at the high school Tuesday evening where State Superintendent Alderman addressed a fine audience of teachers and persons interested in the cause. He conducted competitive methods at McMinnville and at Eugene, where vacant lots were converted into school gardens. The only crops raised were lettuce, radishes and peas, as they mature by the time school is out. The plan includes a competition in each county for school fairs, and that a grand state competition.
