Mrs. Martin Tells About a Painful Experience that Might Have Ended Seriously.

Rivesville, W. Va .-- Mrs. Dora Martin. in a letter from Rivesville, writes; "For three years, I suffered with wo manly troubles, and had pains in my back and side. I was nervous and could not sleep at night.

The doctor could not help me. He said I would have to be operated on before I could get better. I thought I would try using Cardul.

Now, I am entirely well. I am sure Cardul saved my life. I will never be without Cardul in my home. I recommend it to my friends." For fifty years, Cardul has been relieving pain and distress caused by wo-

Shanghai, Feb. 7.—Unofficial protests of England and Japan today resulted in Lieutenant-General Homer Lea, the American soldier of fortune, and author of the "Valor of Ignorance," being deposed as chief military adviser to the Chinese revolutionary leaders.

"I have made this explanation to you as a friend; but I wish no explanation made to our enemies. What they want is said to said the ward is said the ward is said to said t they want is squabble and fuss. They can have it if we explain, and they cannot if we don't." Colonel Roosevelt referred to criticisms of him because he had entertained prominent labor leaders at the White House.
