Bank at Independence—Articles of incorporation were filed today with Secretary of State Oicott by the Farmers' State Bank of Independence. The capital stock is designated as $25,000, and the incorporators are J. J. Fenton, A. L. Sperling and C. W. Irvine.
May Swear in Votes—According to a decision of Attorney-General Crawford, voters who fail to register for the primaries may swear their votes in under the law, just the same as at the general election. The opinion is in answer to an inquiry made by W. C. Batesman, county clerk of Walla Walla county. The attorney-general says that any voter failing to register for the primaries may swear in his vote by using blank A.
Banquet at Lebanon—A party of Salem people, consisting of Dr. B. P. Pound and wife, Mrs. Mary Lewis, of the Rex studio, and W. A. Bullock, state manager of the Yeoman, were guests at a banquet and reception given by the Yeoman lodge of Lebanon Saturday evening. A splendid program was rendered by local talent, and every one had a splendid time. Guests were present from most of the surrounding towns, and a party of 14 came down from Portland.

For Parcels Post—The business men's lunch at the Marion hotel was well attended today, and it was decided at the next meeting to have the parcels post hearings before the congressional committee summarized, and presented by one of the members.
E. G. Shipley Home—U. G. Shipley, of the Shipley company, returned yesterday from his Eastern trip, and reports having had a very successful business trip. He saw lots of winter, and, while bringing with him a very bad cold, he is glad to get back into Oregon.
A Surprise Party—Following account of a merry surprise party was received too late for the Saturday social page: "Mrs. Dora Keeton entertained Friday evening in honor of her daughter, Grace's fifteenth birthday. It was a very happy surprise for the young lady and the evening was spent with enjoyable games and delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Eva Shantz, Ellen Moore, Madge Bailey, Violet Radzime, Ella Bennett, Eldia Lins, Vera Scott, Archie Holtz, Raphael Merjack, Clair Dräger, Henry Laudy, Harry Frescher, Anthony Schuler, Omer Lathan, Cain Ljas.

Patriotic Dance at D'Arcy Hall—Wednesday, February 21. Be there or you will miss something. Prizes.
The Benefit Concert—Friday evening at the Methodist church will be the musical event of the season. Don't miss it.
Tickets—For the benefit concert are on sale at the Commercial book store. Reserved seats 50c. General admission 35c.
Why Tom Smiles—If you are laboring under a weight of woe, or a bad spell of the blues, look up Tom Maplethorpe, the merry shoe-maker at Meyers'. Tom's usual Quaker Oats smile is more pronounced than ever. It has the Taft smile going south for size—and it is as contagious as smallpox. No, it's not a boy, but a sister, Mrs. B. Sandeforth, of Forrest, Illinois. Tom left her in England 22 years ago, and this is their first meeting since that long separation. Mrs. B. Sandeforth is visiting "Uncle Tom" with her son and daughter.
Was Well Played—"Paid in Full", which has been at the Grand Opera House once before, played in a fine house and also at the mainline. Although second performances at one-night stands are as a rule not well patronized, this play seems to have a stronger hold on people than most of them. The leading lady and the part of the old sea captain were exceptionally strong, the leading lady falling down only when in the last act her voice is pitched so low as to be scarcely audible back of the orchestra. The coming of the left and Mutt musical comedy is looked forward to with great interest by play-goers.

Funeral Notice—The funeral of Mrs. R. C. Phelps, who died Sunday morning at her late home on Rural avenue, will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the United Evangelical church on Cottage street. Interment in Lee Mission cemetery. Mrs. Phelps was well known among a large number of friends. She has been an invalid for a long time.
Police Court News—Police court had a good list of business this morning. Three of the genus holoceps transients were arraigned for plain drunks and disorders, and fined out of town. One man from one of the little dry valley towns was also pulled in for getting laager, and paid a fine into the city exchequer, which Judge Elgin turned over to the city treasurer, W. Sumner and Emery Tucker were arraigned for shooting up Chinatown with firecrackers on Saturday night, disturbing the peace of the otherwise quietly celebrating Orientals, who were bidding farewell to the Manchus dynasty, and inaugurating the new republic.
