PROGRESSIVES MADE SORE BY STAND PATTERS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Seattle, Feb. 29.—"Wait till election day." This is the consolation of the progressives who failed to get an invitation even to the doleful banquet called last night by Herman H. W. Colner, of the Republican state central committee. The banquet was dominated by the stand pat politicians.

A roll of the banqueters showed that Taft, 46 for Roosevelt and 16 for Taft.

George H. Colner, of Seattle, was on the program, being assigned the harmless theme "Get together."

The Taft campaign was started at the banquet by Chairman Colner proposing a toast to the president, which was drunk, and Governor Hay was called upon to speak to the theme "The President," which added more eulogies. The resolution by the governor made a strong opportunity to drink a toast to the governor of the state and this was accomplished as per schedule. Mrs. Frances King Sears, of Seattle, and Mrs. Addie Barlow, of Steilacoom, spoke for the women, finding opportunity to slip in laudation for Taft and conservative policies.

W. T. Dovell, of Seattle, made a plea for the "constitution" declaring the fight in this country is whether we shall have a constitution as a bulwark of liberty or be subjected to the "fifteen will of a fickle majority."

Charles Claypool, of Olympia, made the old time regulation Republican speech on the achievements of the party.

Governor Hay devoted his entire speech to condemnation of "muck-rakers," declaring "these murdering Janizaries have so poisoned our political criticism that it has lost all semblance of fairness, honesty or worthy purpose," and that the worst of it is directed against the president.

There is no better medicine made for colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions, aids expectoration; and restores the system to a healthy condition. For sale by all dealers.

"A WONDERFUL SHOW" DESCRIBES THE PANTAGES

A Vancouver, B. C., newspaper, speaking of the Pantages road shows which are to be at The Grand Monday and Tuesday of next week, says: "Rapoll, a juggler, presents an act at Pantages this week that stands high above the others, though the worth of the others is by no means inconsiderable. Built upon massive proportions, he performs tricks that require the lightest of touches and he performs others that call for the exercise of much brute force and great control of balance. His repertoire of tricks is particularly extensive and some of them are very mystifying as well as neat. His work with bouncing balls and billiard cues is equal to the best that has been seen in Vancouver, and his jugglery of steel balls is fully as good. He rolls a glittering steel ball around his arms and neck, as though they had a perfect groove along which to run, and he bounces them into the air and one to the nape of his neck with the accuracy of a baseball player."

SAN DIEGO IS VERY BITTER AGAINST TAFT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Diego, Cal., Feb. 29.—Colonel D. D. Collier, head of the San Diego Panama exposition, declared today that he was in the fight against President Taft to stay, as the result of what he calls Taft's groveling to San Franciscans to secure the California delegation to the coming convention. "I say," Collier declared, "that the time has gone by when a man can stick a knife into our dearest hopes, and San Diego will still get down and grovel at his feet."

Collier said the president had agreed with the San Francisco delegation that San Diego's exposition should be shoved aside.

Collier now says he will work with the progressives for the nomination of Roosevelt. Collier, who has been an organization Republican, returned last night from the East, and was the guest of honor at a large dinner. Some hisses and some applause greeted his mention of Taft.

THE LEADING
 OF THEM ALL

Adopting as his campaign cry "the condition of the people must be immediately improved, and be sure and vote right," James Harvey Graham, of Baker, today filed with Secretary of State Otcott his declaration of intention of becoming a candidate on the Democratic ticket at the primaries for the office of congressman.

Incident to having the distinction of having the most unique slogan, Graham also has the honor of being the first Democrat to declare himself a candidate for this office.

Besides going on record for all of the progressive policies enunciated by all other candidates declaring themselves candidates for office, Graham goes them one better, by reviving the old Philippine question, and declaring himself in favor of the independence of the people. He also believes in woman suffrage; and also in the public ownership of all newspapers.

Mysterious Suicide.
 San Francisco, Feb. 29.—Mystery surrounds the suicide here today of a man believed to be George C. Shields, who blew out his brains in Washington Square Park. He was well dressed. The only clue is a note he left addressed to "Kil," in which he begged forgiveness, and asked that "the boy" be taught to forget him.

FRANK A. TURNER WILL RUN FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Frank A. Turner, of this city, filed his declaration yesterday to be a candidate for nomination for representative on the Republican ticket.

Mr. Turner says in his declaration that he will use his best efforts to reduce taxation; will carry out Statement No. 1 to the letter; will oppose the creation of all new offices, and will favor repealing, rather than creating, any new laws.

Mr. Turner is a taxpayer in Marion, Polk, Tillamook, Klamath and Lake counties.

He asks to have printed after his name on the ballot: "Statement No. 1; reduction of taxes; opposition to creation of new offices."

A. A. Grinde, of Silverton, also filed his declaration to be a candidate for nomination for representative on the Republican ticket. He says he will oppose all graft and excessive appropriations, and will favor fewer and better laws.

FIRST REAL BATTLE OF THE CAMPAIGN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Excelsior Springs, Mo., Feb. 29.—The first actual clash between Taft and Roosevelt forces for delegates to the national Republican convention, came here today, and resulted, after scenes of wild turmoil, in what was practically a drawn battle.

The fight came at the Third District congressional Republican convention. Trouble started when the doors to the convention hall were locked on all but Taft delegates, who were at once seated by the congressional committee. In the scene which followed, fist fights were barely averted, and the Roosevelt faction, barred from the hall, erected a platform in the street intending to hold a separate convention there.

This was later made unnecessary when the Roosevelt men moved into the rear of the convention hall, elected separate committee on credentials, and, amid a hubbub that sounded for blocks around, adjourned after electing two delegates and alternates.

The Taft forces also elected delegates and the dispute will come before the Chicago convention for settlement.

Three persons were killed in the wreck of a fast train in Pennsylvania.
