PROGRESSIVES WILL NOT DIVIDE.

The men of Oregon who have established progressive political principles will not divide their votes in the primary. They will not scatter their vote at the dictation of reactionists on president or on United States senator in Oregon.

FINANCING LAND MONOPOLY.

Mr. Davidson, operating with Mr. Hill, of St. Paul, the railroad magnate, has been at Ontario, Malheur county, "financing land." He says they are ready to finance any kind of a plan to get people onto the land to make it produce.

THE PROBLEM OF THE WORN OUT HORSE.

Here's a problem that deserves much from our humane societies, a more serious consideration than is commonly given it. We meet the "old horse" everywhere, on streets, in public and private sale stables, out on the country highway, being led or driven to some place where a dollar may be made out of him.

FOR A MORE BEAUTIFUL SALEM.

At the recent Six O'clock Club dinner a paper was read by Prof. Geo. L. Schreiber on art as a community asset. A committee was named to propose plans for general beautifying of the Capital City along artistic lines.

THE ROUND-UP

A mile in six minutes is the auto limit in Baker City. Five children were born in Portland, February 29, 1908. Col. C. E. Wood is a strong advocate of equal suffrage.

That many were turned away. G. M. Rowly, chief of police of Grants Pass, has been held over to the grand jury for a shooting in connection with the bootlegging campaign. Seaside at an election Wednesday adopted a charter which did not name the water commissioners, and will have to hold another election within 30 days.

New Tuberculosis Remedy Based on Medicine

To say that a specific exists for the cure of Consumption is perhaps too strong a statement, but in Eckman's Alternative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness, and is permanently curing a large number of Consumptives.
