To Ship Body East—
The body of William Dugan, who died here March 2, 1912, was shipped from the Cottage undertaking parlors today to Salem, Mass. A brother of the deceased arrived yesterday from Ludlow, Calif., and arrangements were then made to have the body shipped east.

Hollis Files—
Judge Hollis, who was a member of the house during the last session of the legislature, today filed with Secretary of State Olcott his declaration of intention of becoming a candidate on the Republican ticket for state senator. He resides at Grants Pass.

Send Out Poultry Car—
Announcement has been made by the Southern Pacific Railroad company that April 1, it will send out a poultry car from Corvallis, and which will be placed on exhibition in various towns in the state. The car will be under the supervision of men connected with the college, and its first place of exhibition will be Grants Pass.

Church Notice—

Brentano for Legislature—
John P. Theo. B. Brentano, of St. Paul, is in the city today and announces that he will be a candidate for nomination on the Democratic ticket for representative. He will favor Statement No. 1 and believe in carrying out the direct primary to the letter of the law.

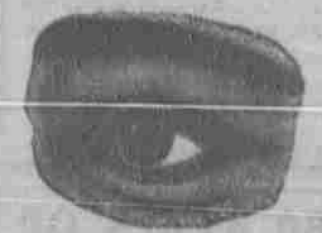

Farm House Burglarized—
The sheriff's office has received word that the home of J. P. Lauretzen three miles east of Salem was broken into yesterday and $17 in money and a gold watch valued at about $15 were stolen. The family was away from home and the theft was not discovered until some time later. The officers are keeping a sharp lookout for the thief and it is believed he will be apprehended.

Ten-Day Campaign—
Rev. W. G. MacLaren, of Portland, began a 10-days' campaign at the Commons Mission last night. He gave a very interesting talk. If you want to hear a man among men, don't fail to hear Mr. MacLaren, Sunday, at 3 o'clock and every night at 7:30.

Barrett is Paroled—
Charles A. Barrett, who recently made a sensational confession to Governor West as to the billion robbery on the steamer Humboldt in 1910, was paroled by the governor yesterday and turned over to the United States government. Steve Connell, secret service agent, will have immediate supervision of Barrett. Connell, Frank G. Taylor, of the Fremont's Fund Insurance Company, and a postoffice inspector, whose name was not given, were here yesterday and took Barrett to Portland.

WHAT SAVED HER LIFE

Mrs. Martin Tells About a Painful Experience that Might Have Ended Seriously.

Riversville, W. Va.—Mrs. Dora Martin, in a letter from Riversville, writes: "For three years, I suffered with womanly troubles, and had pains in my back and side. I was nervous and could not sleep at night.

The doctor could not help me. He said I would have to be operated on before I could get better. I thought I would try using Cardul.

Now, I am entirely well. I am sure Cardul saved my life. I will never be without Cardul in my home. I recommend it to my friends."

For fifty years, Cardul has been relieving pain and distress caused by womanly trouble. It will surely help you. It goes to the spot—relieves the trouble—relieves the symptoms, and drives away the cause.

If you suffer from any symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardul. Your druggist sells and recommends it. Get a bottle from him today.

North Salem Work—
Mr. L. O. Harrold, of the Bi-Concrete paving company, has a large force of men working digging ditch and laying sewer in the district in the vicinity of Hood and Commercial streets, North Salem. He has a good street contract in North Salem and it will require considerable time yet to complete the job as at the present ground in most of the district is the ground in most of the district is what is known as sewer district No. 6.

It Was Easy Money—
Deputy Sheriff William Each leaves today for Hood River to bring James Fuller to Salem. Fuller is charged with obtaining money by false pretences. About four months ago Fuller issued a check on one of the Portland banks for $35 and it was cashed by Ed. Blessing at his place of business on State street. When the check was presented at the Portland bank for payment in the regular way, payment was refused for the reason that there were no funds. The case was referred to the officers and Mr. Each was detailed to handle it. About three weeks ago he got trace of Fuller at Portland and from there he was traced to North Yakima and then back to Hood River, where he is now under arrest.

Center Street Paving—
There will be a meeting of the property owners on Center street at 7:30 at Ryan's hall on Commercial and Center streets for the purpose of discussing the merits and cost of the different kinds of pavements, which have been proposed for this street. It is expected that all persons interested on that street will be present and express their views on the subject. In all probability representatives of the different kinds of pavements proposed for this street, will be there to answer any questions and take part in the discussion.

Beat the Street Car—
Yvette Lindsay had a race with the Englewood street car last evening. The stakes were $5, and Lindsay, to win, had to beat the car to the end of its run and back, on foot, or, in other words, make the round trip quicker than the car. The race proved an easy one, for the car flew the track, and Lindsay came home under double wraps street car behind the distance flag.

Equal Suffrage Society—
The Salem Equal Suffrage Society had a call out for a meeting today at 2 o'clock, to effect a permanent organization. The meeting was held at Mrs. Enright's home, but the Journal's early press hour prevented any statement of the results accomplished.

Lady Got the Mails—
A novel sight was witnessed on the streets today in which Miss Ruth Bays, who, by the way, has made application to the circuit court to have her name changed to Howard, was the principal factor. Miss Bays, or Howard, was acting in the capacity of collector of mail from the downtown boxes, and she performed the service with a dexterity not possessed by the male sex.

Moved to Eugene—
C. J. Daniels, formerly proprietor of the blacksmith shop at the corner of High and Ferry streets, has moved to Eugene, where he has gone into partnership with his father, J. H. Daniels, of that place. Chester, as he is better known, has just returned from Portland, where he purchased a new automobile to use in connection with their insurance business. The Messrs. Daniels are agents at Eugene for the McKinville Fire Insurance association.

Around the World—
Mrs. John D. Turner and her mother, Mrs. Waugaman, of Pittsburgh, leave today for a trip around the world. Mr. Turner, the well known Salem attorney, expects to meet them in Europe next December. They sail from Seattle for Tokio and thence westward and around the circle.

ABSOLUTELY ENDS STOMACH MISERY OR DYSPEPSIA

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapiesin.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs should take a little Diapiesin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, gas or stomach or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or sick stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia, are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapiesin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Paper's Diapiesin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.
