WILL FURNISH EMPLOYMENT FOR CONVICTS

If a plan under consideration by Governor West is finally carried into execution, preparations will be inaugurated the first of next month for the installation of a furniture factory at the state penitentiary.

Later on it is the intention of the governor, according to the policy outlined by him, to also install machinery for the manufacture of iron beds and mattresses, tinware and for the manufacture of other articles.

The factories are intended to supplant the stove foundry, which was operated for a number of years by Lowenburg-Goring & Co., of Portland, but whose lease has been terminated by the governor. The machinery will be installed in the quarters formerly occupied by this company.

The governor figures that, under this plan, much of the furniture and other articles needed by the state institutions can be manufactured by convict labor, and at prices which will practically be cost. Convicts are still employed by the stove foundry company, but after the first of the month will be out of employment, and, as the governor puts it, the state must now furnish them employment. Being anxious to place the penitentiary, not only on a self-supporting basis, but also on a basis where the other institutions can be provided with many things cheaply, and conducted at a less cost, the governor has formulated the plan as above outlined.

Expert Piano Tuner-- H. S. Soule, the Portland piano tuner, will be in Salem all this week. At Geo. C. Willis Music store.

At the Marion-- William T. Ross, president of the Western Merchants' Protective Association, of Portland, is registered at the Marion.

Attention G. A. R.-- Members of Bedgwick Post No. 10 will meet at Clough's Undertaking parlors Wednesday, April 10, at 2 p. m., to attend the funeral and burial of Comrade Andrus Lucas, Co. 1, 70th Ill. Vols. Burial in City View cemetery. D. Webster, Adjutant; G. Stutz, Commander.

A Marvelous Record-- In 1909, also in 1910 and again in 1911 Oregon Life sold more policies than any other company. March, 1912, was the biggest month that this company ever had, and in the first quarter of 1912 more policies were issued than ever before in any three months since organization. Death losses paid remain just where they were at the close of business, December 31, 1911, namely, a total only of $18,000 since organization of Oregon Life. Mr. John F. Roche, the well-known expert on life insurance, says: "Oregon Life Insurance company is an institution of which the people of the state, the directors and its policyholders may well be proud."

PRESIDENT WILL IGNORE CHARGES-- Washington, April 9.--That President Taft will ignore the charges made by Senator Dixon, of Montana, manager of the Roosevelt campaign, that the federal office holders of Kentucky have been "perniciously active" in boosting Taft's candidacy was announced here today. The president takes the stand that the proper place for Dixon's complaint is before the civil service commission, which has the power to act.

Watch Carelessness

Nobody deliberately allows his watch to fall--or intentionally abuse it. But thousands allow their watches to run, or TRY to run, when they ought to be laid up for repairs.

What is the result? Permanently injured watches. We maintain a perfectly equipped department here. It is no trick at all for us to handle all kinds of repair work.

We can start working for you almost any minute you say.

SUPREME COURT HAS GOOD CRIST

The supreme court this afternoon denied the motion for rehearing in the case of the Corvallis and Eastern Railway company against the state land board and in view of the fact that some members of the board maintain that it was a federal question involved, the case will probably be appealed to the supreme court of the United States.

This suit was instituted by the railroad company to restrain the state land board from selling some tide lands for harbor purposes on the coasts of Lincoln county. In the 79's the legislature had granted the land to the railroad company, but the legislature of 1903 passed an act repealing it, and pursuant to it the state board proceeded to sell some of the land. The supreme court upheld the grant to the railroad and in denying the rehearing today adhered to its former opinion. The lands are worth millions of dollars and practically bottle up the people of Lincoln county so far as railroad and steamship facilities are concerned.

The supreme court also denied a petition of rehearing in the case of McKee vs. the City of Portland. This suit was brought to have declared invalid an election annexing to Portland the town of St. John. The supreme court held the election invalid.

Other cases decided: N. Valley vs. Benton county, affirmed. James E. Carpenter vs. John Devlin from Multnomah county, was affirmed.

C. P. Wright vs. Richard Chilcott, from Yamhill county, decree modified.

M. A. Vellig vs. Blue Point Oyster Co., from Multnomah county, affirmed.

Frank Kierman vs. City of Portland, affirmed. This matter is the last of the Broadway Bridge cases.

She leaves a husband, one son, 6 years old, and a father and mother to mourn her death. The funeral will be held from the residence tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, and will reach the cemetery at 1 o'clock, where the funeral will be conducted by the German Society. Interment in City View cemetery.

ASK FRANCHISE TO OPERATE A HEATING PLANT

Portland, Ore., April 8--Application today was made to the council here by the Northwestern Electric company, of California, for a 25-year franchise to operate a heating, lighting and power plant in Portland. The Anglo-California Trust company, of San Francisco, is behind the applicant.

The lighting and power business of the city is in the hands of one company, the Portland Light & Power company, that concerns having obtained a monopoly recently by absorbing the Mount Hood Electric Railway company.

The application of the Northwestern company probably will be granted. It is rated as a $20,000,000 corporation.

More than 500 Elks from all parts of the state attended the dedication of the Elks' building at Eugene Monday. It is a handsome structure, two stories, 30 by 160 feet.

FIRST OF THE I. W. W. GANG IS ARRESTED HERE

The house of Mrs. M. Williams, situated about a mile north of the state fair grounds, was entered yesterday afternoon by a tramp, who stole a small sack of salt. A short time before the same man came to the house and asked if he could buy some salt. Mrs. Williams offered him a small sack, and asked him five cents for it. He began a tirade of abuse, calling her almost every name in the tramp vocabulary. He then left without the salt, and a short time after that Mrs. Williams went to the house of T. W. Steiger, a short distance away. While there she noticed a man enter the house whom she took to be one who had wanted the salt. She hastily went home, and just as she entered the back door the intruder made his escape from the front door. She picked up a revolver, which she keeps for such fellows, and began to shoot. Four shots were fired, Mrs. Williams aiming at the ground near the fleeing man. Mrs. Williams is an expert with a revolver, and could easily have brought the vagabond to the ground had she desired to. She made a hasty investigation, and found that he had not taken anything of value, other than the salt. Mr. Steiger, who was working near, heard the disturbance and rushed to the house. He secured a gun and hurried to where the escaped man was supposed to be hiding. He soon came upon him in company with two of his companions and they were taken in charge. Word was then telephoned to the sheriff's office. Sheriff Minto was just getting ready to take a prisoner to the penitentiary, so deputy Needham saw Constable Lewis, who agreed to get some one and go down to the scene of the disturbance. By this time it was 4:30 or 5 o'clock. Lewis says that he then phoned down to the Steiger residence an enquired as to the advisability of coming down after the man as was informed that the Salem police had been notified and would be out there shortly. The constable and sheriff gave the matter no further attention, but Chief Hamilton went at once to the scene and brought the man to the station. His name is Ralph Osnon and his residence appears to be 309 Davis Street, Portland. He is an I. W. W., as evidence by the card on his person at the time of his arrest.

A charge was made against him by Mrs. Williams under the state law for vagrancy. The case came up before Justice Webster this morning, when Osnon was given the minimum fine of thirty days and the sentence was suspended. He was released and was seen later about the city with two other persons, presumably his former companions. When asked as to whether they were members of the I. W. W., they replied with considerable pride that they were and that there was a considerable number of the members near the city and would likely begin their agitations here soon. They were warned by the police to leave the city immediately, but it is apparent that they mean to remain and begin their agitations. Salem will in all probability have an experience with this very undesirable class of people.

SASKATOON GOES WET BY BIG MAJORITY

Saskatoon, Sask., April 9.--Following a rise of the Saskatchewan river of 18 feet in a few hours, most of the town resembles a lake today, and the water still threatens great destruction of property. The city water plant has been submerged, and railway bridges, wharves and houses have been swept away.

LA FOLLETTE MANAGER SPEAKING IN OREGON

Roseburg, Ore., April 9.--Walter L. Houser, campaign manager for Senator La Follette, made a vigorous speech here this afternoon in furtherance of the candidacy of La Follette for the Republican presidential nomination. Houser spoke today at Gold Hill, laying stress on La Follette's splendid record, and charging that Roosevelt's candidacy was backed by Wall Street. He will speak tonight at Grants Pass.
