BOURNE'S REPLY TO SELLING

LEAVES THAT GENTLEMEN WITHOUT A LEG TO STAND ON—POINTS OUT SELLING'S INCONSISTENCY AND HIS ABILITY AS A TRIMMER, PREACHING ONE THING AND PRACTISING ANOTHER.

Senator Jonathan Bourne has opened direct fire upon Ben Selling, who is fighting for Bourne's seat in the senate. Replying to criticism by Selling that he is a non-resident of the state, and answering Selling's claim that the Portland merchant led the fight for Statement No. 1 in 1908, Bourne responds that he has been staying in Washington to attend to the business of his constituents, and declares the country would have been wrecked by the civil war if it had depended upon the "Selling character of leadership."

Bourne's counter attack on his rival is contained in an open letter sent out from Washington. It says:

Hon. Ben Selling: I am informed that early in February you sent all registered voters in Oregon a letter declaring that you represent more nearly than I the interests of the people of Oregon; that I am not a resident of Oregon, having visited the state only twice in four years and that you led the Statement No. 1 fight in Multnomah county four years ago.

I wish to cite a few facts in answer to that opening declaration of your senatorial campaign. If it were true that you led the fight for Statement No. 1 in 1908 it would be sufficient answer to say that I led the fight for Statement No. 1 in 1906, two years earlier, when the chief contest took place for the establishment of this principle of the Oregon system. However, it is not true that you led the fight in 1908.

What Record Shows.

My records show that prior to the opening of the 1908 campaign I sent $700 to Multnomah county and $700 to other parts of the state to be expended in the campaign for Statement No. 1 and I am informed that a portion of this money was expended in the effort to induce you to become a Statement No. 1 candidate, you having refused to become such a candidate until a petition had been circulated requesting you to do so and then consented reluctantly. I cannot conceive how any man can term this "leadership." If the destinies of this nation in 1861 had depended upon men who had to be drafted rather than upon those who volunteered, the union would have been overthrown just as Statement No. 1 would have been overthrown in 1908, if the outcome had depended upon your character of "leadership."

Fight Assemblyism.

In 1910 you professed to be an opponent of assemblyism, yet you supported for election to the governorship, Jay Bowerman, the leader of the assembly movement, whose election because of his assembly nomination would have been a calamity to the state. I opposed Mr. Bowerman because of his method of nomination. The people rejected him by a plurality of 4000 votes, notwithstanding the remainder of the Republican ticket was elected by a plurality averaging about 30,000. This is an official, mathematical demonstration that I, rather than you, truly represent the people of Oregon. You were one of that vacillating type of statesmen who could denounce assemblyism before the primaries and embrace it afterwards. With me, principles are more important than parties or individual candidates.

You criticize me for remaining in Washington during the recess of congress. Both the advocates and opponents of parcel post know that I remained here during the last recess in order to gather data from foreign countries on this important subject.

Complete Information.

As a result of the senate postoffice committee has the most complete information of this character ever gathered in any country. This work would not have been done if I had gone back to Oregon to look after my political interests. You profess to be an advocate of the parcel post, yet opponents of the parcel post are almost universally your supporters and you condemn the very acts of mine which are most likely to secure the enactment of a satisfactory parcel post law.

During that same recess of congress my presence here enabled me to expedite negotiations for the acquisition of the locks at Oregon City and I believe my efforts prevented litigation, which would have delayed the opening of the locks for several years. If you had been senator you would not have been here to attend to this important work.

"No State But Oregon"

In your statement in the publicity pamphlet it is said that to you "there is no state but Oregon." In that respect you and I differ. While I am primarily a senator from Oregon, I am a senator of the United States and it is my purpose so far as within my power, to know and consider the rights and interests of all the states as well as my own. Because of my interest in the entire United States I have endeavored to secure in other states the adoption of popular government laws which have so wisely enacted and so judiciously operated in the state of Oregon. Work of this national scope would not be undertaken by a man who boldly announces that he knows no state but Oregon. If my time and financial resources would permit I would gladly extend my efforts in behalf of the popular government movement beyond the sea.

Service Performed

During my service here I have secured more favorable committee assignments than have ever before been held by any Oregon senator. In conjunction with other members of the Oregon delegation I have secured the largest local appropriations the state has ever had. My work in national affairs has attracted to the state the most favorable attention it has ever enjoyed.

I will say to you as I said to Judge Lowell, that if you should be elected to the senate and should, in your five years of service accomplish as much as I have done, for Oregon, and secure as strong committee appointments and achieve as much for good government by your work in congress and out, I shall advocate your re-election upon the ground that you are entitled to it as recognition of service well performed.

Yours very truly,
JONATHAN BOURNE JR.

PLEADS GUILTY TO ASSISTING AT ESCAPE

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]
San Francisco, April 9.—A plea of guilty to the charges of jail breaking and of aiding a federal prisoner to escape was made here today before Judge Farrington in the United States district court by L. Thorne, former nurse of Dr. J. G. Lyman, the Los Angeles get-rich-quick land promoter, who aided the latter in his two sensational escapes from federal officers, both in California and Oregon. Sentence will be imposed tomorrow. Lyman is now doing time on McNeil's Island.

WOULD TRY PACKERS IN NEW JERSEY

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]
Trenton, N. J., April 9.—With the request by Prosecutor Garvan, of Jersey City, that Governor Wilson sign the necessary requisition papers, the first step toward prosecution in New Jersey of the Chicago beef barons, recently acquitted in Chicago on a similar charge, for violation of the anti-trust laws, was taken today. Governor Wilson will conduct hearings in the matter before taking action in regard to the requisitions.

GOVERNMENT WILL CONDUCT ITS LOTTERY

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]
Washington, April 9.—The belief that speculators have planned to grab valuable homesteads which the government announced would be opened within a month in the third unit of the Tieton irrigation project in Washington state, has caused the officials to withhold the actual date of the opening. People have been camping on the project since December 26, last, awaiting the word to make their selections. In order to defeat the speculators a new allotment system will be adopted. Each individual will be allowed to signify which farm unit he desired. The names of those wishing to file on "unit A" will be placed in one box, and one slip will be drawn. The lucky one will then be permitted to make a filing, and the process will be continued until the project has been filled.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 215 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results." It is quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at J. C. Perry's.

A Political Argument.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]
Portland, Or., April 10.—"Teddy is a better man than LaFollette," said George Oberst to George Schmidt. "You're another," said Schmidt. When the police stopped the bout, Schmidt had several bald spots on his head and Oberst was minus two teeth.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, 29 Dowling street, Sydney, Australia. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

M. D. Boardman, 573 W. Main St., Helena, Mont., gives an interesting account of his improved health through the use of Foley Kidney Pills. After giving a detail account of his case, he says: "I am almost 70 years old and I have spent hundreds of dollars for medicine, but find that I have received more benefit from Foley Kidney Pills, than from all other medicines. Further particulars sent on request." Red Cross Pharmacy.

California for Clark.

San Francisco, April 10.—That Champ Clark will carry every county in California at the primary election next month is the assertion made today by R. H. Dewitt, chairman of the Clark bureau in this state.
