

TO DEPORT CHINESE TONG MEN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
 San Francisco, April 22.—Deportation of all Chinese involved in the recent tong wars is planned today by Acting Chief of Police Patrick Shea, who has already begun taking steps toward this end. The federal authorities have been asked to lend their aid.

In spite of the peace pact signed Sunday and the promise of the tong men that there shall be no more trouble in the future, Shea declares that deportation is the only solution of the difficulty.

"The leaders of the tongs are the responsible ones," declared Captain Shea, "and as soon as sufficient evidence has been gathered, the case will be laid before the government and deportation of those involved in these conspiracies to commit murder asked for."

To Aid the Victims.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
 San Francisco, April 22.—Next Friday—"Titanic Fund Day"—nearly 500 motion picture and vaudeville houses here are planning to devote their receipts to the benefit of the survivors of the lost liner.

Fell 200 Feet.

Livermore, Cal., April 22.—Sticking to his saddle through a 200-foot fall to the bottom of a gulch, William Blanch lay for hours pinned beneath his horse's dead body. "It shook me up a bit," he admitted when rescued.

Marshfield has the road building fever.

MARGARET TOSSED THE FIRST BALL

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
 Tacoma, April 22.—Setting a precedent in history, Miss Margaret Burns, a petite 18-year-old girl, yesterday opened the Northwestern league season here in the game with Vancouver and Tacoma by pitching the first ball. In fact, she pitched four of them. DeMaggio, Vancouver's left fielder was duly called out by Umpire Vanhaltred. She was loudly cheered and the applause was thunderous when Manager Mike Lynch presented her with a huge bouquet in the middle of the diamond.

X-RAYS AND SMILES.

Senator Bourne sacrificed his nomination in experimenting with a theory. He had somehow imbibed the idea that the American people would endorse a man just because he had proved competent and industrious. He has demonstrated the fallacy of the theory.

Multnomah county somehow failed to see the presidential primary through the Oregonian's spectacles and President Taft was badly beaten.

Bob La Follette is certainly a vote getter, must be his talk for it isn't his looks.

Is the corrupt practice act of no more force than that of the auto speed laws? Was it made to be enforced, or just to keep the law makers on their job 40 days? The speed laws are violated every minute of the day.

day, and the election laws, whenever the opportunity and necessity require.

It is claimed that Guggenheim, Astor and others of those on the Titanic dressed in evening clothes and said they would "go down like gentlemen." The story is probably made of whole cloth; but it listens good.

If the settlement of the selection of candidates would also remove the pictures of the whole gang from the landscape, it might be conducive to harmony and add much to the beauty of the scenery.

Joe Morton is a philosopher. He says his troubles politically are now over, while those of Selling and Lane have just begun.

THE ROUND-UP

N. J. Sinnott is nominated for congress in the second district, and a mighty good man, too.

W. B. Hollingsworth, defeated candidate for sheriff in Multnomah county, has the distinction of being the first to come out and "Nail a campaign lie." He used a big hammer on the job.

It is estimated that 12,000 people saw the big display of "Made in Oregon" goods at Albany last week.

Woodrow Wilson carried Oregon for the democratic presidential nomination, and lots of democrats say he will repeat the trick in November.

A two-foot fall of snow at Ontario election day made the vote light and delayed news of the election results.

A sale of 125,000 pounds of wool was made at Arlington Saturday. The price is not known, but is said to be the best for some time.

The gasoline schooner Osprey, which went on the sand spit at Marshfield, was gotten off Saturday, unharmed.

Robert Taylor, an S. P. employe, got his foot caught in a frog while coupling cars at Roseburg Saturday, and was instantly killed.

No clues have yet been found as to the murderers of Evans at Marshfield.

SALEM HEIGHTS LEAGUE MEETS TUESDAY NIGHT

The Salem Heights Development league will hold its annual entertainment Tuesday, April 23, 1912, in its new hall, to which the public is invited. There will be a literary and musical program, also address by Col. E. Hofer and Prof. Walter M. Smith, county school superintendent.

The young ladies will serve ice cream. Supper will be served free of charge. All ladies will please bring well filled baskets.

A FINE PIECE OF ROAD BUILDING

Whoever is responsible for the fine piece of road building north of Salem on the Chemawa road deserves a great deal of credit. The road is built on scientific principles and is the finest piece of work ever done in the vicinity of Salem. It has perfect drainage and will be good for years. This was formerly one of the roughest pieces of road in the county.

Card from Mr. Morton.

To the Editor of the Capital Journal and the People of Marion County and State of Oregon:

The primary nominating election is past and some of the people, as usual, have been surprised and perhaps some candidates disappointed—but let us hope for the best.

For myself, can say that I feel that I have carried on my campaign entirely within the law as written on our statute books and have no regrets.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to all my friends who gave me their support for the nomination for U. S. senator.

The fight for progress is not yet finished and it behooves us to carry the battle forward like men and do those things which make for advancement and prosperity of all the people.

Yours truly,
J. W. MORTON,
