THE CAPITAL JOURNAL

THE CAPITAl JOURNAL

A HITCH IN THE CONTRACT FOR HEATING

In an attempt to save their heating bill this winter, the bids for heating through the winter season in the city of the judgment of Dr. J. B. Chamberlin, engineer of the Water Works, was made by the Board of Public Service and the Board of Public Safety of the city of New York, in the winter season of 1897, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898, to be supplied to the city of New York, for the ensuing winter season of 1898.