TESTIMONY IS PRETTY TOUGH
ON ARCHBALD

Washington, May 8.--The Archbald investigation was taken up again this morning. Judge Archbald and his two sons attended the hearing. The judge refused to comment on the charges against him.

Chairman Clayton announced that Attorney Worthington, representing Judge Archbald, will be allowed to cross-examine the witnesses.

Edward Williams, of Scranton, Pa., testified that Judge Archbald had a half interest in an option on a pile of culm coal belonging to the Erie railroad, which road was involved in cases then pending before the commerce court. He declared that the judge gave him a letter of recommendation to negotiate with the Erie road, with the understanding that Archbald was to get a half interest in the option.

Judge Archbald furnished no money for the deal, the witness said. He testified that he later tried to sell his property for $35,000.

Williams testified that he took a promissory note of $500, which Archbald had signed and went to C. C. Boland, of Scranton, Pa., to discount it. He said that he knew Boland was a defendant before Judge Archbald, "but did not think anything of it."

The witness admitted that after a certain demurrer had been decided against Boland, he told Boland the case might have gone differently if he had discounted Archbald's note. Williams said he told Judge Archbald that he intended to get Boland to discount the note.

LOOKS LIKE THE FELLOW WAS LYING

Chicago, May 8.--The man recently operated on in a hospital here for aphasia, who claims to be George Kimmell, of Niles, Mich., who was believed to have been killed in an Oregon forest, received the newspaper reporters today. He declared Mrs. Kimmell, mother of the long missing man, had recognized him privately as her son but said she could not afford to recognize him in public because this would mean a refund to an insurance company of the benefit paid at Kimmell's supposed death.

Fish Prices Go Up. Los Angeles, May 8.--Because of a shortage of fish along the Southern California coast, wholesale prices have taken a jump of nearly 50 per cent within the past few days, and may go higher.

Fishermen who have been in the channel for 30 years say the only reason they can give for the shortage is that tugs fishing with seines a mile long have destroyed many small fish and much spawn.

Wear Ever-- Aluminum utensils sold at special prices this week. Buren & Hamilton.

Governor Will Speak-- At the Board of Trade meeting tonight Governor West will be present and take part in the good roads discussion.

A Fist Fight-- A warrant was sworn out in justice court yesterday by a man of the name of Evans for Thomas Dutton, who lives some distance north of the city near South Prairie. Dutton seemed to be the aggressor in a fist fight, which resulted in the warrant for assault. A fine of $20 was imposed by Judge Webster, which the defendant promptly paid.

Track Laying Resumed-- After a suspension of about 10 days, on account of the strike and the conditions of the weather making the grade soft, track laying on the Salem-Albany extension of the Oregon Electric railway was resumed yesterday forenoon. A crew of 80 men, almost a full crew, began work, and everything moved off all right. The number of strikers in the city is gradually being reduced, the men finding work at other occupations, and some of them leaving the city. The I. W. W. held nightly meetings on the streets and in the hall on the corner of Commercial and Center streets, where good order prevailed, and no trouble is anticipated.

Davenport Funeral Tuesday-- Several reports have been made as to the burial of the body of the late Homer C. Davenport. It is now definitely settled that he will be buried at Silverton, the funeral to take place next Monday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The body was shipped from New York City on Tuesday of this week. Homer C. Davenport, the oldest son of the famous cartoonist, will accompany the body west.

Visitors from Canada-- Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carter, of Guelph, Canada, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lampert. They have been visiting the Northwest Coast for some time and will soon go to California.

BRYAN ACCUSES
HARMON

Findlay, Ohio, May 8.--William J. Bryan sprung a big sensation here this afternoon when he directly charged that Judson Harmon's friends had "tried to purchase the delegates instructed for Bryan in 1908." Bryan said that if Harmon denies that such an offer was made, he will produce a letter in which Harmon and his friends made the offer. It is understood that a resident of Cincinnati wrote the letter.

Harmon Denies. Columbus, Ohio, May 8.--Flat denial of charges made at Findlay today by William J. Bryan that friends of Governor Judson Harmon had "tried to purchase delegates instructed for him (Bryan) in 1908" was voiced here this afternoon by the Ohio governor. Harmon said: "I deny emphatically that any one authorized to act in my behalf or with my knowledge or consent, offered to purchase delegates in 1908 or at any other time."

UNITE WITH METHODIST CHURCH SOUTH

Minneapolis, May 8.--By a rising vote here today, the quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church declared in favor of union with the Methodist church South. While the delegates stood, Bishop Warren led in prayer of thanks. The adoption of the union resolution is believed to end the possibility of a negro bishop being elected.

LOOKING GIFT HORSE
IN MOUTH

San Francisco, May 8.--Testimony of the early life of the late Caroline H. Bainbridge, in which she is alleged to have amassed her fortune of $94,575 in the underworld of Portland, Or., is being given in the superior court here today by Mrs. Mary J. Mayfield, niece of the deceased, in contesting the woman's will, which leaves a good part of the wealth to priests, judges, lawyers and charitable institutions, and to Mrs. Mayfield only $1000.

During the latter years of her life Caroline Bainbridge owned and conducted the Oregon hotel here.

The residuary legatee is Eugene Francis McCarthy, who gets $65,000 by the terms of the will. Mrs. Mayfield claims McCarthy held undue influence over the woman, who was 73 years old at the time of death, and that the woman was of unsound mind owing to excessive use of intoxicants. The will was made out five days before death.

Among those remembered in the will are Douglass Ladd, hotel clerk, Portland; $1000; former Superior Judge Seneca Smith, Portland, $1000; Superior Judge John B. Cleland, Portland, $2000; Firemans Relief Fund Portland, $2000; Grand Lodge of Masons, Oregon, $500; Roman Catholic orphan asylum, Beaverton, Or., $1000, and many others.

All bequests were made because of some service rendered the deceased or because of personal admiration or approval on her part.

CAPTURE A GANG OF WIRE TAPPERS

Alan, Idaho, May 8.--A gang of wire tappers, alleged to have been operating a telegraph station and tipping winners of the Alan races through a complete system of pool rooms throughout the country was captured two miles from the track today. It is as yet impossible to obtain the names of the alleged wire tappers.

According to officers of the racing association, the gang has cleaned up a large amount of money.

NEW TODAY. ANIMALS NOT BADLY TREATED. The humane officer was advised that there were being worked at the excavation of the state library and supreme court building, on the state house grounds, a horse that was not suitable for such work. The officer visited said place and observed the work of the team for an hour, and while there are teams used that are not suitable for that kind of work, he saw no cruelty or any signs of cruelty to said horses. The work was not heavy only for two or three teams, which were good teams. But the officers would like to protest against any two horses pulling a load of sand containing two yards, especially up the first bench from the river.
