Hart Schaffner & Marx
clothes. They've got a style about them that is distinctive. But they've got something else quite as important—a quality of materials and tailoring that keeps the style looking stylish after long wear. Such clothes don't go out of shape the way most clothes do.

Let us show you the splendid summer models.

New Shirts, Neckwear, Hats, Underwear and all the other togs.

The House of Quality H.W. & M.G. Meyers INCORPORATED GOOD GOODS of Satisfaction

CITY NEWS.

Wear-Ever—Aluminum, the kind that satisfies the cook, Buren & Hamilton.

Silver Blend Coffee—The classy beverage for particular people. Phone Lockwood, agent Grand Union Tea Co., 216 N. Commercial street.

Free Tickets—Any boy or girl under 15 years of age can learn how to get a free ticket to the moving picture show by calling at John H. Scott's office, over the Chicago store. 5-7-1f

Bought K. of P. Lot—Dr. H. L. Steeves yesterday purchased the K. of P. lot at Church and Chemeketa streets, and will erect an apartment house thereon sometime this year. The price paid was $3,250, which is $1,250 more than the lodge paid for the lot about 18 months ago.

Davenport Funeral Monday—Inadvertently yesterday a headline fixed the time for the Davenport funeral at next Tuesday, while the article itself said it would be held on Monday. According to the dispatches the body was shipped from New York, Tuesday, and the funeral will be held at Silverton, Monday.

Notice—As bills and other debts have been contracted, in my name against my hop yard (known as the Wing Sing's yard), at Brown's Island, without having been authorized by me, I hereby notify the public that I will not be responsible for any purchase or other contracts unless same are authorized in writing by me. Dated at Salem, Ore., May 8, 1912. Seld Back, 305 First street, Portland, Ore. 5-7-6f

Aluminum Utensils at Special—Prices. This week only. Buren & Hamilton.

Grants Requisition—Governor West yesterday at the request of District Attorney Cameron, of Multnomah county, issued a requisition upon the governor of California for the return to this state of George Troyer. Troyer is wanted for forgery. He was at the time of the commission of the offense in the employ of the Oregon Barbers Supply company.

Petition for Rehearing—Judge Slater has finished his petition for a rehearing in the U. of O. appropriation case, but as the supreme court is in Pendleton, and will not be back for nearly two weeks, the petition has not been filed, and the Judge warily refuses to give any information as to its nature and contents. He doesn't care to give any free advice to his friends, the enemy.

Ready to Build Bridge—Contractors who will build the bridge across the Willamette for the Salem, Falls City & Western, have set up their tents on the West Side and already have quite a quantity of timber and one carload of steel for the bridge, on the ground. So far as known, no settlement of the matter of the approach has been made, that is as to the grade and its proposed raise of four feet, but this will have to be arranged and will be, as the bridge must be built.

WH Stop Cars—Pursuant to a request made by the Railroad Commission, the Portland Railway, Light & Power company has agreed to stop its cars at the station of Ramapo, Portland, and to issue a timetable by May 15.

Wear-Ever—Aluminum utensils at special prices. See demonstration now on. Buren & Hamilton.

Must Switch Cars—Upon receiving complaint from Engineer Murphy, who is connected with the construction of the Eastern Oregon asylum, that the Oregon-Washington Railroad company declined to switch cars of the Northern Pacific being used by Olson & Johnson, the contractors for the institution, the Railroad Commission asked the company to do so, and it has agreed.

Fine String of Bass—Sam Minner and Art Artus were showing a fine string of black bass to their friends today, being the result of a forenoon's fishing in the old river channel above the city. They used minnows for bait, securing 12 fine fish, weighing in the aggregate 20 1/2 pounds.

Examinations Today—The final examinations for the eighth grade pupils of the various schools of the county are being held today and will be concluded tomorrow. In all there are about 300 pupils to take this examination. As soon as the work is finished tomorrow or immediately after the papers will be forwarded to the county superintendent, to be graded by him and the four assistants usually detailed for this work.

The Spa Is Elegant—The new soda fountain having been installed and the other improvements being completed, The Spa held an opening yesterday and last night that was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all. The Peerless orchestra was in attendance and rendered excellent music. The proprietors presented each lady attending with a carnation, it requiring over 400 to supply the demands. The management of this popular resort have expended $4000 in improvements during the last two months, which makes this the most elegantly equipped in the city, and as fine as can be found anywhere.

Stole a Bicycle—The bicycle thief is still at work in Salem. The latest to lose a wheel is Ralph Glover, who left his machine in pasture, so to speak, on the front porch of his house, Tuesday night, instead of chaining it up in the cellar, and Wednesday morning it was elsewhere. As it could not stray, it's a dead shot that it was stolen. The officers are investigating, and if the thief is caught, he should be made to ride the wheel up a steep hill, and carry it down, for 90 days—with grace.

St. Paul Store Sold—The general merchandise store of Gearin Bros., at St. Paul, has been sold to O. and F. A. Becker, of that locality. The new proprietors have taken charge of the store, and will conduct it as before at the same location.

Fine Auto Display—The largest display of autos ever seen in Salem will be at the automobile show of the E. M. F. Sales Co., 246 South Commercial street, on the 10th, 11th, 13th and 14th of this month. There will also be on display a cut-out chassis of a Flanders "20," so that every moving part can be seen running. They will also have the famous Seattle-to-Hazelton car on display. The show will be fine, and it will be of great interest to all.

Killed a Big Cougar—John Russell, of Silver Creek Falls, was in the clerk's office today to claim the reward for killing a cougar, or mountain lion. The pelt of the animal, which was 7 1/2 feet from tip to tip, was a fine one. Mr. Russell will have it mounted, as, under the law, after making certain marks on the pelt, it may be returned to the one presenting it.

SEVEN PLEASURE HUNTERS DROWNED IN LAKE
(UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.)
Waukegan, Ill., May 9.—Finding of the body of Mrs. Louise Hansen floating in Fox lake today confirmed the fear that a boating party of seven perished in a storm on the lake last night. The other bodies have not been found, and it is believed they became entangled in the rigging and sank with the boat. The party were taking a trip in a launch. Twenty minutes after they started, cries for help were heard. A number of rowboats put off in the direction of the cries, but were unable to locate the launch. J. E. SAYS DIXON IS THE FRIEND OF THE TRUSTS
(UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.)
Missoula, Mont., May 9.—Angered by newspaper attacks made on him, State Senator Ed. Hanlon, who six years ago managed the campaign of United States Senator Dixon, of Montana, campaign manager of Colonel Roosevelt, today charged that Dixon's senatorial campaign was financed by the Amalgamated Copper company. Donlon declared that an overdraft for Senator Dixon's campaign expenses was paid by officials of the copper trust, and that Senator Dixon, throughout his term in the senate, has been the representative of the trust in Montana.
