THE INSIDE HISTORY.

perate convicts were made "honor men," and when he voiced disapproval, his judgment was ignored. When West launched his convict road policy, James was not consulted. When the crew of convicts were sent to Medford, he said nothing; but when seven or eight of them were returned at the expense of the state, he demurred. When the price of the reward for three of them who escaped, was piled up against his maintenance fund, he demurred again. When he found inroads being made up on this fund for raiment worn out by convicts at work on the boulevard in the city, he did not like it, and did not think it "good business." When Governor West ordered hot cakes and syrup and butter added to the regular meals at the penitentiary he also did not like it and saw visions of an increasing deficiency. When Governor West began building the boulevard to connect the different state institutions, he borrowed 40 mules from Porter Bros. These mules were put to work at building the boulevard and incidentally to eating oats belonging to the penitentiary. The result was when the seeding season came on, the superintendent had to purchase oats, and further that he was compelled later to feed the teams at the penitentiary hay, rather than incur the expense of buying oats for them. All this was not to the liking of James and again he saw increasing deficiencies under an administration pledged to have none, and which pledge he was trying to fulfill.

Shortly after his inauguration, the governor established the honor system almost simultaneously with it and being an ingredient of it, there was established a salary system for convicts. Convicts working at the brickyard, and about the institutions were paid 25 cents a day. The system was finally extended to the stove foundry and James directed to turn over 25 per cent of the salary earned each day by the convicts to them. Ignorant of the law, he at first complied, but upon learning that the statute provided that all compensation received for leased convict labor must be turned over to the state treasurer, he refused to follow instructions.

In the unprogressive but stable past, gardens had been maintained about the penitentiary to supply the institution. With the coming of spring James set about to plant the garden, but his plans were dissipated by orders from West to the effect that they would be converted into laws. James protested, but the governor ordered seed at the cost of over $100 and the gardens became lawns. If these lawns are to be preserved, the installation of a costly irrigation system must be installed.

Now James was an appointee of West. For awhile he passed by the protests, the objections and the demurring of James, but every time he put down a mark in his little red book against him. Finally there arrived a day of reckoning and the governor concluded to sacrifice him on the altar of economy. The governor had declared that there should be no deficiencies under his administration.

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Where the finest biscuit, cake, hot-breads, crusts or puddings are required Royal is indispensable.

Royal is equally valuable in the preparation of plain, substantial, every-day foods, for all occasions.

To himself from time to time he had declared that there ought not to be at the head of the penitentiary a superintendent in the person of James. After a while he figured it out that with economy as the reason he could with a few strokes of the pen get rid of James and at the same time save the penitentiary from a deficiency, and he did the first and is now attempting to do the second. James, Friends assert, had laid his plans to carry the institution through without a deficiency and had been allowed to pursue them, would have done so. Even with the present inroads made upon the maintenance fund for one reason or another, he would have still been able to carry the institution through with a $10,000 deficiency, it is asserted. James has turned the institution over to Acting Superintendent Curtis and gone to Newport for a vacation preparatory to entering business elsewhere in the state. Figuratively speaking, Curtis is superintendent of the institution but literally speaking, Governor West is the superintendent, as he was when James was there, as a mere figurehead.

UNDER JUDGE'S DECISION.

worse and of greater importance than was the 'Dred Scott' decision, made prior to the civil war. "Why, if this decision is upheld, it means that every member of the Socialist party may be disfranchised and declared an outlaw. Not only this but it means that every man who favors changing the constitution in any way becomes an outlaw."

ENDS INDIGESTION STOMACH MISERY OR THE DYSPEPSIA

Every family here ought to keep some Diapepsin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin, and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, distension or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at your drug store, waiting for you. These large 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin contain more than sufficient to cure any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach trouble.

Away With Catarrh A Filthy Disease

A Common Sense Treatment Quickly Relieves All Distressing Symptoms.

If you have any symptoms of catarrh, such as stuffed up feeling in the head, profuse discharge from the nose, phlegm in the throat, causing hawking and spitting, dull pain in the head, or ringing in the ears, just anoint the nostrils or rub the throat or chest with a little Ely's Cream Balm, and see how quickly you will get relief. In just a few minutes you will feel your head clearing, and after using the Balm for a day or so, the nasty discharge will be checked, the pain, soreness and fever will be gone, and you will no longer be offensive to yourself and friends by your constant hawking, spitting and blowing. Shake off the grip of catarrh before it impairs your sense of taste, smell and hearing and poisons your whole system. In a short time you can be cured of this distressing disease by using Ely's Cream Balm.

This healing, antiseptic Balm does not fool you with short, deceptive relief, but completely overcomes the disease. It clears the nose, head and throat of all the rank poison, soothes and strengthens the raw, sore membranes, and makes you proof against catarrh. One application will convince you, and a fifty-cent bottle will generally effect a complete cure. Get it from your druggist and start the treatment at once. Special Agent J. C. Perry.

The skeleton of a prehistorical man has been found near Ellenburg. The upper jaw had two rows of teeth, which shows reckless extravagance, as one row was no account with no teeth opposite them.

"COMPLEXION SECRETS OF AN ACTRESS"

In a recently issued volume bearing the above title, the author says: "Continuous use of grease paints, rouge and the like, had ruined my complexion. My skin was colorless, wrinkled, flabby, coarse and punctured with large pores. In England I heard of the virtues of mercollized wax; my first experience with this marvelous substance convinced me it was more valuable than all cosmetics combined. Now whenever my complexion begins to go wrong, I get an ounce of mercollized wax at the nearest drug store, spread on a thin layer of it before retiring, washing it off next morning. The wax, after a few such treatments, seems literally to absorb the worn-out cuticle, when a brighter, healthier, younger-looking skin appears. "For the enlarged pores, wrinkles and flabbiness, I began using a solution of axolite, once ounce, dissolved in a half pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in this soon relieved the condition most wonderfully."
