HOME FOR STRAY ANIMALS.

Here is some news that stamps the city of Tacoma as a progressive community.

Tacoma this summer will have the only real home for stray animals on the coast.

For some months William S. Van Voris has been raising money by popular subscription, and all but a small part of the amount necessary has been subscribed.

Plans have been gone over and suitable ones selected and an estimate made of the cost.

There will be sanitary kennels, steam-heated, with steel cages and cement floors.

Other compartments will be arranged for the caring of cats and other animals.

Van Voris says he has in view several tracts on which such a home can be erected.

As soon as the entire subscription is raised the city will be asked to contribute.

The Tacoma Humane Society will join with the city for the purpose of caring for the animals.

In Eastern cities where large, airy kennels are kept up a great part of the expense is paid by the sale of animals picked up on the streets.

WHY DEFY THE LAW?

The old Oregon machine is moving heaven and earth to keep their hold on federal pap.

They were turned down by the people who carried Oregon for a progressive candidate for president three to one against Taft.

With the Oregon delegation instructed for Roosevelt the machine wants the Taft national committeeman.

That is to keep men in office in Oregon who will do the dirty work of the machine.

Will the Bourbons never learn?

Can they not see that the people are determined to have a new order of things?

There is not a federal office in Oregon which could not be conducted a great deal cheaper than it is.

Most of them are sinecures.

A sinecure is a soft snap where an official has nothing to do but draw his pay.

The Oregonian publishes as very important news that National Committeeman Williams starts East Tuesday.

It also announces that nothing will be done for some time about reappointing federal officials.

That is all the machine can think of in connection with national politics.

Who is to get the plums, and how can the plums be made to contain more salaried sweetness.

In the meantime Roosevelt goes on battering down the walls of professional officialism.

He is going to be nominated and elected by the biggest majority any man ever received who ran for the presidency.

The foolish Oregon machine will continue to go on its career of defying the law and opposing the popular will.

Well, it will only help the day of their doom, and when they are cleaned out they will go hide, hair and tail.

OLD TURNER WAKING UP.

From the sleep of half a century the good old town of Turner is waking up.

The establishment of a bank there a year ago was the starter of things upward.

Not satisfied with being a mere place for holding an annual campmeeting Turner aspires.

A new lumber yard has been opened up by the Wassom Bros., of Salem, two enterprising men.

Then Simpson, one of the best rustlers in Salem, has located there, and is pushing things.

The mayor and city council are progressive, and ready to push anything for the good of the town.

There is even talk of paving the principal street with something besides water and cow droppings.

A commercial club has been organized, and there is talk of an electric railroad to Salem.

The Welch line has two surveys, one past the Reform School and one via the Red Hills.

Watch old Turner come to the front, and The Capital Journal will help jar loose.

REDUCING TAXPAYERS' EXPENSES

SALARIES AND PERQUISITES OF OFFICIALS WHO ARE TO LIGHTEN THE BURDENS OF THE PEOPLE—TAXPAYERS NOT REPRESENTED IN THE MOVEMENT.

The big stunt pulled off at the state house Saturday does not mean much to the people. There was nothing done to put the Corvallis and Eugene institutions on a more business-like basis, where any of those who enjoy the special privileges of higher education will pay for what they get. Secretary of State Ben Olcott did not participate in the proceedings, beyond coming in at the close and giving all the glad hand, as is becoming to any candidate.

Two Committees Formed. Governor West, as chairman, appointed two committees, which will work largely toward the future of the two schools. One, a committee of five, is composed of Governor West, Judge Robert S. Bean, Judge R. K. Weatherford, E. E. Wilson and A. A. Dixon. The purpose of this committee will be to evolve details of a plan for determining the nature of securing revenue on a mileage basis. The entire joint board reached the conclusion that this is the best revenue-raising plan that can be devised for the two schools.

The other committee will be known as the "general efficiency committee." This committee will be composed of three members from each board and will be permanent in its character and may be called together at any time. The object of the committee will be to develop the general welfare of both institutions. The governor appointed as members of this committee B. F. Irvine, Senator Vanderhellen and C. E. Spencer, from the O. A. C. regents, and J. C. Alsworth, S. H. Friendly and M. A. Miller as members from the University board of regents.

Want Bigger Tax.

They might be called the committee of over-reachers. They descended on the last legislature, the Assembly of old whom Byron compared to the wolves coming down on the sheep, and grabbed about a million of the taxpayers' money for so-called higher education. Twenty-five gentlemen spent the day at Salem very pleasantly, ate good meals at the Marion, had the pleasure of shaking hands with the state officials, and after hobnobbing in the supreme court rooms for a few hours, left for their homes having done nothing but appoint two committees to further consider how as large a tax as possible might be wrung out of the people in the future. It was favored by the tax experts that about four mills would give the two big schools at Eugene and Corvallis about $250,000 each per annum, and an increasing amount each year. Not a word was said about economy or retrenchment, but Mr. Alderman wanted larger appropriations for printing.

Friendly Suit Comes Up.

A resolution was adopted by the board of regents, in which the governor is requested to take steps toward bringing the Friendly suit to a hearing on its merits. Governor West made the suggestion to the regents that they withdraw one of the appropriations for $175,000 and allow the other to go before the people, stating there was a chance for one of the appropriation bills to carry while opportunities for either to carry would be reduced to the minimum if both were allowed to go before the voters.

President Campbell expressed the belief that both of the bills would carry. Senator Miller, of Lebanon, declared that neither of them would carry in any county in the state if both went on the ballot.

Irvine Peeped Economy.

Before adjournment B. Frank Irvine, who used to make a living running a country paper at Corvallis, and knows a little of the way people have to dig to earn real money by working, suggested that consolidation of these schools was in the air, and there should be a standing committee on what might be done to ameliorate the condition of the taxpayer in the way of cutting out duplication. It fell with a dull sickening thud, and Judge Bean seconded his motion. It is expected that the commission of Higher Curriculum, or Tarantulum, or Curricomb, created a few years ago, might have had something to do with that, but it never appeared. Below is a list of the gentlemen who met to relieve the taxpayers, and the position each holds and the salary he draws. The regents get on an average about $150 per annum for their expenses and mileage. Some serve for nothing, and some do not even attend the meetings of these august bodies. The taxpayer is not very strongly represented on these administrative bodies of the gentlemen who expend the people's millions.

The Official Aggregation.

State Superintendent Alderman, L. R., regent of U. of O.	$3,000
Treasurer O. A. C. Irvine, B. F.	600
Governor West, Oswald, regent U. of O. and O. A. C.	5,300
Merchant, Friendly, Sam, U. of O. regent	150
Secretary regents, Wilson E. E., regent of O. A. C.	360
Senator, Hawley, Kirk, regent O. A. C.	270
Senator, Van der Hellen, regent O. A. C.	270
Master State Grange, Spence, C. E., regent O. A. C.	150
President O. A. C., Kerr, W. J., president O. A. C.	5,000
Registrar Johnson, Louis, U. of O.	150
President, Campbell, P. L., president U. of O.	4,000
Editor Guard, Fisher, C. H., regent U. of O.	150
U. S. Judge, Bean, R. S., regent U. of O.	6,150
Circuit Judge, Hamilton, J., regent U. of O.	3,150
Railroad Attorney, Weatherford, J. K., regent O. A. C.	150
Circuit Judge, Smith, William, regent U. of O.	3,150
Senator, Miller, M. A., regent U. of O.	270
Attorney, Dolph, C. A., regent U. of O.	150
Secretary of State, Olcott, Ben W., regent U. of O.	5,000
State Official, Galloway, C. V., tax commission	2,500
State Official, Starr, C. L., secretary tax commission	1,500
Total salaries	$43,320

The above does not represent all that the gentlemen receive whose united efforts are to solve the problem of cutting down the burden of expenses of the state in the matter of education. Mr. Alderman gets an allowance for traveling expenses, and so do many of the others. Their mileage and hotel bills are paid by the state in many cases, and several of them are serving on other committees and commissions that net them something.

Tribute to the Late Homer Davenport.

To the Editor of the Spokesman-Review: Homer Davenport was a very warm personal friend of mine and only a few weeks ago I entertained him and a bunch of his friends at the Salinasgund club. I am sending this poem to the American and a copy to you and trust you will run it.

Forever Sacred to the Memory of Homer Calvin Davenport.

Let us forget "Manila bay,"
"Their monument," "the trust,"
I place this little crude bouquet
Above his sacred dust,
And for the friends who loved him best,
Who cannot gather here,
From north and south, from east and west,
I drop a God-sent tear.

We loved him for his strenuousness,
His hate of false pretense,
Simplicity and candor,
And manly self-defense.

The men he cartooned loved him best,
They recognized the spark,
Like Teddy in the woolly west
And "Hanna's" mark.

He loved God's masters everywhere,
Observed the golden rule,
He learned his lessons on the square,
In nature's classic school,
And I a bronco wayward stray,
"Tis all that I can do.

To send my heart in this bouquet,
And moist with heaven's brew,
J. W. CRAWFORD,
"Captain Jack."

For his pards and friends out west,
May 3, 1912.

Almost a Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holmclaw, Clarendon, Texas, was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by 10 bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 213 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Good Spring Tonic

"We have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for a spring tonic and as a blood purifier. Last spring I was not well at all. When I went to bed I was tired and nervous and could not sleep well, in the morning I would feel twice as tired; my mother got a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took. I felt like a new person when I had finished the bottle. We always have some of Hood's medicines in the house." Hilvey Roselle, Marinette, Wis. There is no "just as good" medicine. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

Veterans to Visit School.

The following committees of veterans of the Civil War have been appointed by Commander Stolz, of Sedgwick Post, G. A. R., to visit the several schools of Salem on Friday afternoon preceding Memorial Day, to wit, May 24, 1912:

High school—D. J. Goode, J. W. Bovee and Dr. D. F. Lane.

Garfield school—Rev. J. A. Cruzon, James Batchelor and J. W. Pratt.

North School—T. Remington, Seth Munger and J. Marsh.

Englewood school—E. C. Mills and H. Wolf.

East school—F. A. Thompson, J. E. Ross and John Bartell.

Park school—W. A. Byars, R. M. Harris and R. C. Holley.

Lincoln school—Thos. Ratcliff, R. M. Gearhart and D. M. Wilson.

Sacred Heart Academy—F. Kura, J. F. Goode and W. D. Pettigill.

Indian school—J. P. Robertson, A. W. Drager and Wm. M. Robinson.

The comrades of the above committees are not only permitted to, but are earnestly urged to take any and all unassigned comrades they may persuade to do so, to accompany them in their visit to their respective schools.

The idea is to have as many of the old soldiers visit the schools as possible. The children of the schools will furnish the entertainment, and the veterans the inspiration thereof.

VICTORY FOR BITULITHIC PAVEMENT

Action of Newberg in Selecting This Material for Hard Surfacing Her Streets is Likewise Regarded as a Victory for Property Owners.

Newberg, Ore., May, 1912. The contract for paving the streets of Newberg was awarded by the city council last night, bitulithic being the material selected. The decision of the council was practically unanimous as to the material to be used, as the mayor and council, as well as the committee representing the property owners, have had the matter under consideration for some time, and have thoroughly investigated the claims made by the various paving companies as to the merits of the different materials proposed.

Though paving propositions, slightly cheaper as to initial expense, were submitted, it was considered practical to select the more durable bitulithic, owing to the great saving made possible in the maintenance, as this material lasts for years without the necessity for repairs.

General satisfaction is felt regarding the action of the council in the selection of paving material, a natural result of the unanimous action of the property owners in signing the petitions that have been circulated in favor of bitulithic, and the work of paving, which will begin at once, is said to be but the forerunner of much improvement which will take place here this spring.

There never was a time when people appreciated the real merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy more than now. This is shown by the increase in sales and voluntary testimonials from persons who have been cured by it. If you or your children are troubled with a cough or cold, give it a trial and become acquainted with its good qualities. For sale by all dealers.
