SAN DIEGO INDUSTRIAL TROUBLES

Tackled by Governor Johnson, of California--He Stands By Weinstock and Sends the Attorney-General.

TO TACKLE THE BIG JOB

Condemns Administration of Laws by Vigilantes or an Extra-Judicial Body--Humblest Citizen Whose Rights Have Been Outraged Shall Have the Protection of the State Government--Will Investigate the I. W. W. Methods and Problems in All Parts of the State.

Sacramento, Cal., May 21.—Governor Johnson this morning issued a statement that he has directed the state attorney general to proceed to San Diego—"that justice may be done that the law may be enforced, and that a solution of the problem confronting San Diego may be found."

Commenting on his order, Governor Johnson today said to the United Press:

"From all over the state have come to me appeals to investigate the San Diego situation, and these were, in most instances, from others than the I. W. W.'s. I asked Mr. Harris Weinstock if he would not, in behalf of the state, go to San Diego and ascertain the truth. I know Mr. Weinstock to be cool and calm and judicial in temperament with a rare agility and courage. He accepted the mission and without compensation, went in behalf of the state of California to San Diego investigated in his usual careful, pain taking and just fashion, and made the report which has been published.

"The problem presented is more than local. The same difficulties that beset San Diego from the I. W. W.'s may come to any community in the state in the future, and I wished to learn the facts concerning the I. W. W. and its propaganda, as well as to investigate the alleged acts of cruelty and lawlessness in San Diego, so that we might properly and effectively deal with the problem hereafter, and so that the mistake made in one community in dealing with the problem there should not be repeated in other communities of the state.

"Beyond this, however anarchistic the I. W. W.'s might be, no organized government can tolerate administration of law by vigilantes, or by an extra-judicial body.

"When Mr. Weinstock went to San Diego I could not understand why any right-thinking person should object to the government of the state ascertaining the truth concerning alleged illegal practices or injustice, and I could not understand why a man of Mr. Weinstock's standing and character should himself, as well as the state, be subjected to vilification and abuse while merely endeavoring to investigate the facts. Of course, for any official to say that politics entered into such an investigation is worse than silly—it is a demonstration of ineptness.

"Since Mr. Weinstock's return various other matters have been submitted to me, and I am convinced that Mr. Weinstock's report is accurate. Of course, I have no sympathy with the propaganda of the I. W. W. Organized society or government will be impossible if the teachings of that organization be carried into effect, but no organization of society or government can suffer for one instant a denial of the protection of the laws by any locality to any man. If men belonging to the I. W. W., or any other organization, are guilty of infractions of the law, punish them; if the laws are inadequate to meet the present emergency, then gladly will we do anything necessary to provide requisite statutes.

"If San Diego wishes the aid of the state in any just course, most cheerfully will that aid, upon request, be accorded. But just as certainly will the aid of the state be extended to any man, however humble and feeble, whose rights are trampled upon in San Diego, and with exactly the same

IT WAS EXPENSIVE TO FALL ASLEEP.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

ANNUAL CHERRY FESTIVAL

WILL BE HELD JULY 11, 12, 13—MANUFACTURERS' EXPOSITION OF MADE IN OREGON PRODUCTS—HORSE SHOW ON SAME DATE—ELKS CARNIVAL VISITORS WILL BE HERE THEN.

At a meeting of the cherry fair committee held last night, the date of this year's show was fixed for July 11, 12 and 13. This is almost a week later than the date usually set for the holding of the annual exhibition, but on account of the establishment of the government pre-cooling station, which amounts to a cold storage plant, it is possible to store a large quantity of cherries. In this way it will be possible to have all kinds of cherries on exhibition, which is not possible under other conditions. Captain Carl Abrams tendered the committee the use of the armory for exhibit purposes, which offer was formally accepted by the committee. The Marion County Manufacturers' association, will hold its first exhibition at the same time as the cherry fair is given and it is likely that one day will be set aside for that occasion. The horse show association will also take part in the show this year. As soon as all the committees have been appointed, active operations will begin at once. Space will be allotted in the armory to the manufacturers' association, and to the different growers of cherries.

At the meeting last night S. G. Sargent was elected president of the cherry fair, W. T. Stols was elected chairman of the general committee, Robert Paulus was elected secretary, W. S. Walton was elected treasurer, Theo. Roth was elected chairman of the finance committee, August Hucklestein was elected chairman of the concession committee and C. L. Dick was elected chairman of the exhibit committee.

A resolution was unanimously adopted at last night's meeting asking the co-operation of the Elks' lodge, the Manufacturers' association, the Board of Trade, the Business Men's League, the Automobile club and all lodges of the city with a view to making the fair a high success. The question of holding the fair so late was done on account of meeting in Portland of the Elks' Convention the first three days of the week on which the fair is to be held. It is expected that a large number of those attending the convention in Portland will visit Salem during the cherry fair, thus a great deal of valuable advertising will be secured. A plan is on foot to hold an aviation meet during the fair, but this matter has not been fully settled. It was referred to the concession committee. Another meeting is to be held next Monday evening at which time all the committees will be announced.

NAVAL MILITIA GETS AXE

Governor West Gives it Thirty Days to Show That it is of Any Practical Benefit to the State.

OR WILL BE ABOLISHED

One of the Creations of the Last Legislature With Dozens of Useless Officers on Salaries—Got $25,000 Out of the Last General Assembly That the Governor Thinks Can Be Saved to the Taxpayers—All Departments Are to Be Given an Overhauling.

Carrying into execution an announcement made several weeks ago, that he intended turning the limelight of publicity on every office and department of the state, and demand that they justify their existence, Governor West today issued a formal declaration that, unless the friends of the Oregon Naval Militia can justify its existence within 30 days, it will be disbanded.

This is but the first blow struck by the governor in this campaign, and blow after blow will be delivered in the next few months to come until about every official, department and board and institution in the state will be hit. Attendant upon this publicity campaign there is destined to be problems and revelations that will put the people in closer touch than ever before with the workings of the state, and the close of it all will work a political upheaval greater than the state has ever before known.

Under direct jurisdiction and control of the governor come a number of appointive offices. The ax is going to be applied to some of them—in fact to every one of which cannot justify their existence. It is well-known that some of them are considered useless by the governor, and in every such case the ax will be applied vigorously. Under his direct control come also some commissions, and if they cannot justify their existence, it is a safe bet that out of existence they will go.

There are in addition dozens of offices and institutions that do not come within the control of the governor, and which he cannot remove. He can, however, turn the limelight of publicity upon them, and if in his opinion they are not deserving of existence, indict them before the coming legislature, and ask for their abolishment. That he will do so is certain, and when the whole campaign, as mapped out by the governor, is carried into execution, many an office and institution will have been hit.

The demand upon the Oregon Naval Militia to justify its existence is but the first card played in the game. As

COMPAGN IN EACH CITY WARD

ALDERMAN RIGDON WILL ASK THE PEOPLE TO SUSTAIN HIS PLAN OF ACQUIRING THE WATER COMPANY PLANT BY CONDEMNATION.

Desiring to obtain an expression from the people as to whether they desire to purchase the plant of the Salem Water company, and, in the event that they do, whether they desire to acquire it by arbitration or condemnation, Councilman Rigdon, head of a committee appointed to negotiate with the company with relation to the purchase of the plant, last night asked the council for permission to hold a series of public meetings.

The water committee, when it first opened negotiations conferred with Engineer Thompson, of Seattle, and had arrangements with him to make an inspection of the plant and determine its valuation. The move did not meet with the approval of the company, unless it was also given the right to select an engineer, and, in the event the two could not agree, a third was to be selected by these two to arbitrate the subject.

The company selected an engineer by the name of Adams in San Francisco, but this move met the opposition of the council, and, for that matter in the ranks of the water committee, because the company asked that the result of the arbitration be final and binding as to both parties, and because it was also felt that if the subject was put to a vote of the people that it would be voted down, and nothing but a useless expense would be the fruit of the whole procedure.

The council then laid plans for condemnation proceedings, making the company a flat offer of $300,000 for the plant. This the company declines to accept, and the council, as soon as it can get an expression from the people as to whether they want the plant, and whether they desire to purchase it by arbitration or through condemnation, is now ready to proceed.

This is to be done through public meetings. The first will be held Wednesday evening in the Townsend hall, in the south ward. It is the desire of the committee to have only residing in the ward attend, so that the meeting places may not be over-crowded. Meetings will then be held in every other ward, and, after the committee secures an expression of the people on the subject, it will proceed accordingly.

BUNGALOW MYSTERY REMAINS

The Victim of Foul Play in the Suburbs of Los Angeles Has Been Identified by Her Relatives.

SLAYER KILLED BY TRAIN

Often Referred to the Man as Her Sweetheart—As the Woman Has Been Identified There Will Be Further Effort to Trace the Author of the Crime on the Pacific Coast—Fatality at Seattle is Being Probed by Coroner.

Chicago, May 21.—By means of photographs taken at the morgue in Los Angeles, Mrs. Catherine O'Malley and her daughter, May O'Malley, here today positively identified the victim of the bungalow murder in the California city as that of their cousin, Minnie Quinn, formerly employed as a domestic at Winnetka, a Chicago suburb. The Chicago police believe that this ends the case, and that C. C. Dillon, killed here last Saturday by a Northwestern train, was her slayer.

Mrs. O'Malley told the police that Miss Quinn had been employed at the home of Douglas Smith, a Chicago banker, who lives at Winnetka. She said the victim often referred to Dillon as her sweetheart.

At the Other End.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 21.—With every clue worked out, the police are endeavoring again today to locate the trunk of the woman who was murdered in a bungalow in the outskirts of Los Angeles May 7. Aside from this line of procedure, they are waiting for results of a search being made by the Chicago police, who are seeking to identify the victim. According to Captain of Detectives Flammer, unless the Chicago officers develop something during their investigation nothing further in the case will be done.

The Seattle Casualty.

Seattle, May 21.—Evidence before the coroner's jury today investigating the deaths of Mrs. Florence Learned and Carl Bruder, who were drowned Sunday morning, when the Colman dock slip collapsed, showed that the Colman dock management never attempted to have its machinery regularly inspected. E. G. Vik, a stationary engineer, employed to give the dock its heating arrangements, testified that he was in charge of the oiling of gearing wheels, cogs and other machinery. He said he was not required to make stated inspections, but did so whenever he thought it was necessary. Police Officers Bell and Clark testified that they examined the gearing shortly after the accident and found that the corner of the cogs had been broken.

EXCHANGED HOLDINGS FOR STOCK

New York, May 21.—That J. P. Morgan and company, by sheer weight of prestige, was able to persuade holders of stock in the American ridge company to exchange their holdings for steel stock, was testified today by Percival Roberts, Jr., in the suit for the dissolution of the steel trust under the Sherman law, which is being conducted by the United States government here.

Roberts swore that there were no confidences or secret negotiations when the steel trust got possession of the bridge company. He declared that Robert Bacon, recently ambassador to France, came to him and said that the steel and copper company intended to trade its stock for American Bridge stock and asked him to do so, and become a director of the steel corporation. To this proposition Roberts agreed, he declared.

ROSEDALE EXTENSION CELEBRATED

WELCH MANAGERS AND EMPLOYEES BANQUETED BY THE SALEM HEIGHTS DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE—SHOW APPRECIATION FOR REDUCTION OF CAR FARE TO SUBURB.

President A. N. Falkerson, of the Salem Heights Development League presided, and delivered the opening address.

He said the Salem Heights Development League was so pleased at the reduction in street car fares from ten cents to five cents, they had decided, in this public manner, to express their appreciation of the efforts of the new managers of the street car system. He said the league had invited the employees and the officials of the company to meet them, and a fine spread of refreshments was to be served by the ladies. He welcomed the large delegation of motormen and conductors and their wives who had come out on this occasion, and only regretted that President Welch and ex-Mayor Waters could not be present. He introduced H. W. Smith and Col. E. Hofer, of the Capital Journal, who both made appreciative talks for the enterprise of the new management in undertaking the extension to Rosedale. Col. Hofer closed his talk with an appeal for the home industries, and the Made in Oregon movement. He said the way to make Oregon more prosperous was to give employment to more people in the factories and workshops as near the farms as possible, and to ask for the products of those factories in buying.

H. W. Smith reviewed the long fight to secure the street car service, and then the efforts to get a five-cent fare. Making one of the best talks of the evening, he said, under the Welch management, the people would get fair and liberal treatment, as this reduction in the fares had been made shortly after Welch had acquired the lines, and without any request on their part. His local representatives were friendly to the development of the country south of Salem, and they should be treated with fairness and liberality in return. Mr. Smith was warmly applauded at the close of his remarks.

There was a fine program by the Salem Heights orchestra and vocal music by the quartet, after which the banquet was served, at which about 200 participated. It was an elegant spread of good things, and the whole program was a great success.

WEATHER FINE IN BUCKEYE

Farmers Behind on Spring Work May Lose the State to Roosevelt and Give Taft Delegates at Large.

CITY VOTE WILL BE LARGE

It is Believed the City Vote Will Favor Taft on Account of the Strength of the Machine, and Having a Larger Control Over the Voters—La Follette's Candidacy Hurting the Cause of Colonel Roosevelt—The Archbold Inquiry Revealing Some Interesting Facts—Suffragette on Trial.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Columbus, Ohio, May 21.—Unusually heavy voting was reported in cities and towns and a light vote in the rural districts. The Taft people claimed that the fine weather would help the president and hurt Roosevelt, because the farmers who are supporting the former president, were behind in their spring work and would not leave the fields to vote. It was estimated later this afternoon that the Republicans would poll 300,000 votes and the Democrats 200,000. It is believed that Senator La Follette's candidacy is hurting Colonel Roosevelt.

The Archbold Inquiry.

Washington, May 21.—Judge Archbold of the commerce court speculated in a gold mine located in Honduras and visited officials of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad in an effort to negotiate a coal deal, according to evidence presented to the judiciary committee today by witnesses. W. W. Hisinger, a lawyer of Scranton, testified that five days before he had tried a case before Judge Archbold in 1910, which was amicably settled out of court that Archbold "went in" with him on a placer gold deal and that he endorsed Archbold's note for $3500, which was to pay for one-third of the stock. He said the note was still unpaid.

George F. Baer, president of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad and Vice-President Richards of the same company, testified that Judge Archbold tried to induce them to lease a culm pile to Fred Warncke, of Scranton and that they refused.

Suffragette on Trial.

London, May 21.—Mrs. Pankhurst, pale and on the verge of collapse, addressed the jury, defending her daughter, Christobel, who is jointly indicted with her, but who has not been arrested. She attributed the defeat of equal suffrage in the recent government election to a general failure to recognize the importance of woman suffrage.

MIDDLEWEIGHT MUST SHOW HIS BEST.

San Francisco, Cal., May 21.—Howard Morrow, the middleweight whom Tommy Ryan thinks will succeed to the late Stanley Ketchel's pugilistic crown, must show his best tomorrow night when he meets Sailor Petroskey or all chance for championship honors will vanish.

Petroskey, despite his recent battering by Frank Klaus, today, according to his friends, is better than ever before. Both men stopped hard work today. They will meet for 10 rounds. If Morrow wins, Ryan expects to take him east after the Johnson-Flynn fight to stack him up against Eddie McGoorty for the title.
