Special Train-- By Oregon Electric Railway from Portland during Rose Festival. Every evening during Rose Festival week, a special train will leave Portland North Bank station at 11:15 p. m., Jefferson street station 11:30 p. m., for Salem and intermediate points. This allows passengers to see all evening parades and entertainments. 6-7-61

Had a Fit-- About 12:30 today a young man, whose name we were unable to learn, had a violent fit on the south side of State street between High and Liberty streets. Wm. McGilchrist, Jr., was the first to notice him, who quickly obtained a cup of water from the Hoyle cafe and helped others to restore the young man to normal conditions. Dr. Robertson, who knows the young fellow well, was seen on the ground and assured those present that he was not in a dangerous condition. Within a few minutes he was able to resume his way.

Ventilate Ye Liberty-- The management at Ye Liberty theater has effected a change in the ventilation at that theater that will fill a long-felt want. Two large openings have been made in the ceiling and electric fans placed in them so as to force the air upward. The entire volume of air in the room will thus be changed every few minutes and during the hot weather it will assist very materially in reducing the temperature of the auditorium.

Baseball of Evenings-- The Salem Amusement Co., of which Sam Morgan is the manager, has succeeded in making such arrangements as will enable them to hold a series of baseball games during the evenings this summer. They expect to have two games a week, and will play with local teams of the city. This organization is similar to the Twilight League that existed here a few years ago.

CRUISER IS COMING TO PORTLAND

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Astoria, Or., June 8.--The United States armored cruiser Maryland was reported approaching the Columbia river bar this afternoon. Wireless messages stated the ship will cross the bar tomorrow morning, proceeding up the river to Portland, where it will take part in the Rose Festival, which opens Monday morning.

THE HOUSE REFUSED TO CONCUR

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, June 8.--Declaring that the senate amendment to the metal schedule bill is "a political subterfuge designed to defeat the passage of the bill," the house yesterday refused to concur in the senate committee today concurred in the senate amendments to the pig iron and chromium schedules, but refused to concur in the reciprocity repeal amendment.

Home Labor Meeting-- Laborers and teamsters of Salem who want the Home Labor clause of the city charter enforced are requested to attend a street meeting on Monday evening at the Board of Trade rooms on State street. Good speakers in attendance. Committee.

Fur Bathing Suits. [UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Ocean Park, Cal., June 8.--Fur bathing suits are sweeping the beach. Bear, pussy and bunny makeups are most popular, and the ears of the favored animal adorn the bathing cap. Ordinary costumes have almost disappeared.

Helped to Keep Down Expenses. Mrs. J. E. Henry, Akron, Mich., tells how she did so: "I was bothered with my kidneys and had to go nearly double. I tried a sample of Foley Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I bought a bottle and they saved me a big doctor's bill." For weak back, backache, rheumatism, urinary and kidney troubles, use Foley Kidney Pills. They help quickly. Dr. Stone Drug Co.

The Baker City Mining Congress will be held August 5-6-7.

Williamette university Alumni banquet will be held in Hotel Marion on the evening of June twelfth. The closing exercises of the Oregon School for the Deaf were held in the assembly hall on Tuesday evening, June fourth. Governor West presented diplomas to three: Miss Leora Hughes, of Salem; Miss Mattie McClain, of Joseph, Oregon, and Miss Ruba Westfall, of Yoncalla, Oregon. The class colors were red and white and the lower carnation.

The past session has been most successful and satisfactory. The rendition of the program for this occasion, was wonderfully interesting and mystifying to those not acquainted with the methods of teaching an entirely deaf person the secret of speaking. The order of exercises was presented in a pretty book form of white and tied with red cord, complimenting the school colors. Following invocation by Reverend Barr G. Lee, was Hymn "Rock of Ages" in the sign language, accompanied by music. M. McClain, C. Hagen, A. Schultz, L. Mokko and G. Wolf.

Lit. reading and oral exercises, by A. class of first year pupils. Folk dance, by Beginning pupils. "Bingen on the Rhine" Mattie McClain, Ruba Westfall, Margy Kau. Hoop drill, by P. Lunday, G. Base Ball ARCHER-WIGGINS WEONAS VS. SALEM SENATORS LEAGUE GROUNDS Tomorrow Afternoon, 2:30 p. m. The Weonas have won from such teams, as Estacada Logans and Minnville, and have lost but one game this season and that by a score of 1 to 0. Scott, their star pitcher, struck out 13 men in that game and has fanned 39 men in the last three games.

Very Serious It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine-- THE DORF'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not irritate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale than all others combined. SOLD IN TOWN
