NO. 141.

TESTIMONY OF DETECTIVE BROWNE THE WORST YET AGAINST DARROW

STATEMENT SHOWS THAT DARROW KNEW OF BRIBERY TRIED TO BRIBE WITNESS

Browne Says That When He Arrested Franklin a Few Minutes After Money Had Been Paid to Lockwood Darrow Said: "My God, Browne, What's All This?" Being Told it Was Bribery, He Added: "If I Had Known All This Was Going to Happen I'd Never Allowed it to Be Done."

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Hall of Records, Los Angeles, Cal., June 12.—Chief Detective Samuel L. Browne, of the district attorney's office, was on the stand during the entire morning session testifying for the prosecution in the trial of Clarence S. Darrow on a charge of bribing George N. Lockwood, a prospective juror in the McNamara trial.

Browne describing watching the house of Lockwood, planting detectives in the barn and in a water tank to observe the actions of Bert H. Franklin, when he approached Lockwood with the $4000 as alleged.

District Attorney Fredericks finished the first examination of Browne just before the noon adjournment, Earl Rogers starting the cross-questioning for the defense.

After telling how he arrested Bert Franklin a few minutes after the money was passed, Browne was asked to tell what Darrow said to him when they met immediately after the arrest.

"Darrow said: 'My God, Browne, what's all this?'" Browne testified: "I said it was bribery. Then Darrow explained: 'If I had known all this was going to happen, I'd never have allowed it to be done.'" He added: "You do the best you can for us, Browne, and we'll take care of you."

LILLIAN RUSSELL MARRIED

WEDDED AT NOON BRIDE GOES TO NEW YORK TONIGHT AND EDITOR HUSBAND LEAVES AT SAME TIME FOR CHICAGO.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Pittsburg, Pa., June 12.—After repeated denials of the marriage of Alex. P. Moore, publisher of the Pittsburg Leader, to Lillian Russell, the actress, which took place here today, the management of the Leader finally issued a story of the marriage.

The story states that Moore and Mrs. Russell were married at noon today at the Hotel Schley, the Rev. Frank Lewis, of the First Methodist church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. J. W. Wright, of the Second Protestant Methodist church. Only relatives and intimate friends, including members of the Weber and Fields families, company, of which Mrs. Russell is a member, attended.

Mrs. Susanne Westford, sister of Miss Russell, came from New York to witness the ceremony.

Miss Russell leaves tonight with her company, eastbound, according to the Leader's authorized statement. Moore leaves tonight for Chicago to attend the Republican national convention, "in fulfillment of a promise to Colonel Roosevelt, made some time ago."

Boy Drowned at Seattle.
[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Seattle, Wash., June 12.—James Storey, aged six years, drowned in Lake Union late yesterday afternoon after falling off a raft where he had been playing with two companions. The body was recovered.

She Was Hobbled.
[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Portland, Ore., June 11.—A pretty Portland girl with a tight hobble skirt tried to board a car but could not get her foot high enough to reach the step. A gallant passenger placed his hand under her foot for a stirrup, and the ascent was made.

During the recital Darrow sat pale but calm, chewing a pencil and regarding the witness steadily.

The jury leaned forward, listening intently as Browne spoke in a low voice.

On cross-examination Chief Counsel Rogers of the defense brought out that Franklin had a talk with James Campbell, a detective, just before the alleged bribe money was passed, and also tried to show that one of the officers at the scene, George Holme, with whom Franklin admittedly conversed, was a Burns detective. The witness could not state that Holme was a Burns detective at any time.

Captain C. E. White gave a little more testimony for the state when the court convened this morning. He admitted that he was given immunity by the district attorney for "telling the truth" on the witness stand.

EDUCATED HORSE TO BE SHOWN AT SALEM

Dr. D. B. Boyd, the owner of the educated horse King Pharaoh, that has the reputation of being the most wonderful educated horse in the world, was in the city today making arrangements with the Salem Humane society to give exhibitions here. The humane work has interested Mr. and Mrs. Boyd who are giving a great deal of their time to helping organize humane societies in all the principal cities. The Salem society which is a branch of the Oregon Humane society, which has headquarters at Portland, will hold a meeting this afternoon and will make arrangements to have the horse at Salem several days. The horse has just closed an engagement at the People's Theater, Portland, six shows a day for a week, and was seen by 33,000 people.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH IN PORTLAND ROOMING HOUSE

Portland, Ore., June 12.—Mystery surrounds the death here early today of Ralph R. Pennapacker, a young dentist, of Hoquiam, Wash. Pennapacker's body was found at the bottom of a flight of stairs in a downtown rooming house. His neck was broken. No one heard the noise of a fall.

Summer Resort Burned.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Santa Cruz, Cal., June 12.—On the eve of its opening for the summer season, the Seabeach hotel, one of the best known summer resort hotels in the state, burned to the ground here today with a loss of $100,000, partially covered by insurance.

Firemen fought the flames in vain for four hours.

Forty Gamblers Pulled.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Vancouver, B. C., June 12.—In what was one of the most successful gambling den raids ever conducted by the Vancouver police, 40 prisoners were captured yesterday afternoon at Columbia avenue.

The prisoners made up all sorts and conditions of men, including one ancient person barely able to walk with the aid of a stout stick.

ROOSEVELT DECLARES FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 12.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt today flatly and unequivocally declared for woman suffrage. The announcement was made by Judge Ben Lindsey, of Denver, and was later confirmed by Colonel Roosevelt himself.

Right is always too slow in asserting itself.

Plan Next Year's Festivals.

Portland, Ore., June 12.—Discussing plans for a series of attractions including various cities on the Pacific coast, beginning in Southern California early in the year and extending northward through the spring, summer and fall, the executive committee of the Pacific coast festival association today is meeting in Portland. Members from practically every important city on the Pacific Coast are in attendance.

Students Cannot Vote.

Seattle, Wash., June 12.—University students who are not self supporting are not entitled to vote in municipal elections if their parents live outside of Seattle. This was the ruling made by Judge R. B. Albertson in the recent suit of H. C. Gill against Mayor Cotterill.

Five students were thus disqualified and their votes were disallowed yesterday. Of these one vote had been for Gill. In all, 30 students are to be examined in addition to the 14 who have already testified.

HOT FIGHT ENDS IN TAFT GETTING TWO OF CALIFORNIA'S DELEGATES

STEAM ROLLER METHOD CRUSHES ALL OPPOSITION AND TAFT MEN ARE SEATED

Hot Fight is Precipitated When Deciding Contest in Fourth California District Comes Up—Governor Johnson's Letter Read Saying He Refused to Come Before the Committee, Because, as He Says: "I Will Not Submit to the Trial of the Title to Property by the Thief Who Steals it—California is for Roosevelt by 77,000."

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Chicago, June 12.—Grinding its way steadily along over the flattened forms of Roosevelt contestants, the Taft steam roller here today smashed flat the two Roosevelt delegates elected from the fourth district of California, who were elected by a majority of more than 69,000 in the state-wide primary, and seated in their stead two Taft delegates from the district, who had a local majority of about 150 votes.

The vote by the national committee followed almost exactly the lines of usual division between the Taft and Roosevelt adherents on the committee, it being 37 to 16. The decision was reached in the face of a furious denunciation by Francis J. Heney, of San Francisco, who shouted that he was there to warn President Taft that in accepting these delegates, he was a receiver of stolen goods.

Taft Gets Two.
E. H. Tryon and Morris Meyerfield, Jr., the two San Francisco delegates seated by the national committee, claimed they had carried their district at the primaries, and asserted that President Taft had carried the district on the preferential vote. G. C. Bryan, law partner of General Egan Dick, President Taft's contest manager, argued for Taft. Heney spoke for the Roosevelt delegates, who were Charles S. Wheeler and Philip Bancroft.

At the outset Heney denounced the claim of the Taft people as ridiculous and designed to rob the people of representation. In order that he might be eligible to argue the case, Heney surrendered his committee's proxy to Thorson, of South Dakota.

In advancing the claim of the Taft delegates Bryan said:

Joker in the Call.
"The call for the Republican national convention contains the following clause: 'It is provided that delegates and alternates, both from the state at large and each congressional district, may be elected in conformity with the law of the state in which the election is held, if the state committee or any such congressional committee so directs.' The action closes with the following provision: 'But it is provided further that, in no state shall an election be held so as to prevent delegates from any congressional district and their alternates from being selected by the Republican electors in that district.'

Taft Wins in Technicality.
"Despite the fact that the Taft ticket received more votes in the fourth district than the Roosevelt ticket he secretary of state, of California, ignored the rule of the national committee, which recognized the right of congressional districts to be represented by their own delegates, and issued certificates to the 26 Roosevelt delegates who received the majority of the votes from the state at large.

The Republican electors from the fourth California district having cast a majority of their votes in favor of the Taft delegates are entitled to seats in the national convention."

The committeemen who voted to seat the Roosevelt delegates were: Knight, Calif.; Borah, Idaho; Lawrence (proxy), Ky.; Wight, Louisiana; Jockson, Maryland; Kellog, Minn.; Littauer (proxy), Nevada; Duell, South Carolina; Capers South Carolina; Thorson, South Dakota; Monday, Tenn.; Lyon, Texas; Loose, Utah; Mulvane, (proxy), Wyoming; Governor Hadley, (proxy), Missouri; and Rogers, Wisconsin.

Starts a Nasty Row.
When Bryan had finished, Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania asked if he knew that the California legislature had "flagrantly and deliberately viol-

This Means a Bolt.

Chicago, June 12.—William Flynn, of Pittsburg, leader of the progressive element of the Republican party in Pennsylvania, who is directing Roosevelt's "steering" committee here, and Governor Glascock, of West Virginia, jointly declared today that neither Pennsylvania nor West Virginia would recognize Taft as the regular Republican nominee should the Taft people control the convention.

Speaking for these two states, Flynn and Glascock declared that Taft's nomination would not be accepted in any circumstances.

COLLEGE IS HAVING BUSY WEEK

TRUSTEES OF WILLAMETTE MEET CONFER DEGREES, RAISE SALARIES AND CALL ON JAMES J. HILL FOR HIS $50,000.

The trustees of the Willamette University held a meeting yesterday and transacted considerable business. The salaries of practically all the professors were increased $100, and all members of the faculty were re-elected for the coming year. Degrees were voted the graduates of the colleges of law, medicine and liberal arts, and honorary degrees were conferred on Oregon's new bishop, R. J. Cook, who receives an L. L. D. and Rev. James Moore and Dr. J. W. McDougal, who will receive the D. D.

In regard to the endowment, it was found that enough money had been raised to entitle a call being made on James J. Hill for his $50,000.

Eaton Hall was a scene of varied festivities last night, and was beautifully decorated.

The Program Today.
Today will be a busy day for the Willamette university alumni association. At 2:30 it will hold a business meeting in the chapel of the university, and at 6:30 in the evening will occur the annual banquet at the Hotel Marion. Besides the banquet there will be a program of unusual merit. B. F. Irvin the blind editor of the Oregon Journal, is to be the toastmaster. Chas. A. Johns, formerly mayor of Baker City, is down for an address as also are Edgar Averill, of Pendleton, Sidney J. Graham, of Portland, N. M. Newport of Lebanon, and James G. Helzel, of this city. Mrs. L. O. Ralston, president of the Portland Willamette club, will also deliver an address. Besides these features, the glee club will furnish music. The Misses Eleanor and Grace Smith are to sing also. Kinney Miller, of Eugene, will speak on "Athletics," and President Homan will deliver an address on "The Pride and Power of the Alumni Spirit."

Miss Lucy Field will introduce the present senior class and Miss Graham the president of this year's class will respond.

WILLAMETTE TO PLAY LAST GAME TOMORROW

Tomorrow the Willamette Varsity will play their last game of baseball this year when they hook up with the Chemawa Indians on the Willamette field at 4 o'clock. The team will be in a rather crippled condition on account of the absence of the players that have already gone home for the summer. Oakes on second will not be here and it is not certain whether Erskine will be behind the bat. Willamette has had a very successful season of baseball, the most successful in the history of the institution. Altogether they have not won a large percentage of the big games that they have played, they have had a fine schedule and have lost some of the games on account of bad luck and that only.

ated the law by forcing through the California primary law under the lash of Governor Johnson."

F. J. Heney was on his feet instantly flushed with anger.

"I object," he said, "to my state being insulted by Senator Penrose or any one else. I will not silently permit anyone to libel Governor Johnson."

Chairman Rosewater pounded on the table for order, but Senator Borah insisted on asking if it were not a fact that the Taft people intended to disfranchise the voters in California.

In reply to this, Attorney Bryan said:

"This committee has been insulted by the governor of a sovereign state, who ran the risk of having the entire delegation unseated by forcing through an unfair law."

Disfranchise the Voters.
"I would like to say," broke in Senator Borah, "that this committee, by its action of the last half hour has disfranchised the voters of Arizona by seating delegates at large who were never elected."

"In opening his argument, Heney

TO APPEAL DESCHUTES LAND CASE

ATTORNEY GENERAL CRAWFORD WILL PROSECUTE APPEAL IN ORDER TO SETTLE THE STATUS OF THE BIG IRRIGATION COMPANY.

Attorney General Crawford announced this morning that he would prosecute an appeal to the supreme court from the decision of Judge McGinn, of Portland, in sustaining the demurrer of the defense to the complaint of the state in its case against the Deschutes Land company.

The state brought this action for the purpose of restraining the company from selling options on lands contained in its project, contending that its contract provides that no land must be sold until water is on it, and that it is, therefore, violating it. The board served notice upon the company to cease selling the options, and the reply of its president, J. E. Morson, was that if the board felt that the company was violating its contract to institute suit to restrain it. The reply of the board was to order the attorney general to commence the suit.

A controversy with relation to the company's rights along this line has raged now for about a year, and it is believed by the attorney general that the only way to effectively settle it is to have the supreme court pass on the case. The company is also having trouble in securing a right of way from the federal government to store the waters of Crescent Lake, and pending a ruling on its application for it, all business and work has been suspended.

Clipped His Zits.
Portland, Ore., June 12.—Suit for damages is threatened by Harry Munson, Spokane railroad man, against other Spokane advertising men who overpowered him and cut his flowing mustache off on one side of his face.
