AUXILIARY TO VETERANS WILL PARADE

The Sons of Veterans met Saturday night at Hurst hall and took in twelve new members to the organization, including Mayor Lachmund.

The organization was completed by the election of John Cornforth as the chaplain and E. J. Raymond as color-bearer. A beautiful hunting flag was presented to the order by Mrs. Joshua Smith, the organization being named after the late Joshua Smith.

The flag will be carried by the color-bearer in the parade during the encampment when it is expected that Sons of Veterans from other towns will be present and take part.

During the encampment the Sons of Veterans will have headquarters at Hurst hall on Thursday, April 20, and will form from there to take part in the parade, where they will act as a guard of honor for the Grand Army.

TWO PRISONERS LEAVE THE PEN TO HUNT JOBS

Evidently becoming tired of road work and thirsting for more liberty than that given in him by "the honor system," L. J. McDonald last night effected his escape from a crew of convicts engaged in road work near Sublimity.

Last week William Penn White, a murderer, escaped while at work on the brick yard. White was convicted of manslaughter, the crime consisting in the killing of his stepfather. He was sent up from Marshfield.

FITNESS FOR THE PLACE WILL BE CONSIDERED

Fitness for the place will be the qualification which will win the superintendency of the reform school, according to a statement made today by Governor West.

"The board will consider but not likely finally act on many applications for the place today," he declared. "We will consider the fitness of the applicant for the place—a thing which past boards have apparently neglected," he said with sarcasm, "and then when we decide that a man is equipped, we will select him."

Many applications have come in from Portland, and a number also from southern and eastern Oregon. C. L. Starr, secretary of the state tax commission, still seems to lead in the race and will probably be the man selected.

5. We favor equal opportunities for capital and labor and declare our enactment of such laws as will secure the nearest possible approach to this equality.

7. We declare for the destruction of the white slave traffic with its unspeakable evils, and the enactment of stringent laws and their rigid enforcement against the social evil.

8. The Prohibition party for 40 years has cried aloud against the compromising and half-way measures of dealing with the liquor question; has stood without fusion or surrender of its great principles, against the gigantic liquor traffic and its corrupt partnership with municipal, state and national governments; the combined liquor parties, the powerful subsidized press, the heartless sanction of business interests, the tyrannical social custom, and the amazing apathy and indifference of the Christian voters.

Suit Economy

Don't buy a boy's suit in a haphazard way. The high cost of living is due to a great extent to the wastefulness of the American people. A boy full of life needs a suit that will hold him. VAMPIRE HERE.

It Will Be Presented at the Wexford Theatre Sunday and Monday. Owing to a much larger capacity of the Wexford, "The Vampire" will be given there.

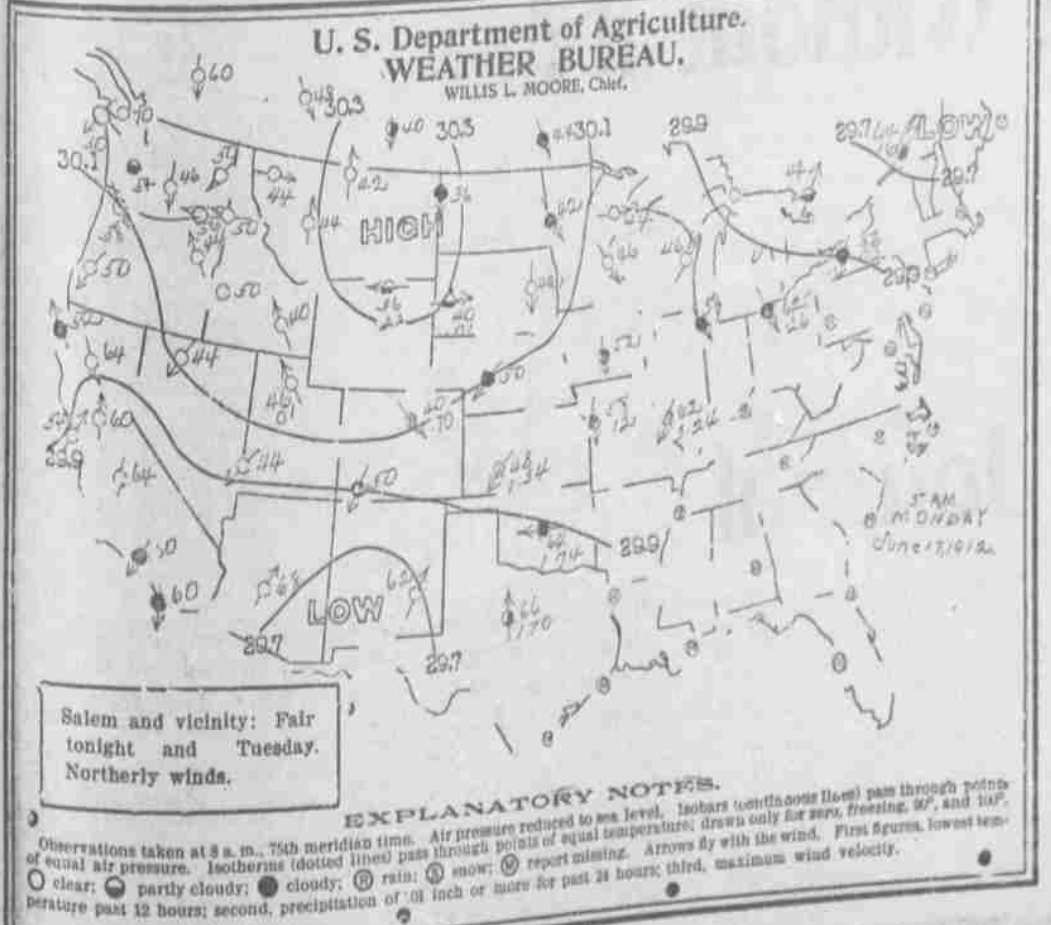

"The Vampire," universally conceded to be the most powerful portrayal of the life in the innermost circles of high society; the faults and follies of humanity being caught in the net of circumstances and the disastrous results of unthinking youth whose way is blocked by glamour and artificial gold paved roads, will be presented at the Wexford theatre tonight only, with Edward Holland, a renowned lecturer on subjects pertaining to the life of the inhabitants of the underworld, as illustrator.

The presentation will be in motion picture form, supported by actors especially selected for the production. By request, "The Vampire" has been reproduced five times in the United States by motion picture companies, and its true value can be readily appreciated by Mr. Holland, who is known as the "fighting vocal illustrator." Mr. Holland has been associated with the life suggested by that wonderful poem, "The Vampire," and for several years studied the slums and what is termed as high society throughout all the large cities. His lectures have aroused interest in every eastern city.

WILL TAKE UP SEWER QUESTION

The attorneys for the city are preparing a petition for rehearing in the South Salem sewer case. In a recent decision of the supreme court, the assessment for the construction of the sewer was declared void, the court holding that the notice was insufficient and the city had therefore not acquired jurisdiction. The points raised by the city is that the notice required by the charter is a notice of intention to construct and only requires that the description of the sewer and kind of improvement to be made is all that is required by the charter. While the opinion promulgated by the court was that it was necessary to describe the property likely to be assessed, the city will contend that certain maps and specifications furnished were sufficient to properly describe the improvement. The contention will be made that sections 26 and 27 of the charter do not require that a specific description shall be made of each piece of property to be assessed, as these sections generally authorize the council to lay down and construct sewers and to assess the cost thereof to the property directly benefited. The point raised will be that the council cannot determine what property is benefited at the time the first notice is given, but that can only be determined when the question of benefits comes directly before the council. Section 22 of the charter, provides the manner in which an assessment must be made for the construction of a sewer and the attorneys contend, and will so show by their petition, that the city acted wholly within its authority when it served notice by publication of the intention to construct the sewer. The petition for rehearing will be filed today. Vetoes Appropriation Bill. (UNITED PRESS LEADER WIRE) Washington, June 17.—President Taft today sent to congress a veto of the army appropriation bill.
