HIS ACTION CARELESS, NOT EVIL

THOSE WHO KNOW OLDMAN ACCUSED OF KIDNAPING CHILD SAY CHARGE IS ABSURD—OTHER CHILDREN IN HIS CARE.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cook, whose 6-year old child has been the subject of considerable controversy lately over an alleged kidnaping are still very much agitated over the matter. In conversation with the family this morning the fact developed that if satisfactory proof is brought to them that there was no evil in the mind of Mr. James Brown in taking the child from the public playground that no action would be taken in the courts over the matter. If the parents are convinced that the child was taken by malicious intent it is more than likely that a prosecution will follow.

Upon enquiry in the neighborhood where Brown lives, just west of the Grant school, it has been learned that Brown has been an inmate of the county poor farm. He is slightly unbalanced in mind, but is a man who has no evil intent, his dementia being mainly for children, he having been the father of several children, all of whom are dead. Brown has been a county charge up to two months ago, receiving $10 a month for his sustenance. This allowance has stopped and he has been forced to earn what he could. He has been in charge of two children, each less than 2 years of age, whose mothers work at restaurants in the city. Brown has two wealthy brothers who do not know of his condition here as he has kept his relatives from knowing his real condition. Brown may be seen any day in the vicinity of the Grant school caring for two little tots and those who have seen him in his watchful care of the little ones say that it is absurd and preposterous to think that he had any malicious purpose in his mind at the time he allowed the child to follow him away. He had one of the other children in charge at the time the Cook baby taking a fancy to the child in the go-cart, following them away.

Mrs. Cook, like a true mother that she is, suffered a great deal of anxiety over the temporary loss of her child and naturally is bitter in her denunciations of the old gentleman's conduct which without doubt is deserving of some censure.

Brown told the officer who interviewed him that his act, allowing it to go with him, was thoughtless on his part, but that was all. He was taking the child back to the playground when first found with the child.

TEMPEST IN TEAPOT IN CHICAGO

Chicago, July 12.—Miss Grace C. Strachan will not be the "moo moose" of the National Education Association. The defeated New York candidate for the head of the teachers' organization, while firmly convinced that underhand methods accomplished her defeat, has decided not to bolt, and form a "third party."

While Miss Strachan herself declined to talk on the subject today, Miss Katherine Blake, also of New York, who led on the floor for Miss Strachan, declared there would be no bolt.

"While the friends of Miss Strachan are not satisfied with the tactics that accomplished her defeat," she said, "we have decided to make no fight inside the ranks of the organization."

The Strachan forces succeeded in sending the suffrage question into the records of the association. A resolution, fathered by the New York delegation, declares for "votes for women," asserting that "only by women suffrage will the highest degree of citizenship be reached in the United States."

IMPEACHMENT OF ARCHBALD IS DELAYED

Washington, July 12.—The Lorimer case has blocked further action by the house in the Archbald impeachment proceedings decided upon yesterday by a vote of 222 to 1. Chairman Clayton of the judiciary committee, who has assumed the role of "prosecuting attorney" said today that he had been requested to defer action until the senate had disposed of the Lorimer affair.

"We will merely make formal announcement to the senate," Clayton said, "that the house has adopted the articles of impeachment." The six assistant "prosecuting attorneys" or managers will not appear before the senate until that body has resolved itself into a high court of impeachment, and appointed a special presiding officer.
