CHAFIN IS NAMED BY THE DRYS

PROHIBITIONISTS NOMINATE ARIZONA MAN FOR PRESIDENT—TOOK HIM FROM VERY DRY TERRITORY.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Atlantic City, N. J., July 12.—Eugene W. Chafin, of Arizona, was nominated for president on the ballot by the national prohibition convention here this afternoon.

The names of Eugene W. Chafin, Arizona; Frank W. Emerson, California; Colonel Andrew Jackson Houston, of Texas and Hon. Findlay Hendrickson, of Cumberland, Md., were placed in nomination for president.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 12.—The entire morning session of the prohibition national convention was devoted to finances. Retiring National Chairman Charles R. Jones stated that it would require not less than $150,000 to defray the expenses of an energetic campaign. He announced that, as the result of the early efforts, there was $31,000 in the treasury.

Today more than $10,000 more was pledged, and committees were named to aid in raising the amount still needed.

It was expected that the nomination of candidates for president and vice-president would be reached some time this afternoon.

New Fire Truck Here—

The new automobile fire truck has arrived, and is all that its manufacturers claim for it. Several exhibitions were given this forenoon by the new piece of fire-fighting apparatus, and it proved satisfactory in every way. Much interest is shown in the truck by our citizens, and all agreed that it is just what is needed. The fire department took part in the parade, the truck forming one of the principal attractions.

Pioneer Widow Dead—

Mrs. Eliza Emerick, widow of the late Andrew Emerick (G. A. R. veteran), and sister of the late Judge Hartwell Hurley, died in Lewiston, Idaho, July 6th, at her daughter's home, Mrs. C. W. Simon. Mrs. Emerick was born in the state of Maine, 1831. Being one of the old pioneers, spending most of her life in Portland and Salem. She was laid to rest in Lone Fir cemetery, Portland, Ore., July 9.

The Elks herd in Portland up to last night registered 84,000 in attendance at the big meet.

MYSTERY OF DISAPPEARANCE IS CLEARED UP

Tacoma, Wash., July 12.—The mystery of the disappearance of Mrs. George Griffin who was believed to have been murdered by her husband Wednesday afternoon at the Narrows when his queer actions caused the authorities at Stellaacoom to investigate, has been cleared.

Red-eyed from weeping and broken in spirit, Mrs. Griffin applied at the county jail yesterday while Sheriff Longmire and his deputies were making a frantic search for her. In the padded cell, George Griffin was practically a raving maniac. He kept repeating his various delusions about the loss of his young wife and would not be quieted. His wife swore to a complaint, charging him with insanity, and he was taken to Stellaacoom asylum.

Griffin's mind began to wander Tuesday as a result of heavy drinking, Mrs. Griffin says.

SHE SHOT HIM FOR REFUSING TO MARRY HER

Portland, Or., July 12.—Angered because of his alleged refusal to marry her, Mrs. Susie Agnes Owens today shot and seriously wounded Charles Celestino. The shooting occurred at the latter's home where Mrs. Owens had gone, according to her story to plead with Celestino to marry her as she says he promised to do.

When he refused, as she asserts, she drew a revolver from her skirt and shot him through the body. She then rode in an automobile to the police station where she surrendered herself. She is 27 years old and is said to have been recently divorced.

Four Sailors Scalded.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Havana, July 12.—Four sailors were badly scalded today by an explosion in the boiler room of the cruiser Cuba, recently received from the Cramps ship yard and in use at present in bringing troops back from Santiago, now that the internal disturbances there are over.

There's one created thing that a spinster can't see good in—that's a bachelor.
