is washing the flatwork, such as sheets, pillowcases, towels, napkins, tablecloths, etc. If this work were sent to the laundry, the balance of the washing and froning would be a small mat-

The expense of sending the flat work to this laundry is not great. We wash it with the purest of soft soap and plenty of oure sparkling water. We iron it by a large steam beated machine, which produces a beautiful finish without injuring the goods in the slightest degree. Try us this coming

Monday. Our wagons will call.
