Autolog to Newport
A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ryan, their son, Mrs. J. R. Dundas of California; and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Potes, of Vancouver, Washington, left Salem by automobile today for Newport by way of King's Valley, to be gone a week. Mrs. Dundas is a sister of Mr. Ryan.

Racing Mare Dead
June Pointer a trotting mare with a fine record, belonging to C. H. Christenson, of San Francisco, died yesterday afternoon at the state fair grounds from pneumonia, which she contracted while en route here from California. She was stired by Star Pointer, famous as a trotter, and Christenson recently declined an offer of $2000 for her.

Louisiana Lou Tonight
To those who like beauty, grace, movement, color and music, the musical comedy "Louisiana Lou," at the Grand tonight makes a strong appeal. It is undoubtedly one of the very finest musical comedies of recent years--is splendidly staged, brilliantly costumed and has a combination of voices seldom equaled on any stage. It is nerve, and no doubt will have a packed house.

Getting on Nicely
Wm. J. Pratt, who was ran over by an auto at Cottage on State streets Monday, is getting along nicely, being able to be up, though still confined to the house. There are no indications of internal injuries, and while badly bruised and very sore, his recovery now seems only a matter of a short time.

See Louisiana Lou
The horse editor just wants to remark to all his friends, and this is everybody in Salem, at least from his side of it, that Louisiana Lou, coming to the Grand tonight, is simply great. Reports from along the line, wherever it has shown, are all just one way, and that is that no one can describe its beauties. It has to be seen. Try it and see if you can tell about it.

If You Are Dissatisfied
With the cutting of meats where you now buy, just try Hill & Hanson, proprietors of the Capital Meat Market, they are experienced meat cutters, their customers are satisfied.

Fresh, Crisp Vegetables
At all times at the Sunset Grocery, kept in their sanitary window. Don't take bread this hot weather, our bread will just suit you; try it. Phone Main 121.

Say Show Is Great
The United Press telegraph boys in Medford, where "Louisiana Lou" showed last night, are so enthusiastic in their praises of the show that it heated the wire. They say it is simply the best show of any kind that ever appeared in Medford, in fact, they add that it couldn't be any better anyway.

Quality Considered
Burkart's money-giving shoe sale has no equal in Salem. This closing out shoe sale means money in your pocket. 302 North Commercial street.

Auto and Bike Collide
Howard, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jones, was run down on Court street yesterday afternoon by an auto driven by Charles Livesley. It was one of those accidents that "just happen," no one being particularly to blame. The boy was riding a bicycle and in making a turn failed to see the auto in time to avoid it, and turned so quickly that although Livesley applied the brakes instantly, he could not stop until the boy and bicycle were under the auto. Fortunately the boy was not hurt, and a few dollars will heal the wounds and bruises of the bicycle.

Paid Him $900
It is stated the Kit Carson show yesterday settled the suit brought against it to recover money lost in a three-card game, by paying $900 of the $1100 claimed. The transaction over which the suit arose occurred at Dallas, when a man named Preisen was relieved of some $1500 by sharpers connected with, or said to be, the circus. At the time $400 were returned and with the $900 passed over yesterday, Preisen is now out only $200 for his "experience."

Condition Unimproved
The condition of Miss Goughnour, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident on the penitentiary road Sunday night, is reported to be not any better, in fact her condition last night was not so good as it should be. It is feared that she has been injured internally as the wheel of the car passed over her body about the waist.

BYRON CARSON'S SON DIES AT THE McNARY FARM
Last night about 10 o'clock Dr. Helaye was called to the McNary farm, five miles north of Salem, to attend the 4-year-old son of Byron Carson, who had a severe attack of epilepsy. Before he arrived the child had died, the death occurring at 10:30. Everything was done for the little fellow, but death came before the doctor arrived, which was within a very short time after receiving the notice over the telephone. Warm applications and massages were used to revive the boy, but to no avail.

The boy's father and mother reside somewhere near Hopewell, and he had been staying with the family of Mr. DeKalb at the place mentioned.

JUSTICE'S COURT HAS SEVERAL CASES

Andrew Manos, one of the proprietors of the Oregonian restaurant, was arrested this morning on a warrant issued in the justice court by Lloyd Locke. The defendant pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The alleged assault was on the person of young Locke.

The trials of George Fendrich and B. E. Edwards, who were charged with keeping their slaughterhouse in an unclean condition, will be held tomorrow forenoon at 10 o'clock. This case was brought by Dr. J. O. Van Winkle, the county health officer, the alleged unclean slaughter house being outside the city limits.

Defends Biting
[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE] Portland, Ore., Aug. 7.—A nice point of law is to be decided by the municipal court. Charles E. Postage sets up as a defense to the charge of biting Tom Conroy, that he was attacked by three men, and therefore it was justifiable to resort to man's primitive weapons.

Gun Sued Quong
Gun Sued Quong, a native of China, 64 years old and a familiar character around Salem for the past 20 years, and known as "Old Jim" died last night at the farm of S. W. Jones, 10 or 12 miles north of Salem, at 5:20. The body is at the parlors of Lehman & Clough, from where it will be shipped to Portland this afternoon.

This is the third death of a Chinese on this farm within the past two years the others being Old Charley and Chung Sang.

TOOK LEG HAIL WHEN AUTO DUMPED OFFICERS
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 7.—Plunging over an embankment near Kent, a sheriff's automobile injured Deputy Sheriffs Hill and Beebe, and resulted in the escape of two young men who had been arrested for cattle stealing. When they saw that the officers had been hurt the accused ran from the scene of the accident. They have not been recaptured.

ROOSEVELT MAY FIND "A NIGGER IN WOODPILE"
Chicago, Aug. 6.—Colonel Roosevelt spent the morning with Mrs. Roosevelt receiving callers, the latter including a delegation of suffragettes, headed by Jane Adams, of Hull House.

Negro progressives of Arkansas met here this morning, and decided to demand that Colonel Roosevelt make a final ruling on the negro question.

FOUNTAIN TO OPERATE EACH NIGHT

City Attorney Page, in the absence of Alderman George Brown, who is chairman of the park committee, announces that the arrangements for operating the fountain have been completed, and it will be operated every evening from 8:30 to 9 o'clock. This hour has been selected rather than a later one, to give the children a chance to view the fountain without violating the curfew ordinance. It is probable that later the hour of operating may be half an hour earlier. At present 8:30 is as early as the fountain can display its colors, as it is not dark before that time.

STATISTICAL.

MARRIED

STIFFLER-ERIKSON—At the future home of the contracting parties, 350 South 14th street, this city, at 9:30, Wednesday morning, August 7, 1912, Miss Victoria Bertha Erikson to Lloyd Elmo Stiffler, both of Salem. Mrs. Stiffler was formerly a stenographer for the Salem Abstract company and Mr. Stiffler is a pressman for the Statesman Publishing company. Both of the young people are well known in Salem and the best wishes of the Journal are extended to them in their new relations of life.

MARRIED.

COLBATH-THRIFT—At the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. P. S. Knight, at 9:15 a. m. Wednesday, August 7, 1912, Miss Lena Leota Thrift to Benjamin B. Colbath, both of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Colbath are well known in Salem, where Mr. Colbath has resided almost all his life. At one time he was sheriff of this county. He is now employed as a carpenter at the Brown planing mills.

Race Is Close in Missouri.

St. Louis, Aug. 7.—Returns from the Missouri primary at 11:30 o'clock last night indicated a close race for the Democratic nomination for governor. Attorney-General Major is expected to have a lead of 20,000 in the state outside, and Cowherd, it is predicted, will have a lead of 18,000 in St. Louis. McKinley leads in the Republican race for governor.

Many former Republicans did not vote, and gave as a reason that they had cast their lots with the new third party.

The following Democratic representatives in congress were nominated without opposition: James T. Lloyd, first district; Joshua W. Alexander, third district; C. C. Dickinson, sixth district; S. W. Shackelford, eighth district; Speaker Clark, ninth district; W. L. Hensley, thirteenth district; J. G. Russell, fourteenth district; and Thomas L. Rubey, sixteenth district.

Theron Catlin, Republican, was renominated for congress in the eleventh district.

The following Republicans were renominated for congress without opposition: Edward F. Haley, second district; Dr. J. H. Morrow, third; W. L. Cole, ninth, and J. P. O'Rannon, sixteenth.

GEN SUNG QUONG NOW A REAL CELESTIAL

Gun Sung Quong, a native of China, 64 years old and a familiar character around Salem for the past 20 years, and known as "Old Jim" died last night at the farm of S. W. Jones, 10 or 12 miles north of Salem, at 5:20. The body is at the parlors of Lehman & Clough, from where it will be shipped to Portland this afternoon.

and that no class of evils shall be beyond redress."

"The new party will become the American exponent of a world-wide movement towards more just social conditions. I second the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt because he is one of the few men in public life who has been responsive to the social appeal and who has caught the significance of the modern movement. Because of that and because the program will require a leader of invincible courage, open mind, democratic sympathies, endowed with the power to interpret the common man and who will identify himself with the common lot, I second this nomination."

Johnson for Vice-President.
Chicago, Aug. 7.—The nomination of Governor Hiram W. Johnson, of California, by acclamation for the vice-presidency on the Progressive ticket became a certainty this afternoon, when an agreement was reached whereby Judge Ben Lindsey was to withdraw in favor of Johnson, after his name had been put before the convention.

SPOKANE NEWSPAPERS HAVE A STRIKE ON
Spokane, Wash., Aug. 7.—Following a controversy over wages, union pressmen employed on the Spokane Review and the Spokane Chronicle were locked out here today. Members of all local labor unions today were instructed to cancel their subscriptions to the two papers.

Both papers are owned by W. H. Cowles, a millionaire. Special deputies are guarding both newspaper plants. Up to a late hour today there had been no violence.

CHARGES AGAINST SELLING WERE FILED TOO LATE

Expressing it as his opinion that an affidavit filed by Arnold Keller, declaring that Ben Selling had violated the corrupt practice act, was filed so late that the court would not take jurisdiction of the matter, District Attorney John H. McNary yesterday returned it to Secretary of State Elliott.

Keller charged Selling with spending $10,000 in literature in the way of letters in advancing his campaign, and also large sums for the purpose in other ways. These sums, he charged, were not included in the expense account filed by Selling with the secretary of state.

The law says that objections to an expense statement filed by a candidate must be filed within 60 days afterwards. District Attorney McNary holds that Keller's objections were not filed until 63 days afterwards, and that, in view of this, he is of the opinion the court will not take cognizance of the matter.
