

LEADER OF SALVATION ARMY DEAD

GENERAL WILLIAM BOOTH, ORGANIZER AND LEADER OF SALVATION ARMY DIED IN LONDON LAST NIGHT, AGED 88.

London, Aug. 21.—General William Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, died at 10:30 o'clock last night. He was born in Nottingham in 1829, being 83 years old.

The veteran Salvation Army leader was unconscious for 48 hours before he died. The medical bulletins had not revealed the seriousness of the general's condition which for a week, it now is admitted, was hopeless.

Twelve weeks ago General Booth underwent an operation for the removal of a cataract in his left eye. For two days after the operation indications gave hope of his recovery. Then septic poisoning set in, and from that time, with the exception of occasional rallies, the patient's health steadily declined.

General Realizes End.

The general recognized that the end was near and often spoke of his work as being finished.

Throughout the commander-in-chief's illness his son, Bramwell Booth, chief of staff of the army, and Mrs. Bramwell Booth gave their unremitting attentions to him.

The evangelist died in his residence, the Rockstone Hadley Wood, eight miles from London, where he had been confined to his bed since the operation. Present at the bedside when the end came were Mr. and Mrs. Bramwell Booth and their daughter and son, Adjutant Catherine Booth and Sergeant Bernard Booth; the general's youngest daughter, Commissioner Mrs. Booth-Helberd, and Commissioner Howard, Colonel Kitching and Dr. Wardlaw Milne.

Successor's Name Is Sealed.

Public interest now centers in the question of a successor to the late commander. Under the constitution of the Salvation Army, the general nominates his successor. This General Booth did several years ago, placing the name in a sealed envelope, which was deposited with the Salvation Army's lawyers with instructions that it should not be opened until after he died.

Though nobody knows what name the envelope contains, the general believed in the army is that it will prove to be Bramwell Booth, who for 20 years has been its chief of staff.

When General Booth will be buried has not been decided. While every English member of the Salvation Army is convinced that no man was more worthy of interment in Westminster Abbey, it is not expected this honor will be awarded to General Booth by the Abbey authorities. It is the general belief that the commander-in-chief's last resting place will be alongside that of his wife, who 21 years ago was buried in Abney Park, Stoke-Newington.

Mrs. Mary Hubbard, aged 87, died at home of her son, John Hubbard, in Dulais, Monday.

WILL TAP GREAT BODY OF TIMBER

LOGGING ROAD FROM SILVERTON WILL TAP BODY OF TIMBER THAT WILL YIELD 500,000 FEET DAILY FOR EIGHTY YEARS AND HAVE NEW CROP BY THAT TIME.

To tap a stand of 12,000,000,000 feet of the finest Douglas fir in existence the Silver Falls Lumber Company, of Portland, will begin immediate construction of a 25-mile logging road, built on main line standards, south-easterly from Silverton, at a cost of approximately $500,000.

Contracts for grading, ballasting and track-laying were let yesterday by Plagg & Standifer, of Portland, who will have a full complement of men and equipment on the ground before the end of the week.

Operation of the logging camp that will be opened as soon as the railroad is completed will be on an extensive scale with the intention of cutting 500,000 feet of timber daily as long as it lasts. At this rate it will take 80 years to move it.

CANADIANS CAPTURED THE AMERICAN NETS

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.] Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 21.—According to word received here from the west coast of Vancouver Island, the government tug William Joffie, chased an American fishing schooner outside the three mile limit yesterday. The schooner had her nets out inside the limit, and when the Joffie hove in sight, called in her dories and headed for sea, getting out of sight quickly in a fog bank. The Joffie picked up her nets, which were full of fish, and dumped the latter overboard again after keeping sufficient for food.

SHERMAN KNOWS NOW HE IS NOMINATED

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.] Utica, N. Y., Aug. 21.—James Schoolcraft Sherman was officially notified today of his renomination by the republican national convention as vice president of the United States. Thousands of persons, friends and fellow-townsmen of the nominee, witnessed the ceremonies.

Various forms of amusement and entertainment for the visitors had been arranged, making the notification a gala occasion.

United States Senator Sutherland of Utah delivered the notification address. Vice President Sherman responded briefly.

THE McNAMARAS BURY THE FAMILY HATCHET

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.] San Mateo, Cal., Aug. 21.—Through efforts of their daughter Gladys, Nicholas J. McNamara, retired banker, and his wife are reconciled here today.

Returning home after a journey across the continent when he attempted to overtake his wife in New York, McNamara went at once to the family home here. Mrs. McNamara was already there, having arrived some time ago with her two sons. She had retired when father and daughter arrived, but Gladys, who had not seen her mother for two years, went at once to her mother's room. A family reunion followed. That everything is forgiven was evident from McNamara's statement.

Mrs. Cora M. Perkins, the companion of Mrs. McNamara, and Frederick Patison, chauffeur, still face the possibility of trial on indictments charging them with the theft to McNamara's $4500 automobile. They are out on bail.

Popular Mechanics for September.

The civilized world at large has an uneasy conscience on the subject of warfare, and views with distrust the formidable and cumbersome paraphernalia with which every military power is continually arming itself. During the customary summer maneuvers, on land and sea, at home and abroad, the number and variety of these munitions are greatly augmented, and improvements abound. As a result, the September number of Popular Mechanics Magazine contains fourteen articles describing new military equipment and improved methods. In England a dummy village was built to serve as an artillery target; model aeroplanes were used in studying the aerial-invasion problem; an enormous naval drydock has been constructed, and experiments are being conducted with a new automobile wireless outfit for use in the field. In France, where the importance of the aeroplane in military tactics is viewed most seriously, the question of which aeroplane, the pursuer or the pursued, would have the advantage in an actual aerial combat, has excited heated discussion, and a military aeroplane with folding wings has been devised. Also, remarkable hospital-like motor ambulances for field work were exhibited at the recent French maneuvers. Russia and Germany, too, have been productive in this line of achievement, and the United States has contributed something new to nearly every phase of the service, from marching to flying.

The September Popular Mechanics Magazine contains in all 322 articles and 280 illustrations.

The September Woman's Home Companion.

The September Woman's Home Companion is the fall fashion number. Under the direction of Grace Margaret Gould, who edits the fashion department, women are shown how they may dress fashionably and yet economically. There is a great variety of fashion articles and illustrations, including all the latest news from Paris and New York, which, as everybody knows, are the center of dress ideas. Miss Gould's great contention is that women can keep in style and yet not spend extravagant sums of money. She proves her point ably and presents it entertainingly.

Special articles contributed to the September Companion are: "The Town Had No Slums"; "Three American Duchesses," being an intimate account of the Duchess of Manchester, the Duchess of Roxburghe, and the Duchess of Marlborough; "What Men Have Meant in My Life," being an extremely personal article by a great professional writer; "How I Slog 'The Rosary'," an article of advice to singers by Ernestine Schumann-Heink, a great operatic and concert star, and "Playing Fair," a practical talk to business girls, full of stories of actual cases and other real material.

Fiction is contributed by Mary Stewart Cutting, Juliet Wilbur Tompkins, Frederick M. Smith, Mary Hastings Bradley, Sophia Chandler and Beulah Marie Dix.

There are numerous illustrations in color, and the regular departments are full of good reading and practical ideas.

Contain no harmful drugs. Never sold in bulk. Put up in two sizes in sealed bottles. The genuine in a yellow package. Dr. Stone Drug Store.

THE BEST PROOF

Salem Citizens Cannot Doubt It. Doan's Kidney Pills were used—they cured.

The story was told to Salem residents.

Time has strengthened the evidence. Has proven the cure permanent.

The testimony is home testimony. The proof convincing.

It can be investigated by Salem residents.

F. A. Sutton, Hoyt and West streets, Salem, Oregon, says: "For ten or twelve years kidney trouble was the plague of my life. I suffered intensely from pain in the small of my back and was often unable to move. I doctored and tried a number of remedies, but to no avail, and I was in a bad way when I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Dr. Stone's drug store. They benefited me at once and after I had taken the contents of three boxes, I was free from every symptom of kidney complaint. My health is now of the best, and for that reason I cannot recommend Doan's Kidney Pills too highly." (Statement given January 31, 1906.)

Re-Endorsement.

On November 22, 1909, Mr. Sutton confirmed his former statement, saying: "I willingly reiterate all I have previously said in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy cured me three years ago and I have had no return attack of kidney trouble."
