BASE BALL—Weonas of Portland vs. Salem, Sunday, August 25

Last Game of a Three Game Series for State Semi-Professional Championship
Weonas Have Won One Game and Salem One
This Last Game for Blood
Since playing here last, Weonas have strengthened their team and have defeated some of the best teams in the state, such as Hood River Heights, champions of the Columbia River League, and are the only team to defeat the much-touted Astoria Club Empire, Cheyne of Portland Admission, 25c; Grandstand, 15c Time, 3:00 P. M.

A Very Dull Day—

At the county treasurer's office yesterday not a single individual appeared to cash a warrant. The local banks, however, had some to cash. During Treasurer Moore's incumbency of the office for the past four years this has never occurred before. There are usually several warrants to cash during the day. Yesterday smashed all records for dullness.

Amelia Still Busy—

An account of a raid made in Portland last night on one of the rooming houses there contained the name of Amelia Beeman among the list of the offenders. This woman will be remembered as the one who participated in a hold up in Yew Park this city last April.

A Fine Building—

The appearance of the new Masonic building has been much improved of late by the removal of the staging from the east side. The upper half of the scaffolding has been taken down so that now the massive effect of the tile and brick work is plainly visible and has been much admired by all. Work is progressing so well that it is thought that by the first of October most of the building will be ready for occupancy.

City Brings Suit—

A case is on trial in the recorder's court this afternoon in which E. L. Irvin is defendant and the City of Salem is plaintiff. Mr. Irvin is accused of failing to make the proper connections with an alley sewer, after having been notified by the city recorder and sanitary inspector. Those composing the jury are Carl Williams, Hal D. Patton, Clyde Rice, F. N. Derby, N. S. Smith and Geo. W. Harris.

Hazel Left Us—

Hazel Irwin, who was arrested in Dallas yesterday on a warrant charging her with failing to pay her room rent at a local rooming house, was fined $30 yesterday afternoon in Justice Webster's court and paroled. She returned to Dallas.

Named Administrator—

Judge W. M. Bushy today appointed S. C. Kightlinger administrator of the estate of U. G. Kightlinger. The heirs of the estate are Mrs. Onda Campbell of Portland, sister; Alta Henaley of St. Helena, a daughter; and Grant Kightlinger of Salem, a son. The appraisers of the estate, which is estimated at $600, are Paul B. Wallace, A. T. Waln and C. A. Park. The deceased passed away Aug. 9, 1912.

Not Bull Moose—

But the very best meat that is possible for us to get. That's the kind you will get when ordering from the Capital Meat Market. Phone Main 247. Hill & Hansen, proprietors.

Always the Same—

The bread that you buy of us is always the same; firm, white and baked just right; made in a bakery as clean as your parlor. Phone Main 131, The Sunset Grocery.

You Can't Beat It—

Our supplies for hop pickers and campers can not be beaten in Salem. Just drop in and see for yourself. Ask about our fruit jar special. Spurling's Grocery, Phone Main 66.

Always on the Job—

At J. M. Lawrence's grocery, 197 South Commercial street. Phone Main 131 or call in for your next order in the grocery line. They always come back.

Good Baseball Game—

A fairly good game of baseball was played on the University field last night between the Woolen Mills team and the Theatre Men of the Twilight league. The score was 7 to 9 in favor of the Theatre Men. The defeated team made a good fight but could not prevail against the strong Woolen Mills men. The game tonight will be between the Watt Ship team and Hauser Bros., and bids fair to be the most interesting of the season.

Back from the Mountains—

James and George McGilchrist and Grant Teeter are back from Pamela lake and the district around Mt. Jefferson. These gentlemen have been in the mountains about three weeks and during that time a large number of fish were caught, the party bringing home about 200. Several side journeys were made, on one of which the party went to the east slope of the Cascades. The opportunities for mountain climbing in that district are not excelled anywhere in the mountains and the scenery is as good as the climbing is hard.

CONGRESS TO REPASS THE BUDGET

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Washington, Aug. 21.—Both houses of congress late this afternoon were expected to re-pass the "budget bill" immediately, eliminating the provision abolishing the court of commerce, which was objected to by President Taft and was given as his reason for vetoing the measure. The president will then sign it.

The house earlier in the day passed the bill, including abolishment of the commerce court, after the president had vetoed it. The senate failed by seven votes to pass the bill over the presidential veto.

Wants to Quit—

Alleging gross drunkenness as the basis for a dissolution of the marriage contract between herself and her husband, Marina Stupfel has begun suit for divorce from Joseph Stupfel, to whom she was married October 23, 1909. There are four minor children which the plaintiff asks to have awarded to her as well as to ask the court to fix such a sum as seems equitable for the support and maintenance of the children during minority. She also asks for the usual costs and disbursements of the suit.

Big Ones Visit Salem—

Howard Elliott, president of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co., arrived in Salem this afternoon about 2 o'clock in his special car. President Elliott is making a tour of the west looking over the country. While in the Willamette valley Mr. Elliott was entertained by the officials of the Oregon Electric railroad. Those composing the party besides the great railroad president were J. H. Young, president of the Oregon Electric; Carl R. Gray, Jr., transportation manager, C. A. Coolidge, general manager, and A. J. Davidson, superintendent, all of the Oregon Electric. The officials spent the afternoon in the city.

LIVED ON RAW EGGS

Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Cecilton, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.

What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.

He says: "For more than 12 years, I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.

I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs. I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.

I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Theford's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.

I have been working daily on the farm ever since, and I am as hard as iron. This purely vegetable remedy has been in successful use for more than 70 years. Try it. But be sure that it's "Theford's."

passed through Salem last night on his way home from the coast.

F. O. Roberts and family passed through the city last night on their way from Newport.

I. G. Damon, the groceryman, left today for the Breitenbusch country on a hunting and fishing expedition.

C. C. Goodale, wife and family, of Woodburn, were in the city for a short time Tuesday evening on their way home from the coast.

Mrs. N. J. Haas has returned from Webster City, Iowa, where she has visited for the past four weeks.

Miss Delpha Moore is visiting at McAlla at the home of Dr. E. R. Todd. Mrs. Todd is Miss Moore's sister.

Ed S. Johnson, of Silverton, is in the city.

Arthur Ritchey, of Anaconda, Montana, is visiting at the home of Jos. G. Moore, at High and Chemeketa streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Reynolds, who for the past several years have resided in this city, have moved to Portland.

A. G. Steelhammer, of Silverton, is in the city.

A Dainty Toilet Article.

Every lady who desires to keep up her attractive appearance, while at the theatre, attending receptions, when shopping, while traveling and on all occasions should carry in her purse a booklet of Geraud's Oriental Beauty Leaves. This is a dainty little booklet of exquisitely perfumed powdered leaves which are easily removed and applied to the skin. It is invaluable when the face becomes moist and flushed and is far superior to a powder puff as it does not spill and soil the clothes. It removes dirt, soot and grease from the face, imparting a cool delicate bloom to the complexion. Put up in white and pink and sent anywhere on receipt of ten cents in stamps or coin. F. T. Hopkins, 37 Great Jones Street, New York.
