

SOCIETY

During the quiet summer season, while half of Salem is out of town, automobile parties are made up every evening between eight-thirty and nine o'clock, for delightful entertainment when Mr. Homer Marsh manipulates the intricate machinery of the magnificent Waite fountain. The beautiful play of water and the exquisite colorings so deftly exhibited, make a picture that could not be imagined.

The spectators "honk" their appreciation and applaud for encore.

The gift of a splendid colored fountain to a municipality, is without precedent in this country, and Salem is proud and grateful to be the one city in the United States to possess a fountain of this invention which was founded as a loving gift by a former resident who recently passed on.

Mrs. Frederick S. Stewart telephoned a few of her close friends for an informal afternoon Wednesday, in celebration of her birthday.

Mrs. L. D. Howell entertained very informally on Friday afternoon with a Kensington, at her new home, 1745 Court street.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Abrahams, of San Francisco, entertained with a charming dinner at Hotel Marion on the evening of yesterday, week. A large brass bowl of red dahlias and Shasta daisies graced the table circled by the host and hostess and a few of their closest Salem friends.

On Friday evening of last week, one of the largest and most enjoyable entertainments was given by the United Artisans, in the lodge rooms of their hall. The following program was delightfully given:

Vocal solo, S. E. Walte.
Address, H. S. Hudson, supreme master.
Brass quartet Miss Margaret

Swartz, Mr. Kurth, Mr. Martin and Mr. Still.

Flag pantomime, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," Miss Genevieve Avison, Miss Julia Todd, Miss Florence Page, and Miss Eva Scott, with Mrs. Fannie Penn at the piano.

Twelve new members were initiated and welcomed into the order. During the evening sixteen young women cadets delighted the audience with drill evolutions.

A fine supper was served by the ladies of the organization. Members from lodges in Dallas, Rickreall, Corvallis Wells and Alrie, together with the local lodge members, made about two hundred guests enjoying the evening.

Girl members of the Clear Lake church and Sunday school have issued the following invitations for tomorrow:

"Little girls, big girls, witty girls, pretty girls,

Girls with hair done up and girls with hair in curls,

Girls with eyes of blue, of brown and blue and gray,

Invite you to be present on

Our Girls Day."

A fine program has been arranged for this entertainment, which begins at ten o'clock.

A new enterprise which promises to be of great convenience to housekeepers and a most satisfactory arrangement for women who wish to dispose of the results of their handwork, will be conducted by a member of Salem Woman's club, Mrs. Jerome Boyer and her sister, Mrs. M. P. Farrar who is a member of federated clubs in California. Their establishment at 267 North Liberty street, will be conducted along business lines and will fill a place in Salem which has always been vacant.

Women's Club Notes.

As every club that is affiliated directly or indirectly with the General Federation will be expected to follow the general principles laid down in the resolutions passed at the recent convention in San Francisco, the following resume of them has been made, that they may be studied by clubs and as far as possible some recognition of those that have a local interest be given attention in the club work of the year. The resolutions are:

"Resolved, that the general federation co-operate with the government to erect a colossal monument at the Panama canal.

"That it endorse the good roads movement, the subsidy for post roads and the ocean to ocean highway to be known as Lincoln highway.

"That it protect against further curtailment of the national forest reserve and for the protection of forests.

"That it endorse the congressional bill for the creation of a bureau of national park, under the department of the interior.

"That it express to President Taft its appreciation for his appointment of Miss Julia Lathrop as head of the children's bureau.

"That it seek federal aid in the procurement of vocational training and direction for boys and girls leaving the public schools.

"That it urge its clubs to be active in promoting household economies.

"That it endorse the national employer's liability bill now pending in congress.

"That it urge women of ports and entry in the United States to study immigration conditions and urge also the appointment of women employees in the immigrant service.

"That it endorse the movement for the appointment of women police officers in all cities of the United States.

"That it declare its disapproval of the present contract labor system in prisons; that it urge the healthful, outdoor employment of convicts, that it advocate the product of convict labor be consumed by the state, and that the profit of convict labor, above the cost of the convicts' support be devoted to the support of the dependent family of the convict.

"That it recognize the English Bible as a literary classic and urge its introduction to the literary program of clubs.

"That it endorse the movement for higher ideals for the American stage.

"That it recommend to the clubs the necessity for plans for the better medication of schools.

"That it advocate the passage of laws requiring a certificate of health before the issuance of a marriage certificate.

"That it go on record as favoring uniform marriage and divorce laws. (Nevada, the home of the easy divorce was the first state to second the motion to adopt this resolution.)

"That it request the national children's bureau to print and distribute information touching the subject of birth and death records.

"That it petition congress to increase the appropriations for the enforcement of the white slave law, and that a protest be voiced against the light sentences often imposed upon persons convicted in the federal courts of a violation of the law.

"That it recommend the appointment of a sub-committee to study political science as a preparation for citizenship.

"That it urge upon the publishers of newspapers to discontinue the publication of comic supplements, or to change the character of the supplements now published.

"That it advocate the passage of laws to insure the legal equality of men and women in respect of property rights, and in respect to the domestic relations."

WOMAN DIZZY PARTLY NUMB

Doctors Did Her No Good—Testifies How She Was Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Zanesville, Ohio.—"Last fall I had female weakness very bad, and was nervous and run down. I was dizzy and had numb feelings and my eyes ached. I took doctor's medicines but they did me no good, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and now I feel stronger and better. I have told other women what Mrs. Pinkham's medicine have done for me and give you permission to publish this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. HULDA ERICKSON, 506 Mayville Avenue, Zanesville, Ohio.

More Proof.
Burlington, Iowa.—"For years I suffered a great deal from female troubles. I had awful pains and felt sick nearly all the time. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and heard that it had helped other suffering women so I felt sure it would do me good. Sure enough it did. The first bottle helped me and now I am a strong and well woman. I would not be without it in the house."—Mrs. ANNA HIGGINS, 1125 Agency St., Burlington, Iowa.

There need be no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to remedy woman's diseases. We possess volumes of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most skeptical. Why don't you try it?

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
