CONGRESS HAS AT LAST ADJOURNED AFTER LONG SESSION OF 262 DAYS

THE LEADERS ON EACH SIDE CONGRATULATE THEMSELVES ON WHAT THEY HAVE DONE

And the Country Congratulates Itself on the Fact That They Accomplished So Little--Senate at Last Moment Provides for Investigation of Contributions to Presidential Election Fund in 1904--House Was Practically Deserted, Only a Couple of Dozen Members Being Present Today.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Washington, Aug. 26.—Senator Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania, announced this afternoon that an agreement had been reached making the adjournment of congress possible today. No details were given out, Penrose saying the senate would mark time for the present.

The house leaders asserted they would not yield in the deficiency bill deadlock. Democratic Leader Underwood said:

"There will be no overtures from the house; our slate is cleaned. Our proposals demanding the adjourning of the house at 3 o'clock is our last word."

There was less than 100 members present in the house, but Underwood does not expect any one to raise the point of "no quorum."

PREPARING TO USE THE PANAMA CANAL

Calgary, Alberta, Aug. 26.—A committee from the United Farmers of Alberta, jointly with a similar representation from the board of trade will appear before the grain commission today, and press the matter of the immediate establishment of terminal government-owned elevators on the Pacific coast to handle shipments from the prairies via the Pacific after the opening of the Panama canal.

Governor Stands Pat.
Portland, Or., Aug. 26.—Announcement was made here this afternoon by Governor West that he intended bringing his stenographers to Portland and so far as he was concerned, would make Portland the state capital till he has his crusade against vice in Portland well under way.

"I don't know how long I shall be here," said Governor West. "I am going to carry my program right through."

The governor arrived here at 1 o'clock from Seaside. He did not say where he would locate his "capital" in Portland, but presumably it will be at the downtown hotel he makes his headquarters when here.

"The real prostitutes I am after in Portland, are the prostitutes in office. I am going to clean them out."

Killed Motorman.
Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 26.—Charged with having caused the death of Roy Morris, aged 27, Joe Ragan, aged 14, his brother Steve, aged 10 and John Bridger, aged 9, are in jail here today.

The three lads, it is alleged, were playing about the Bay street yards of the Tacoma Railway & Power Co. Saturday afternoon, and they left the controller on one of the cars open. When Morris, an employe of the company, adjusted the trolley, the car leaped backward, crushing him against another car. He died in the hospital three hours later.

Will Save Big Freighter.
San Diego, Cal., Aug. 26.—That the great freighter Pleiades, ashore at Cape San Lazzar, near Magdalena Bay, will be saved was the confident prediction today of waterfront men. Word was received here by wireless today that conditions were favorable for her rescue. The wrecking steamer Greenwood, Captain James Ruden of San Francisco, was scheduled to make her first attempt today to pull the Pleiades into deep water.

Won Tennis Championship.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 26.—After losing the first two sets, Maurice E. McLoughlin, of San Francisco, came strong at the finish and won the national lawn tennis singles championship on the Casino courts here today, defeating Wallace Johnson, of Philadelphia. The scores were 3-6, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2. Six thousand spectators witnessed the contest.

CAPITOL IS NEARLY DESERTED

State Senator Kay and Labor Commissioner Hoff the Only Ones on the Job at the Opening of the Week.

WEST BUSY IN PORTLAND

Secretary Olcott Attending Funeral of Portland's Dead Postmaster, Merrick—Attorney-General and Supreme Court Justices on Vacation—Alderman at His Farm and Railroad Commissioners in Eastern Oregon.

Calling of the roll at the state house this morning by newspaper reporters disclosed the fact that every elective state officer, save State Treasurer Kay and Labor Commissioner Hoff are absent.

J. F. Davidson, of Rickreall, who has been at the grounds for several months, left for Scio yesterday with his family. They have been in the Beckwith cottage at No. 32 Downing avenue.

Will pay Con Homer's fine if he will boot from the grounds the jackass who has been painting some buildings on the camp ground. A vining treeshrub that I have been carefully training for three years over a certain building in Moores avenue otherwise known as the gent's toilet, was cut down by this highlander in the state's employ. He beautified the toilet on the outside by a coat of paint, but left the inside looking as if the hogs had wallowed there. If I knew the fellow's name it would appear in this bulletin. He showed as much sense as did one of the farmers at the grounds some years ago who cut down the hop vines that I had trained over some of the buildings. It is such actions as these that causes a man to break the commandment Thou Shalt Not Swear.

Since the dog show has been declared off owing to the war on dogs in Portland, it stands every dog owner on the camp grounds to send home his dog. People are not in a humor to put up with the dog nuisance among the campers. True, a dog is man's best friend, but there are men who will poison a dog. A howling dog on these grounds will be apt to be considered as mad, and the first dog that breaks into a neighbor's camp will be apt to be considered as the Chinaman said, "Klatsie," and be killed on the spot. Take a friend's advice, and keep your dog at home this year.

All persons who have engaged camping space are requested to notify the superintendent of the grounds whether or not they are coming. Come early and avoid being crowded. Monday of the fair, September 2, is to be the biggest first day in the history of the Oregon State Fair. Come early.

Three cars of Arizona cattle will be unloaded on the camp grounds this forenoon. They are prize winners, and Oregonians will have to hustle in order to successfully compete with the cattle from this new state.

Who knows the address of Johnnie Kirkland. Three people wish to rent his cottage.

Miss Pauline Looney, of Jefferson, will pitch tent Monday.

To Be Tried Sept. 10.
Detroit, Mich., Aug. 26.—Nine of the seventeen aldermen arrested Saturday charged with conspiracy to accept bribes were arraigned here today and their hearings set for September 10. Others will be arraigned later in the day.

Hurt in Auto Accident.
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 26.—Mrs. Jas. Bothwell, wife of a prominent real estate dealer, was badly injured when an automobile driven by her husband was hit by a street car last evening. Bothwell was driving a party of friends home. He suddenly swerved the car across the tracks and was struck by a car. Mrs. Bothwell received a badly crushed hip and several cuts. Three other occupants of the car received slight injuries.

Mother Saved, Baby Drowned.
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 26.—As Mrs. George M. King stepped on the side of a canoe on Lake Union yesterday afternoon with her 14-month-old baby, the canoe overturned, throwing them both in the water. Simon Davis, paddling the canoe, gave Mrs. King a paddle, and then hunted for the baby. The body of the child was found 10 minutes later.

UNDERWOOD PARAPHRASING SWIFT ILLUSTRATES WORKING OF TARIFF

TAXED ON NURSING BOTTLE AND TOMBSTONE, WARMTH, FOOD, LIGHT AND MEDICINE

Democratic Leader Borrows Dean Swift's Description of Taxes in England, But Does Not Put It So Graphically--Shows That Nearly Everything in Common Use Must Pay Tax, Either to the Government, if Imported, or to the Manufacturer, if It is Made in America.

TO DOUBLE STREET CAR SERVICE

DURING STATE FAIR CARS WILL RUN EVERY 7 1/2 MINUTES AND WILL OPERATE UNTIL 1 A. M. FOR THE BELATED.

Virgil Cooper, local superintendent of the street car system, for the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railway, yesterday announced the establishment of a double service on lines leading to the fair grounds for the entire week of the state fair. Cars on the Commercial street line will operate every 7 1/2 minutes, while those on the old Welch, or Center street, will run 15 minutes apart. Superintendent Cooper will also maintain service until 1 o'clock at night, in order to accommodate patrons detained at the fair ground late in the evening, and those citizens who fail to hear the curfew warning. The owl car service will be maintained on all lines in the city.

Arrangements have been made to secure a number of extra cars for operation on the Salem lines during the week, all of the plans announced giving promise of the most adequate service ever had.

The street car tracks are being placed in excellent condition for handling the large crowd expected, all construction work on new lines in the city having been discontinued while the crews are engaged in repairing the old lines.

It is understood that the laying of steel will begin on the line from Salem to Fir as soon as material can be obtained. The steel mills are so far behind on their contracts that Engineer Guppy has been endeavoring to borrow rails at Los Angeles in order to push construction on this suburban connection, but has so far been unsuccessful.

President Strahorn of Portland, Eugene & Eastern is expected in Salem one day this week.

EXCURSION TO NEWPORT SUNDAY A SUCCESS

About 150 persons from Salem took advantage of the excursion to Newport Sunday. The crowd from here was orderly and well behaved, not a bit of rowdiness being indulged in by any of those taking the train here. The day over there was ideal. About 500 people in all made the trip from all parts of the valley, and, with those already there, the beach presented a gay appearance last day Sunday. The return trip was made on schedule time, and all were satisfied with the day's enjoyment.

It was noted by those going over Sunday that a large number of the campers have left for their homes, and that the hotels report a perceptible falling off in the attendance during the past week.

Mother Saved, Baby Drowned.
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 26.—As Mrs. George M. King stepped on the side of a canoe on Lake Union yesterday afternoon with her 14-month-old baby, the canoe overturned, throwing them both in the water. Simon Davis, paddling the canoe, gave Mrs. King a paddle, and then hunted for the baby. The body of the child was found 10 minutes later.

Darrow Must Stand Trial.

Los Angeles, Aug. 26.—Presiding Judge Willis, of the Los Angeles county superior court today denied the motion of the Darrow defense to dismiss an indictment specifically charging Clarence S. Darrow with bribing Robert F. Bain, a juror in the McNamara trial.

The case then was continued until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to be set for trial.

CAMPERS GATHER FOR THE FAIR

NOTES ABOUT THE BIG CAMP GROUND, WHO IS COMING, LOCATIONS, AND OTHER THINGS OF INTEREST TO THE OLD COLONISTS.

As the date of the opening of the fair approaches the prospects for a record-breaker camp crowd increase. Mrs. E. E. Morgan, of Portland, arrived in camp last night and will remain until the close of the fair. She will be found at No. 30 on the cottage row.

J. F. Davidson, of Rickreall, who has been at the grounds for several months, left for Scio yesterday with his family. They have been in the Beckwith cottage at No. 32 Downing avenue.

Will pay Con Homer's fine if he will boot from the grounds the jackass who has been painting some buildings on the camp ground. UP TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY

JUDGE'S REFUSAL TO DISMISS INDICTMENT PASSES MATTER UP TO FREDERICKS TO SAY WHETHER HE WILL TRY DARROW AGAIN.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 26.—With District Attorney John D. Fredericks today rests the decision as to whether Clarence S. Darrow will be brought to trial on a charge of bribing Robert F. Bain, a juror in the McNamara trial. Following the denial of Superior Judge Willis, of the defense's motion to dismiss the indictment pending against the Chicago attorney, the matter rests solely with Fredericks, and speculations are rife as to his probable action.

Judge Willis continued the case until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock to be set for trial. It is regarded as most probable that Fredericks will at that time ask for a further continuance or urge a sufficient time before trial to permit him to recuperate fully from an illness which followed the first Darrow trial.

Rogers also is suffering from the strain of the first trial. Darrow's counsel today said that he is yet undecided whether to ask for an early trial, fearing that he will be unable to continue his work at least for a month. Fredericks did not appear in court today. The state was represented by Deputy Hammond, of the district attorney's office.

Willis, who is presiding judge of the Los Angeles county superior court, refused to verify a report that a judge from another county will be called to sit if the case goes to trial. It is generally believed that this will be done.

FILED CERTIFICATE THAT TAFT IS NOMINATED

Secretary of State Olcott today received from the secretary of the National Republican Central committee a certified copy of the nomination of William H. Taft for president, at the national convention, and the nomination of James Schoolcraft Sherman for vice-president. This is the first time any party has seen fit to file the certificate of nomination of a candidate for president with the secretary of state. There is no law requiring that such a paper be filed, but the secretary of state has decided to file it.

ROOSEVELT SAYS LOEB SAYS NOT

COLONEL IS STIRRED BY ARCHBOLD CHARGES AND REITERATES HIS DENIAL--SAYS LOEB WAS PRESENT AND KNOWS ALL ABOUT IT.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 26.—Hope that the senate campaign contributions investigation committee would summon William Loeb, Jr., who was present at the interview when he (Roosevelt) and the late E. H. Harriman discussed contributions to the presidential campaign in 1904, was voiced here today by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, the progressive nominee for president. Loeb, now collector of the port of New York, visited Sagamore Hill last night. Colonel Roosevelt after expressing a desire to answer the testimony given Friday to the senate committee by John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company at the earliest possible moment, said:

"Loeb told me last night that he had seen a statement that he was to be summoned before the committee and wished to advise me regarding the rumor. I told him that he must testify to everything if called. Loeb was my private secretary then.

"When I made my statement about Harriman it was during Harriman's lifetime. I then let it rest.

"As the senate committee chooses to listen to hearsay gossip from Archbold and Odell regarding what Harriman said and what occurred at that interview, I will be glad to have them listen to Loeb who was present at the interview and heard Harriman ask me to get Bliss and Cortelyou to contribute funds to himself and Odell for a state campaign. Neither Harriman or I ever mentioned Harriman's contribution or the expense of my campaign.

"Loeb telephoned either Bliss or Cortelyou, transmitting Harriman's request and also telephoned Bliss or Cortelyou about alleged Standard Oil contributions, making in my behalf the same request I had made directly in two letters and a telegram and receiving the same assurance I had received that no Standard Oil money had been received or would be received."

Washington, Aug. 26.—"How the public bears the burden of the tariff," was illustrated in a statement today by Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, majority leader in the house, who recited the record of the present congress. He said:

"Under the present oppressive tariff law the laboring man returns at night from his toil, clad in a woolen suit taxed at 75 per cent, shoes taxed 71 per cent, a cotton shirt taxed at 59 per cent, and a wool hat and woolen gloves taxed 78 per cent. He carries a dinner pail taxed 45 per cent, and greets his wife as she looks through a window pane taxed 62 per cent with a curtain taxed 43 per cent.

"After scraping his shoes on an iron scraper taxed 75 per cent, he wipes them on a mat taxed 70 per cent. He lifts the door latch, taxed 45 per cent, steps on a carpet taxed 62 per cent and kisses his wife, clad in a woollen dress taxed 75 per cent. She is mending an umbrella taxed 50 per cent with thread taxed 30 per cent.

"The house is built of brick taxed 25 per cent, and lumber taxed 96 per cent, with paint taxed 33 per cent. Their wall paper was taxed 25 per cent and plain furniture 30 per cent. He hangs his hat on a steel pin taxed 45 per cent, and uses soap taxed 20 per cent.

"His looking-glass was taxed 45 per cent and he combs his hair with a rubber comb taxed 35 per cent.

"He proceeds to eat supper, which was cooked on a stove taxed 45 per cent, for which his wife uses pots and kettles taxed at the same rate. On their table is common crockery taxed 35 per cent and cheap glass tumblers taxed 45 per cent. The sugar he puts in his tea is taxed 54 per cent, which he stirs with a spoon taxed 45 per cent. His meal is a frugal one, because the cost of living is high.

"He uses a knife and fork taxed 45 per cent, in eating salt fish taxed 10 per cent, bread 20 per cent, potatoes, 22 per cent, salt 33 per cent, butter 24 per cent and rice 62 per cent. He proceeds to read a book taxed 25 per cent and at the close of the day reclines in an iron framed bed taxed 45 per cent, with a mattress taxed 20 per cent, sheets taxed 40 per cent, woolen blankets 45 per cent and a cotton spread 45 per cent.

"He is taken ill and the doctor prescribes medicine taxed 25 per cent, which being ineffective, he passes from his sphere of life and his remains are deposited in a coffin taxed 30 per cent, which is conveyed to a cemetery in a wagon taxed 30 per cent, deposited in its last resting place in mother earth and the grave filled in by use of a spade taxed 45 per cent, while over his grave is raised a monument taxed 50 per cent."
