

THE CAMP GROUND IS BUSY PLACE

The Bulletin Tuesday morning says: Day opened clear, but clouds in the west. Last night the indications were rain.

John P. Humphreys and C. L. Humphreys, of Macleay, pitched tent yesterday. Uncle John is a familiar figure on the camp grounds.

Secretary Meredith has a lame arm from carrying the immense amount of letters received daily. It is almost a physical impossibility for him to read the large accumulation of mail, much less to care for the thousands of little details.

Con Homyer, the popular superintendent of the state fair grounds, had averaged 40 miles a day for the past ten days, up to midnight last night. Con is a good pedestrian, but the high stepping required over the grounds will tell on him.

Billy Taylor, of No. 19 Moody, was called to Macleay last night to get his threshing started.

Geo. D. Hibbard, of Silverton, will be found at his old location after Thursday. The Hibbards are regular campers. Trenton Hibbard came over two years ago for the last time.

J. J. Wiseman, of Dallas, who was unable to attend last year after having selected his lot, has since died, and his old time friends will miss him.

Mr. Bryant, the florist, went into camp yesterday.

Frank Alley and family, of Roseburg, will arrive with the Douglas county delegation Friday evening. They will have two tents, making thus far fifteen camps reported for Douglas.

The man who claims he cut down the camp ground cherry tree, the rose bush referred to in a recent bulletin, feels grieved over mention made in this bulletin. He felt that he was told to cut down a green vine that trained against a house and leave it a dead bush on the ground in the campers way. There is no disposition on my part to injure any person. Those who know me know that I have ever been a defender of the trees and the vines and that it spells trouble when one is injured. It has cost me some harsh words and the loss of some possible friends in days gone by, but if I am remembered when I pass on, it will be because I am a friend of nature and of the camp ground at the Oregon State Fair. We once took the 75th degree in an order, not the grange, that taught us to not always do that which we thought we were told to do. We found to our humiliation that we misinterpreted the order and it may be the case with the party who feels injured. He believed he was told to do this and as in the case of our own brought words of censure. We trust that he will consider this the 75th degree.

At no time in 25 years have there been as many people in camp prior to the week of opening as there are today. Things are looking mighty good.

L. H. Fletcher, Salem, has his big tent up and is a citizen of the Tented City, and may be found at the corner of Geer and Booth.

J. T. Beckwith, of Turner, for 23 years in charge of the hay barn, and one of Marion county's commissioners will be in camp Thursday.

Norlyn P. Hoff, of the Oregon Agricultural college surveying party pitched his tent yesterday.

George Hoeye and family, of Oregon City, set tent last night and are at home to their friends on the Broadway. They are just opposite the Douglas county location. Mrs. Hoeye has attended every fair save one since 1862.

INDUSTRIAL FAIR CLOSED SATURDAY

School Children's Products Were Viewed by 4000 During the Two Days' Show.

Albany's first school children's industrial fair came to a happy close last Saturday night after a crowded attendance. There were perhaps 2000 people who attended the fair during Saturday afternoon while in the evening the building was crowded to its utmost capacity.

The exhibit was of course of great interest to everyone who viewed it and the people marveled at the mechanical and other productions of the youngsters as well as the splendid specimens of garden and field crops presented. It is estimated by County School Superintendent Jackson that fully 4000 people visited the show during the two days it was open.

Superintendent Jackson had the exhibits loaded on three dray wagons this morning and sent them to Seilo to be exhibited at the county fair. The exhibit here will be augmented by fully half more than what was displayed here, and which it was impossible to bring here owing to the busy season.

All in all the industrial fair was an unqualified success and gives ample reason for making it an annual event. It has been demonstrated, however, that it would be more desirable to hold the fair at a later date—in September or October for instance. The vegetables and other farm products would

RURAL CARRIERS TO HOLD CONVENTION

The Oregon Rural Carriers' Association will hold their tenth annual convention at Dallas beginning Sunday, September 1, and holding over Monday. A splendid program is provided and the meeting will be a notable one.

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired digestion. When the stomach fails to perform its functions properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets is all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your liver, and regulate your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it. Many others have been permanently cured—why not you? For sale by all dealers.

Poor Nick; his distinguished father-in-law is against him, and his wife, it is supposed, is a feminine "chip" of the old block.

"Were all medicines as meritorious as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, the world would be much better off and the percentage of suffering greatly decreased," writes Lindsay Scott, of Temple, Ind. For sale by all dealers.

THE ROUND-UP

D. K. Gill, aged 65, a prominent G. A. R. man, died at Oregon City yesterday.

The Damascus creamery plant in Portland burned at 10 o'clock Tuesday night. Loss about $2000.

Plans for the entertainment of Roosevelt when he visits Portland next month, will be completed tonight.

Eugene V. Debs, socialist candidate for president, will speak in Portland Labor day, Sept. 2.

Hop picking began at Aurora Tuesday, but will not be general until next week.

Hop picking this year is about a week earlier than usual, and pickers are "reasonably scarce."

Thomas King, aged 17, was the leader of a party of three that has been taking joy rides in "borrowed" automobiles. He is in the hospital with a dislocated leg, the result of the car he had borrowed jumping the grade.

Livestock will be a big feature of the Polk county fair at Dallas this year, Oct. 3, 4, and 5.

Edward Struck, a young man of Hood River, was found dead yesterday in an orchard where he had been working. An empty chloroform bottle was found near the body. He suffered from acute indigestion and was accustomed to taking the drug, and it is presumed, took an overdose.

The Bowles' alfalfa mill, at Baker City, burned Sunday night, and indications are that the fire was of incendiary origin. The loss was about $6000.

Mrs. C. B. Merrick, whose husband, Portland's postmaster, died at Lakeview last week, received word yesterday that her brother had accidentally gotten his leg crushed in a logging camp, and may die. He was pinned down by the log for more than an hour before he could be released.

Bay City has, by vote, authorized its council to increase its bonded indebtedness by $100,000.

McMinnville will have a children's industrial fair and baby show combined September 27-28.

The "Oregon Wolf" won the free-for-all in the Astoria regatta yesterday, making the first 20 miles at a 40-mile-an-hour pace, and breaking all speed records of the Columbia.

SOLD CHEAP MILK IN "HORLICK MILK" JAR

W. W. Pearce, manager at Park and Washington, pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Bell to selling a cheaper grade of malted milk from jars in which "Horlick's Malted Milk" had been blown and when Horlick's Malted Milk was called for. He was fined $25 and costs. The complaint was signed by Food Commissioner Bailey, who is determined to stop the practice of substituting one brand of goods for another without notification of the substitution being made.—Oregon Sunday Journal, Portland, Oregon.
