REPUBLICAN POLICIES GOOD.

So far as political policies can produce good times, the Republican party has done it.

For ten years the country has had bumper good times for laborer and producer.

Wages of labor have been high and prices of all farm products have averaged high.

There should be no thought by any intelligent person of putting our country on a free trade basis.

We seriously believe we have the greatest country in the world.

We need a great, steady brain at the head of this nation of our hundred million people.

SHALL I SEND MY CHILDREN TO COLLEGE?

This is one of the most important questions in many families. For a career in one of the so-called learned professions the four-year course may be valuable.

But if your son or daughter expects to work for a living a two-year course is better.

They will be started earlier upon the serious duties of life, and be more apt to succeed.

By all means consider the home college first.

If you must send your child away, send to a good one.

CRIME IS ON THE INCREASE.

Since Sheriff Collier has been in office Albert Green was killed. He was drunk. Oliver Snyder was killed. He was killed by drunks. A Greek was killed at Dixie. Sweek was killed, and he was killed by a drunk. Barnes was killed when both he and his slayer were drinking. Crowley was killed. He was drunk and was killed by a man who was drunk. There are five men, Elmer Shields, Earl Shields, Bert Green, Ben Hinton and Joe Casaday in the penitentiary for life, and they were drunk when they killed Snyder. These men were either heads of families, fathers, husbands or brothers, and those upon whom the sorrow or shame fell represent more than one hundred of Grant county's citizens.

Blue Mountain Eagle, Grant county.

The Eagle does not state whether these crimes were committed in dry precincts or wet.

One thing is certain, serious crimes and lawlessness are on the increase in Oregon.

WHY NOT TEACH AGRICULTURE?

It is probably useless to remind an agricultural college that its principal business is to teach agriculture.

It is a thankless task to try to get any public institution out of a rut it has once fallen into by mistake.

Here is a bulletin advertising a college to train professional men, especially business managers.

The commercial course is held up as being superior to any other business college in the state to train business men.

The school holds itself out especially for the training of high-class office employees, railroad and bank bookkeeping, etc.

The four great departments of country life are agriculture, horticulture, dairying and livestock of all kinds.

If these departments were covered completely and good hands turned out for those purposes the state would be better served.

There are too many of our young people being turned away from the industrial walks of life and directed into soft-handed jobs.

There is very little excuse for maintaining at state expense a big commercial department at a state farmers' school.

$100 FOR A SLOGAN.

Kenneth Myers, secretary of the New Westminster Progressive Association, offers $100 for the best slogan for that city.

The contest closes September 12, and there is a second prize of $50, out of which the bright city up north gets publicity.

Study the map, read the statistical reports, and then try your hand on a slogan for advertising purposes.

We suggest the passage from the Psalms: "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings glad tidings of good things."

No use sending any bulletins on dry farming to the Willamette valley.

Eastern senators are sending us speeches on sugar tariff. Just the same there is no excuse for a tariff to protect a few Louisiana cane sugar manufacturers. The sugar tax is the biggest tax an American family pays.

These lines from Pope's Essay on Man, appropose to Governor West:

"Vice is a monster of such hideous mien, That to be hated needs but to be seen; Yet seen too often, familiar with her face, We first endure, then, pity then embrace."

building was in the edge of the settlement. Now it is almost in the center of the business district. The structure has been used as a barn for many years.

R. H. Ryan, who sold the quarter block containing the sites of Central school and the old Cross market to the P. E. & E. will leave in a few days for Ohio, and will drive an automobile on the entire trip. Mr. Ryan is 66 years of age, his wife 68, and they go to visit.

In purchasing the block of ground to be used as central station the railroad company acquired the home of Mrs. Thomas Hubbard, widow of a prominent farmer of 20 years ago, as well as the modern cottage recently erected by Mrs. Dr. E. C. Pomeroy. The latter cost $1000.

BOARD OF TRADE CAN GET YOU ROOMS

The clerical force of the Board of Trade office has been busy much of the time for the past few days letting rooms of private citizens for the benefit of state fair visitors. The rush during the fair is usually so large that the hotels, boarding and rooming houses are unable to take care of them all. Many hundred rooms have been offered, and strangers in the city are advised that they can secure rooms by calling at the Board of Trade office, any time during business hours, and as the crowds grow larger and the demand increases, the offices will be kept open until late in the evening.

First Appearance

Mr. Monteth, who makes his first appearance tonight at the state fair pavilion, as soloist with the DeCaprio band, is one of the greatest baritone singers in the United States. His solo work will surprise those who have not heard him sing. He is well-known as a leader in singing at Portland and Seattle.

engines to pull them. From big steam shovels that handle a couple of cubic yards of dirt at a grab, down to dainty little molds for printing butter. Most of this material was in place, and much of it coupled up with the power and ready to start running, but there was a small army there too, putting on the finishing touches.

The big barns are full of stock, and the very best. Some horses that would kick the beam, if they were the kicking kind, at a point well above a ton. Great big lady and gentleman horses, with big, innocent eyes that looked at you as though they would ask what the whole affair was about, anyway.

Big Percherons, bob-tailed Belgians, other that would be a horse on the horse editor if he were asked to name them, and all the very finest of their kind.

The cattle barns were filled too, with the aristocracy of Oregon's big cattle ranches. They were in style, too, with their hair trimmed, freshly bathed, clean as well as clean-limbed. Dainty little Jerseys, regular milk factories, big white-faced Herefords, wise looking enough for politicians, Durhams and all the others, and all kinds except poor.

The hog barns were also filled with a choice collection, but the horse editor confesses to having seen but two of them, for the first pen he peeped into had a couple of as pretty Jersey Reds as ever human eye beheld. They were not red, but had as handsome pictures and auburn always was non-get-a-passable to the old horseman.

At the grand stand a goodly crowd was gathered to see the speedy ones taking their exercise, and there were some fine speed showings. There promises to be some unusually good speed contests this year, the weather permitting. The track is in fine condition and if old Jupe Play plugs his sprinkling can, there is going to be some records broken. The material, horses and drivers are on the grounds to do it, if they have a reasonable chance.

Superintendent Meredith has proven in the position as he has everywhere else, the right man in the right place. Frank has a fund of tact and a knowledge of human nature, that makes him as supple as an eel and as versatile as a kitten. He fits into any kind of a place and always completely fills it. This faculty is largely responsible for the biggest and best showing the state fair has ever made. He didn't make the stuff, but he is largely responsible for much of it being here.

Another feature should not be overlooked, in fact, cannot well be, for it is in evidence on all sides, is the magnificent floral decoration of the grounds. A great bank of red geraniums forces your attention as you enter the grounds and then there is a wealth of other things crowding one on the other, and each just a little more beautiful. The collection of dahlias is magnificent—they are all colors and mixtures, big and little, long, ragged-haired literary dahlias; crop-haired, pug-nosed dahlias, with their ears growing close to their heads, variegated, straggly-petaled, poetical dahlias some of them a little off in meter. In fact with a little imagination one can pick out all kinds of political, religious and practical dahlias from Teddy to Ben Selling; Talmage to the Salvation Army, and from the Carnegie library kind to "Jimmy the hobo."

This display and arrangement was made by Mr. Hugh Brian, the landscape artist of Portland. It is certainly a fine one, and elicits universal praise and as it is about the first thing one sees on entering the grounds, it seems to put a good taste in one's mouth.

It is undoubtedly, so far as displays and exhibits are concerned, Oregon's greatest fair, and that is saying much. Whether it will be the best attended and most successful in that way, depends on the weather, and this is one of the years that the weather has shipped its leash and is doing all kinds of strange stunts. It does seem as though the weather clerk's sprinkling can must be about empty. If so, the Oregon state fair of 1912 will go into history as the biggest and best ever.
